Case No. 37,107 II

NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

By act of the Tennessee General Assembly, Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-106(d)(as amended) both Husband and Wife in this lawsuit are restrained and enjoined, until further order of the Court from:

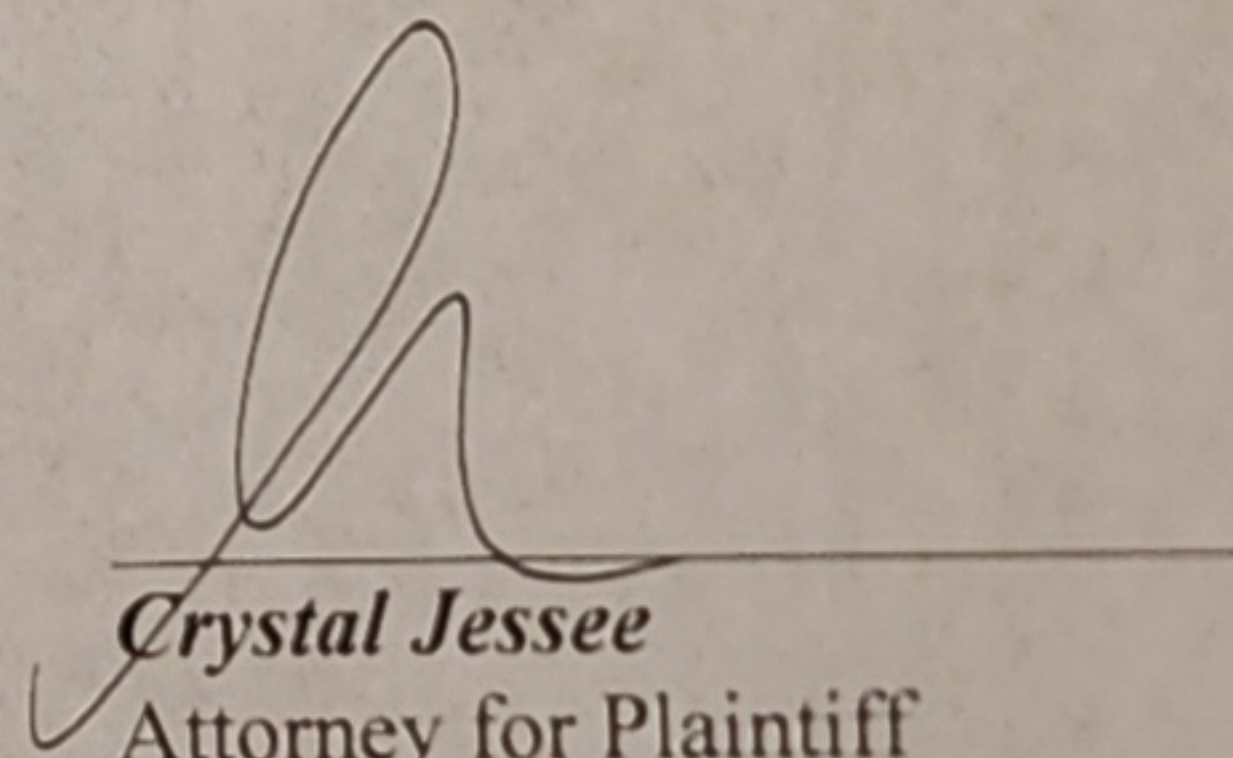

1. Transferring, assigning, borrowing against, concealing or in any way dissipating or disposing, without the consent of the other party or an order of the court, of any marital property (expenditures from current income to maintain the marital standard of living and the usual and ordinary costs of operating a business are not restricted by this injunction, but each party shall maintain records of all expenditures, copies of which shall be available to the other party upon request).
2. Voluntarily canceling, modifying, terminating, assigning, or allowing to lapse for nonpayment of premiums, any insurance policy, including, but not limited to, life, health, disability, homeowners, renters, and automobile, where such insurance policy provides coverage to either of the parties or the children, or that names either of the parties or the children as beneficiaries without the consent of the other party or an order of the court ("modifying" includes any change of beneficiary status).

3. Harassing, threatening, assaulting or abusing the other and from making disparaging remarks about the other to or in the presence of any children of the parties or to either party's employer.
4. Hiding, destroying, or spoiling, in whole or in part, any evidence electronically stored or on computer hard drives or other memory storage devices.
5. Relocating any children of the parties outside the State of Tennessee, or more than fifty (50) miles from the marital home, without the permission of the other party or an order from the court, except in the case of a removal based upon a well-founded fear of physical abuse against either the fleeing parent or the child.

In cases of relocation, as described in paragraph 5, upon request of the non-relocating parent, the court will conduct an expedited hearing, by telephone conference if appropriate, to determine the reasonableness of the relocation and to make such other orders as appropriate.

A. CHILD SUPPORT -Child Support Determined upon Final Entry of an Order.

Father's gross monthly income is $ 5258.52

Mother's gross monthly income is $ 1000.00

1. The final child support order is as follows:
- a. The  mother  father shall pay to the other parent as regular child support the sum of $ _____  weekly  monthly  twice per month  every two weeks. The Child Support Worksheet shall be attached to this Order as an Exhibit.***

If this is a deviation from the Child Support Guidelines, explain all of the following:

The reason for the deviation: _____

The presumptive amount of the child support (without the deviation): _____

How is the application of the Guidelines unjust or inappropriate?

_____

How is the best interest of the child served?

Does the child support obligation after the deviation provide for all of the child(ren)'s needs, taking into consideration both parents' income? _____

2. Retroactive Support: A judgment is hereby awarded in the amount of $ _____ to  mother  father against the child support payor representing retroactive support required under Section 1240-2-4.06 of the D.H.S. Income Shares Child Support Guidelines dating from _____ which shall be paid (including pre/post judgment interest) at the rate of $ _____ per  week  month  twice per month  every two weeks until the judgment is paid in full.

The parents acknowledge that court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced or modified.

*Child Support Worksheet can be found on DHS website at <http://www.state.tn.us/humanserv/is/isdocuments.html> or at your local child support offices.

B. FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTION***

The  mother  father is the parent receiving child support.

The Mother shall claim the following children: Daniel, Biani, Brynley, and Gabriel Black Every Year.

The Father shall claim the following children: ** The Father does not file taxes due to Government Income.

The  mother  father may claim the exemptions for the child or children so long as child support payments are current by the claiming parent on January 15 of the year when the return is due. The exemptions may be claimed in:  alternate years starting _____ each year  other: _____.

The  mother  father will furnish IRS Form 8332 to the parent entitled to the exemption by February 15 of the year the tax return is due.

C. PROOF OF INCOME AND WORK-RELATED CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Each parent shall send proof of income to the other parent for the prior calendar year as follows:

- IRS Forms W-2 and 1099 shall be sent to the other parent on or before February 15.
- A copy of his or her federal income tax return shall be sent to the other parent on or before April 15 or any later date when it is due because of an extension of time for filing.
- The completed form required by the Department of Human Services shall be sent to the Department on or before the date the federal income tax return is due by the parent paying child support. This requirement applies only if a parent is receiving benefits from the Department for a child.

The parent paying work-related child care expenses shall send proof of expenses to the other parent for the prior calendar year and an estimate for the next calendar year, on or before February 15.

D. HEALTH AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Reasonable health insurance on the child or children will be:

- maintained by the mother
- maintained by the father
- maintained by both

** The Father shall maintain Medical and Dental Insurance through the VA. If he should become ineligible for insurance, the mother shall apply for TennCare for the children.

Proof of continuing coverage shall be furnished to the other parent annually or as coverage changes. The parent maintaining coverage shall authorize the other parent to consult with the insurance carrier regarding the coverage in effect.

* NOTE: The child support schedule assumptions in the guidelines (1240-2-4-.03 (6)(b) ) assume that the parent receiving the child support will get the tax exemptions for the child.

Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, which may include but is not limited to, deductibles or co-payments, eyeglasses, contact lens, routine annual physicals, and counseling will be paid by  mother  father  pro rata in accordance with their incomes. After insurance has paid its portion, the parent receiving the bill will send it to the other parent within ten days. The other parent will pay his or her share within 30 days of receipt of the bill.

If available through work, the  mother  father shall maintain dental, orthodontic, and optical insurance on the minor child or children. ** The Father shall maintain Medical and Dental Insurance through the VA. If he should become ineligible for insurance, the mother shall apply for TennCare for the children.

E. LIFE INSURANCE

If agreed upon by the parties, the  mother  father  both shall insure his/her own life in the minimum amount of $_____ by whole life or term insurance. Until the child support obligation has been completed, each policy shall name the child/children as sole irrevocable primary beneficiary, with the  other parent  other _____, as trustee for the benefit of the child(ren), to serve without bond or accounting.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child or children are scheduled to reside the majority of the time as designated in Section I.A. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to:

- Mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.
- Arbitration by a neutral party selected by parents or the Court.
- The Court DUE TO ORDER OF PROTECTION OR RESTRICTIONS.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by  written request  certified mail other: _____.

In the dispute resolution process:

- A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
- B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
- C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.

- D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

- (1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;
- (2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;
- (3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;
- (4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of children who are being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;
- (5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider. The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;
- (6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;
- (7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

- (8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child or children shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and
- (9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities; provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

- (a) After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:
  - (1) Statement of intent to move;
  - (2) Location of proposed new residence;
  - (3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
  - (4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.
- (b) Absent agreement by the parents on a new visitation schedule within thirty (30) days of the notice or upon a timely objection in response to the notice, the relocating parent shall file a petition seeking approval of the relocation. The non-relocating parent has thirty (30) days to file a response in opposition to the petition. In the event no response in opposition is filed within thirty (30) days, the parent proposing to relocate with the child shall be permitted to do so.
- (c) (1) If a petition in opposition to relocation is filed, the court shall determine whether relocation is in the best interest of the minor child.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by  both parents  mother  father  neither.
Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. MOTION FOR ALIMONY

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Teshia Y. Black, herein after referred to as the "Wife," and would file this Motion for Temporary and Permanent Alimony, and in support of same would aver as follows:

1. The husband has always been the main provider for the family, as the wife has always stayed at home to care for the four (4) minor children during the duration of the marriage;
2. The Wife has always been supported by the Husband, and he is continuously paid for the majority of the food, upkeep, and maintenance for the Wife;
3. At this time, the Wife has no way of supporting herself with her current wages, and needs further support from this Court, as she has minimal income. The Husband, though he is on disability, works several jobs outside of the house,
4. The Wife has attached hereto an Affidavit outlining her income and expenses, showing her need for alimony.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, THE WIFE PRAYS as follows:

The Wife prays that the Court enter an Order based upon her Motion and Affidavit filed herewith, and specifically finds that she is in need of temporary support, and the Husband has the ability to continue to support her at the rate as he has done during the marriage. The Wife also prays for all such further relief, both general and specific, as the Court may deem fit.

Cocke County Circuit Court	STATE OF TENNESSEE CIVIL SUMMONS page 1 of 2	Case Number 37,107 II
TESHA Y. BLACK Vs. JEREMY SCOTT BLACK

Served On:

Jeremy Scott Black 1096 Clearview Drive Newport, TN 37821

You are hereby summoned to defend a civil action filed against you in Circuit Court, Cocke County, Tennessee. Your defense must be made within thirty (30) days from the date this summons is served upon you. You are directed to file your defense with the clerk of the court and send a copy to the plaintiff's attorney at the address listed below. If you fail to defend this action by the below date, judgment by default may be rendered against you for the relief sought in the complaint.

Issued: 7-30-2024

Clerk / Deputy Clerk

Attorney for Plaintiff: Crystal Jessee
P.O. Box 1537, Greeneville, TN 37744

NOTICE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY EXEMPTION

TO THE DEFENDANT(S): Tennessee law provides a ten thousand dollar ($10,000) personal property exemption as well as a homestead exemption, from execution or seizure to satisfy a judgment. The amount of the homestead exemption depends upon your age and the other factors which are listed in TCA § 26-2-301. If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for your self and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer. Please state file number on list.
