CCSD Issues and violations of numerous Laws

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Thu, Dec 26, 2024 at 12:52 PM
To: CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov

Good afternoon, Sheriff CJ Ball,

My name is Jeremy Black, I have many issues with CCSD.

I figured I would give you a try directly for help in this matter.

Please reply if you can help, or you can ignore me like the rest of the personnel at CCSD

I have submitted and addressed many Documents addressed to you directly through April Devotie at CCSD.

Attached is the document I am submitting to DA Dunn on January 2, 2025 to press charges against CCSD, Several Deputies, My estranged Wife Teshia Black and her accomplices Tammy Webb and Diane Parker.

I have been in contact with TBI, FBI, and DOJ and filed complaints.

I ran a Test Post on Facebook for 30 minutes and received over 200 views and 35 comments.

The most common comment was "there is no way Sheriff CJ Ball knows this is happening"

3 Disabled Veterans contacted me with similar stories concerning CCSD.

Here is the post I ran as a test

FORMAL COMPLAINT FILED
Today, I officially filed a Formal Complaint with the Cocke County Sheriff's Department to address serious concerns about misconduct, civil rights violations, and failures in duty by certain members of the department.

As a 100% disabled combat veteran, I've dedicated my life to upholding the principles of freedom and justice.

It's deeply troubling to face violations of these principles from those sworn to protect them.

This complaint outlines multiple issues, including:
False Arrests and Fabricated Reports – Instances where actions were taken without proper investigation or probable cause.

Excessive Force – Arrests that caused serious injuries, resulting in multiple surgeries.

Failure to Investigate – Legitimate complaints and evidence were dismissed or ignored, leaving me without recourse.

Civil Rights Violations – Actions that disregarded constitutional protections, such as the improper use of my location data without a warrant.

Neglect of Duty – Failing to provide necessary medical care during arrests or follow up on grievances submitted to the department.

This complaint is supported by substantial evidence, including documented injuries, legal precedents, and detailed accounts of the incidents.

My aim is not only to seek justice for myself but to advocate for accountability and ensure others in our community are not subjected to similar injustices.

As someone who served this country, I hold those entrusted with the public's safety to the highest standards.

It is essential for our community to have law enforcement that acts with fairness, professionalism, and integrity.

If you've experienced similar issues or have concerns, I encourage you to stand up and speak out.

Accountability and transparency are key to restoring trust in our justice system.

Thank you for your continued support as I navigate this matter. Together, we can push for a better and more just system for everyone.

Jeremy Black
100% Disabled Combat Veteran
Please share if you believe in accountability and justice for all.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF TENNESSEE

COUNTY OF COCKE

I, Jeremy Black, being first duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

- Personal Information:
    - I am a resident of Cocke County, Tennessee, residing at 4636 Indian Camp Creek Rd, Newport, TN 37721.
    - I am a 100% disabled combat veteran and have been managing PTSD under care for 30 years.
- Purpose of this Affidavit:
    - This affidavit is submitted in support of the formal complaint filed against the Cocke County Sheriff's Department (CCSD) in connection with Case No.: 2024-CR-941.
    - It outlines systemic misconduct, violations of my constitutional rights, and deliberate inaction by specific personnel within the department.
- Relevant Facts and Assertions:
    - Unlawful Arrests and Excessive Force:
        - On July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024, I was wrongfully arrested based on fabricated evidence and warrantless tracking of my location history.
        - The use of excessive force during my August 4, 2024, arrest caused injuries requiring multiple surgeries.
    - Denial of Evidence and Due Process:

      • Despite multiple requests, CCSD has refused to release critical bodycam footage, medical reports, and other evidence necessary for my defense. Administrative personnel, including April Devotie, have delayed or denied lawful records requests without justification.

- Conspiracy and Obstruction of Justice:
    - Specific personnel, including Lt. Zach Magourik, Deputy Josh Smith, and Assistant Chief Chuck Evans, have conspired to suppress evidence, fabricate charges, and interfere with investigations.
    - Deputy Smith's bodycam footage reveals coaching of witnesses to align their statements with false narratives.
- Violation of Civil Rights:
    - My Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendment rights have been violated repeatedly.
    - ADA protections for my PTSD and physical disabilities were ignored during my arrests.

- Request for Action:
    - I respectfully request an impartial investigation into the actions of the named personnel.
    - I urge the District Attorney's Office to pursue appropriate criminal charges and disciplinary actions against those found to have engaged in misconduct.

- Statement of Truth:
    - I affirm under penalty of perjury that the information contained in this affidavit is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

SUBJECT: Systemic Misconduct, Civil Rights Violations, Conspiracy, and Failure to Uphold Duties under Federal and State Laws

SUMMARY OF COMPLAINT

I, Jeremy Black, submit this formal complaint against the Cocke County Sheriff's Department, including specific officers and personnel, for widespread misconduct, violations of my civil rights, conspiracy, and dereliction of duty. The actions of the following individuals demonstrate a coordinated effort directed by internal leadership to obstruct justice, suppress evidence, and facilitate my wrongful arrests.

RESPONDENTS

- April Devotie – Administrator, Cocke County Sheriff's Department
- Deputy Josh Smith – Responding Officer (July 6, 2024)
- Lieutenant Zach Magourik – Supervisor on Scene
- Deputy Austin Kress – Observer and Participant
- Detective Josh Hall – Investigating Officer
- Chuck Evans – Assistant Chief, Cocke County Sheriff's Department
- Six Unnamed Officers – Arresting/Investigating Parties (August 4, 2024)

VIOLATIONS AND LAWS BROKEN

1. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Applicable Law: Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, it is unlawful for state actors to deprive individuals of constitutional rights under color of law.

- Precedent: Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961) – Police misconduct under state authority can give rise to federal liability.

Specific Violations:

- My Fourth Amendment right against unreasonable searches and seizures was violated when my phone's location history was accessed without a warrant (August 4 and September 5, 2024).
- My Fourteenth Amendment right to due process was violated through systemic denial of my evidence and failure to investigate charges against Teshia Black.

2. Official Oppression (§ 39-16-403)

Applicable Law:

- Tennessee Code Annotated § 39-16-403 prohibits misuse of authority to subject individuals to unlawful harm, arrests, or denial of rights.
- Precedent: Ex parte Young, 209 U.S. 123 (1908) – Public officials can be held accountable for acting outside their lawful authority.

Specific Violations:

- Deputy Josh Smith and Lieutenant Magourik used fabricated narratives and omitted evidence, resulting in my wrongful arrests.
- Detective Josh Hall refused to investigate legitimate charges or act on my evidence, demonstrating deliberate indifference.
- Assistant Chief Chuck Evans dismissed my pleas for safety and violated his duty to protect citizens under oath.

3. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

Applicable Law:

- Tennessee Code § 39-12-103 defines conspiracy as two or more individuals agreeing to commit unlawful acts or obstruct justice.
- Precedent: Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) – Private actors and public officials can conspire to violate constitutional rights.

Specific Violations:

- The coordinated refusal to investigate my allegations, suppress evidence, and dismiss my complaints against Teshia Black reflects a conspiracy within the department.
- Officers, including Deputy Smith, Magourik, and Kress, acted collectively to fabricate reports and avoid accountability.

4. Failure to Report Misconduct (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

Applicable Law:

- Under Tennessee Code § 38-8-311, law enforcement personnel are legally obligated to report known misconduct within the department.

Specific Violations:

- April Devotie failed to address my formal complaints and emails regarding evidence and misconduct.
- Lieutenant Magourik and Deputy Smith, despite clear evidence of wrongdoing, failed to report their own misconduct and that of their peers.

5. Aggravated Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-703)

Applicable Law:

- Aggravated perjury occurs when false statements are made under oath in connection with an official proceeding.
- Precedent: State v. Smith, 42 S.W.3d 101 (Tenn. Crim. App. 2000) – False material statements under oath constitute perjury.

Specific Violations:

- Deputy Smith knowingly submitted false incident reports and signed warrants under oath based on fabricated allegations.
- These reports materially impacted judicial proceedings, resulting in my wrongful arrests.

6. Neglect of Duty and Misconduct

Applicable Law:

- Law enforcement officers have a duty to perform their responsibilities impartially and in good faith under state and federal laws.
- Precedent: City of Canton v. Harris, 489 U.S. 378 (1989) – Failure to train or supervise constitutes actionable misconduct.

Specific Violations:

- Detective Josh Hall ignored my valid statements and evidence, failing to uphold his duty as an investigator.

- Assistant Chief Chuck Evans refused to sign warrant for legitimate charges, citing false pretexts, and neglected his oath to uphold justice.

7. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

Applicable Law:

- Conduct that is extreme, outrageous, and causes severe emotional harm constitutes IIED under Tennessee common law.
- Precedent: Bain v. Wells, 936 S.W.2d 618 (Tenn. 1997) – Establishes liability for outrageous and harmful conduct.

Specific Violations:

- The refusal to address my legitimate safety concerns and repeated wrongful arrests caused extreme emotional distress, worsening my PTSD and physical injuries.

EVIDENCE OF COORDINATED CONSPIRACY

- April Devotie – Delayed and denied my requests for evidence, obstructing my ability to defend myself and file charges.
- Deputy Josh Smith – Authored false police reports, omitted critical evidence, and fabricated statements leading to my arrests.
- Lieutenant Magourik – Supervised the events and caused injuries requiring surgery, and facilitated the misconduct. Arrested me based on phone location history without a warrant, violating Fourth Amendment protections.
- Deputy Austin Kress – Acted as an observer yet allowed the misconduct to proceed without challenge.
- Detective Josh Hall – Ignored my stalking and assault statements against Teshia Black and refused to act on submitted evidence.
- Chuck Evans – Twice refused to investigate or sign warrant, abdicating his responsibility as Assistant Chief.
- Six Unnamed Officers – Assisted Lieutenant Magourik Arresting me based on phone location history without a warrant, violating Fourth Amendment protections.

RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request the following actions:

- A full and impartial investigation into the actions of the named individuals.
- Disciplinary action against all personnel involved in the misconduct.
- Referral of these matters to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for independent investigation.
- Immediate corrective measures to address systemic misconduct within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department.

CONCLUSION
The misconduct, conspiracy, and civil rights violations committed by members of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department are systemic and deliberate. The repeated refusal to act on valid evidence, the coordination to suppress accountability, and the violations of constitutional rights demand immediate and transparent action.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Subject: Whistleblower Protections and Reporting Obligations

I am writing to formally remind the Cocke County Sheriff's Department of the legal responsibilities and protections provided under state and federal laws related to whistleblower actions and reporting obligations for misconduct.

Transparency and accountability within law enforcement are essential to maintain public trust. This letter serves as a notice and reminder to uphold the department's legal obligations to report misconduct and protect whistleblowers who come forward with information.

Tennessee State Laws and Policies

- Tennessee Code Annotated (TCA) § 38-8-311 – Duty to Report Police Misconduct
    - Legal Obligation: Tennessee law requires any law enforcement officer or employee of a law enforcement agency to report misconduct or criminal behavior by other officers.
    - Failure to Report: Failure to report such misconduct can result in disciplinary action or criminal liability for aiding and abetting.
- Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) Authority
    - The TBI has authority to investigate law enforcement misconduct, civil rights violations, and corruption when:
        - They are referred cases by local authorities.
        - Citizens file formal complaints.
        - The Governor, DA, or Attorney General requests an investigation.
    - Local departments are encouraged to refer serious allegations to the TBI to ensure transparency and accountability.
- Tennessee Whistleblower Laws (TCA § 50-1-304)
    - Protects individuals, including law enforcement officers, who report misconduct, civil rights violations, or illegal activity.
    - Encourages internal and external reporting of misconduct without fear of retaliation.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-403 – Official Oppression
    - Legal Obligation: It is illegal for any public servant, including law enforcement officers, to intentionally subject someone to mistreatment or abuse under "color of office."

    - Law enforcement agencies that observe this misconduct are obligated to act or face liability for complicity.

- State Policies on Civil Rights Compliance

    - Local law enforcement agencies must comply with state and federal civil rights requirements, including those enforced by the DOJ and TBI.
    - Failing to address or report allegations of civil rights abuses can expose departments to liability.

- Tennessee Code § 38-8-311 – Duty to Report Misconduct:

    - All law enforcement officers are required to report misconduct to the appropriate authorities, including higher-ranking officials, the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI), or federal agencies when necessary.

- Tennessee Code § 39-16-403 – Official Oppression:

    - Any individual acting under color of law who knowingly prevents another from reporting misconduct may be guilty of official oppression.

    Statute: Tennessee law prohibits public servants from acting unlawfully to deprive a person of their rights while under the color of office.

    Precedents:

    - State v. Culver, 918 S.W.2d 287 (Tenn. Crim. App. 1995): Official oppression occurs when public officials misuse their power to harm an individual's rights.
    - United States v. Lanier, 520 U.S. 259 (1997): A pattern of oppressive conduct can establish violations of due process.

    Evidence:
    - Deputy Josh Smith's fabricated reports and false sworn statements led to your arrest.
    - Deputies (including Lt. Magourik and Deputy Kress) failed to acknowledge your injuries and ADA-protected PTSD during the arrest.

- Assistant Chief Chuck Evans refused to act on credible evidence and reports, thereby failing to uphold his oath of office.

Conspiracy (§ 39-12-103)

Statute: Conspiracy occurs when two or more individuals agree to commit an unlawful act or a lawful act by unlawful means.

Precedents:

- Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144 (1970): Conspiracy claims under § 1983 require evidence of agreement and overt acts that violate constitutional rights.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Conspiracy by public officials to deprive someone of rights can lead to civil and criminal liability.

Evidence:

- Deputies acted in concert to suppress evidence, as seen in:
- April Devotie's delayed or denied records requests.
- Detective Josh Hall's failure to file charges after taking your statement.
- Assistant Chief Evans dismissing credible complaints and reports.
- The coordinated refusal to investigate stalking and false domestic assault claims, alongside warrantless GPS tracking, demonstrates a conspiracy to suppress your rights.

Neglect of Duty (§ 38-8-311)

Statute: Tennessee law requires law enforcement officers to fulfill their duties impartially and report any misconduct they observe.

Precedents:

- State v. Baker, 751 S.W.2d 154 (Tenn. Crim. App. 1987): Failure to act or investigate known misconduct constitutes neglect of duty.
- City of Canton v. Harris, 489 U.S. 378 (1989): Law enforcement agencies must train officers to fulfill constitutional obligations.

Evidence:

- Detective Josh Hall failed to act on evidence you submitted regarding stalking and assault.
- Assistant Chief Evans refused to file charges, dismissing your concerns despite clear evidence of criminal conduct.
- Deputies failed to intervene in misconduct (e.g., Deputy Smith's false reports and denial of medical care).

Aggravated Perjury (§ 39-16-703)

Statute: Aggravated perjury occurs when:

- A false statement is made under oath.
- The statement is material to an official proceeding.

Precedents:

- Bronston v. United States, 409 U.S. 352 (1973): False statements under oath are perjury if they are intentional and material.
- State v. Henry, 834 S.W.2d 273 (Tenn. 1992): Material statements that affect the outcome of an investigation or case constitute aggravated perjury.

Evidence:

- Deputy Josh Smith's incident reports (July 6, 2024) contain false statements:
    - Fabricated allegations that you pinned Teshia down.
    - Omissions and mischaracterizations of the events captured on bodycam.
- Deputy Smith signed warrants and reports under oath, making these false statements material to your arrest and prosecution.

- State Policies on Civil Rights Compliance

    - Local law enforcement agencies must comply with state and federal civil rights requirements, including those enforced by the DOJ and TBI.
    - Failing to address or report allegations of civil rights abuses can expose departments to liability.

Federal Laws and Policies

- Federal Whistleblower Protection Act (5 U.S.C. § 2302):
    - Protects individuals from retaliation when reporting instances of misconduct, fraud, or abuse within public agencies, including law enforcement departments.

- 42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Civil Rights Violations

  Statute: Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, it is unlawful for any person acting under the color of state law to deprive another of their constitutional rights.

  - Legal Obligation: Under this federal law, law enforcement officers, acting "under color of law," are liable if they violate someone's civil rights.
  - Failure to Act: Agencies that fail to report or investigate civil rights abuses can be considered complicit or negligent, especially if there is a pattern or policy of ignoring violations.
  - FBI Jurisdiction: Allegations of civil rights violations, including misconduct or excessive force, can be reported to the FBI under their Civil Rights Division.

  Precedents:

  - Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961): Public officials can be held liable under § 1983 for actions violating constitutional rights.
  - Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386 (1989): Law enforcement must act reasonably under the Fourth Amendment during arrests or detentions.

  Evidence:

  - Warrantless GPS tracking of your location (August 4, 2024, and September 5, 2024) violated your Fourth Amendment rights (see Carpenter v. United States, 138 S. Ct. 2206 (2018)).
  - Deputies failed to provide medical care for visible injuries and disregarded your documented PTSD, violating the Eighth Amendment and ADA protections.
  - Deputies ignored submitted evidence of misconduct and failed to investigate stalking and domestic assault allegations.

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 – Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law

    - Legal Obligation: Makes it a federal crime for any law enforcement officer to willfully deprive someone of their constitutional rights.
    - Reporting Obligation: Local departments are encouraged to refer civil rights violations to federal authorities (FBI) when misconduct crosses this threshold.
    - Criminal Penalties: Officers found guilty under § 242 face severe penalties, including fines, imprisonment, or both.

- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) – Title II

    - Legal Obligation: Public entities, including law enforcement, must accommodate individuals with disabilities, including PTSD or physical impairments. Failure to do so can result in ADA violations.
    - Reporting: When ADA violations occur, they can be escalated to the Department of Justice (DOJ) for investigation and enforcement.

- The "Pattern or Practice" Investigation (42 U.S.C. § 14141)

    - Legal Obligation: The DOJ can investigate entire police departments that show a pattern or practice of civil rights violations.
    - Local law enforcement agencies that become aware of systemic misconduct are expected to self-report or take corrective action to avoid federal intervention.

Actions Required

- Reporting Misconduct to TBI or FBI:

    - Any allegations of misconduct, including civil rights violations, must be forwarded to the appropriate oversight agencies, including the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation or the Federal Bureau of Investigation, for independent review.

- FBI Reporting: Civil rights violations under federal law (e.g., 42 U.S.C. § 1983, § 242) must be reported to the FBI by local agencies, especially when systemic abuse occurs.
- TBI Reporting: Local law enforcement is expected to involve the TBI in cases of serious misconduct, corruption, or criminal behavior by officers.
- Failure to Report: Departments that do not act on credible allegations of misconduct risk violating Tennessee law and federal oversight laws, particularly in cases of systemic abuse.
- ADA Compliance: Violations of the ADA must be addressed internally or reported to the DOJ for investigation and enforcement.
- Encouraging Whistleblower Cooperation:
    - Encourage all personnel to come forward with information regarding any misconduct or violations of departmental policy, knowing they are protected from retaliation under the law.

- Internal Accountability Measures:

    - Establish and communicate clear internal mechanisms to document, investigate, and report misconduct.

Conclusion

It is critical to ensure that all personnel are aware of their responsibilities and the protections available to those who report misconduct. Upholding these principles strengthens public confidence and ensures a lawful and ethical approach to law enforcement.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

I write to formally request the involvement of an independent third party to oversee the ongoing matters involving my grievances and allegations against members of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department (CCSD). Given the gravity of the allegations, including misconduct, constitutional violations, and systemic issues, third-party oversight is essential to ensure a fair, impartial, and transparent review.

Key Concerns Requiring Oversight

- Unlawful Arrests and Excessive Force:
    - Arrests on July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024, based on fabricated evidence, false statements, and warrantless tracking of my location history.
    - The use of excessive force during the August 4 arrest resulted in severe injuries requiring multiple surgeries.
- Suppression of Evidence and Retaliatory Conduct:
    - Evidence and statements I provided to Detective Josh Hall and other officers were ignored or dismissed without due process.
    - Retaliatory actions, including baseless accusations and defamation, have further escalated the harm caused.
- Civil Rights and ADA Violations:
    - Systematic disregard for my rights under the First, Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments, as well as violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), due to my documented PTSD and physical injuries.
- Conspiracy to Obstruct Justice:
    - Evidence of coordinated efforts among CCSD personnel, including Deputy Josh Smith, Lt. Magourik, Assistant Chief Chuck Evans, and April Devotie, to suppress evidence, fabricate charges, and interfere with investigations.

Justification for Third-Party Oversight

- Ensuring Impartiality: Internal investigations may lack objectivity due to potential conflicts of interest within the department.
- Promoting Transparency: Independent oversight will ensure that findings and decisions are free from bias, fostering public confidence in the resolution process.
- Preventing Future Misconduct: Third-party recommendations can help implement systemic changes to prevent similar issues from recurring.

Proposed Oversight Entities

I request that oversight be provided by one or more of the following:

- Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI): To review allegations of misconduct and systemic failures.
- Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI): To investigate potential civil rights violations and conspiracies.
- An Independent Monitor or Ombudsman: Appointed to oversee investigations, gather facts, and report findings impartially.

Requested Actions

- Immediate Acknowledgment: Acknowledge receipt of this appeal and confirm whether third-party oversight will be initiated within 14 days.
- Engagement with Oversight Entities: Facilitate contact with the TBI, FBI, or an independent monitor to establish oversight protocols.
- Transparent Communication: Provide updates on actions taken to address my concerns, including timelines for reviews and investigations.

Conclusion

The issues raised herein are too critical to be resolved solely through internal processes. Third-party oversight is the most effective way to ensure fairness, accountability, and the protection of constitutional rights. I urge you to take immediate steps to engage an independent entity to oversee these matters.

If this appeal is not addressed within the requested timeline, I will escalate my concerns to state and federal authorities, including filing formal complaints with the U.S. Department of Justice.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Subject: Petition for Internal Review or Investigation

I am formally requesting an internal review or investigation into the actions of several personnel within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department (CCSD). This petition outlines specific incidents and individuals whose conduct, I believe, has violated departmental policies, state and federal laws, and constitutional rights.

Key Concerns and Allegations

1. Neglect of Duty

- Detective Josh Hall failed to act on the evidence and statements I provided regarding stalking and domestic assault. He dismissed my attempts to file charges, citing an ongoing investigation as justification for inaction.

2. Unlawful Arrests and Use of Excessive Force

- On July 6, 2024, I was wrongfully arrested based on fabricated allegations. Despite visible injuries, no medical care was offered.
- On August 4, 2024, I was subjected to excessive force during an arrest, resulting in significant physical injuries that required surgery. Lt. Magourik and other deputies acted with unnecessary aggression during this incident.

3. Civil Rights Violations

- Deputy Josh Smith authored false police reports and submitted them under oath. His actions contributed to the deprivation of my Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
- Multiple officers ignored reasonable accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), exacerbating my PTSD and physical injuries.

4. Official Oppression

- April Devotie knowingly provided false or misleading information regarding the availability of evidence critical to my defense.
- Assistant Chief Chuck Evans dismissed my reports of threats to my safety, further undermining my ability to protect myself.

5. Conspiracy

- Evidence suggests a coordinated effort among various personnel to suppress evidence, fabricate charges, and obstruct justice.

Relevant Laws and Policies Violated

- Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Protecting against the deprivation of constitutional rights under color of law.
- Official Oppression (Tennessee Code § 39-16-403): Unlawful use of position to harm or oppress others.
- Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311): Failure to report or act on misconduct.
- False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502): Knowingly providing false information to law enforcement or judicial officers.
- Aggravated Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-703): Submitting false statements under oath in an official proceeding.
- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): Failing to accommodate known disabilities.

Requested Actions

- Immediate Internal Review:

Conduct an impartial investigation into the actions of the following individuals:

  - Lt. Magourik
  - Deputy Josh Smith
  - Detective Josh Hall
  - Deputy Kress
  - April Devotie
  - Assistant Chief Chuck Evans
  - Six unnamed deputies involved in the August 4, 2024, arrest.

- Disclosure of Policies and Records:

  - Provide the policies regarding the handling of complaints and grievances.
  - Release all records, bodycam footage, and internal communications related to my arrests and complaints.

- Disciplinary Action:
    - Take appropriate action against personnel found to have engaged in misconduct.
- Transparency Measures:
    - Publish the findings of the internal review and detail the steps taken to prevent future misconduct.

Conclusion

I submit this petition with the expectation that the Cocke County Sheriff's Department will act in good faith to address these serious concerns. Failure to conduct a fair and thorough investigation will compel me to escalate this matter to state and federal oversight agencies.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Subject: Request for Criminal Investigation and Prosecution of Deputy Josh Smith for Misconduct, Aggravated Perjury, Civil Rights Violations, and Related Offenses

INTRODUCTION

This brief outlines the allegations and supporting evidence against Deputy Josh Smith of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department. The evidence demonstrates that Deputy Smith violated numerous state and federal laws, including civil rights statutes, while abusing his authority as a law enforcement officer. His actions include fabricating evidence, failing to provide medical care, and conspiring to manipulate the outcome of legal proceedings. The charges are based on documented misconduct, statutory violations, and judicial precedents.

Summary of Allegations:

This formal submission requests a thorough investigation into Deputy Josh Smith's conduct regarding his handling of the events on July 6, 2024, and other related matters. Evidence, including body camera footage, witness testimony, and official documents, strongly supports allegations of misconduct, aggravated perjury, tampering with evidence, civil rights violations, and intentional infliction of emotional distress.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

- On July 6, 2024, Deputy Josh Smith responded to an alleged domestic incident at 1096 Clearview Drive.
- Deputy Smith's incident report and sworn warrant affidavits contain material falsehoods, including:
    - Allegations that I pinned Teshia Black and Daniel Black, contradicted by bodycam footage.
    - Omitted critical facts, including Teshia's role as the aggressor and statements by Daniel Black disproving her claims.
- Bodycam footage confirms that Deputy Smith coached Teshia and manipulated her statements to align with his fabricated narrative.
- Deputy Smith denied me medical attention for my visible injuries, including bleeding face wounds, and failed to consider my documented PTSD, a violation of both state law and the ADA.
- Deputy Smith conspired with Lt. Zach Magourik and others to arrest me based on false evidence.

LEGAL VIOLATIONS

1. Aggravated Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-703):

Statute: Aggravated perjury occurs when: A person knowingly makes a false statement under oath, The statement is material to an official proceeding.

Facts: Deputy Smith knowingly authored and signed two warrants and incident reports containing material falsehoods under oath. The bodycam transcript and physical evidence directly contradict his sworn statements, making the false statements material to the case outcome.

- Violation: Deputy Smith knowingly signed two incident reports and warrants with fabricated allegations.
- Evidence: Bodycam footage and witness statements directly contradict these sworn reports.
- Precedent: State v. Merriman, 410 S.W.3d 779 (Tenn. 2013)—False statements under oath materially undermine judicial integrity.
- Precedent: Bronston v. United States, 409 U.S. 352 (1973).

2. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983):

Statute: Section 1983 prohibits deprivation of constitutional rights under color of law.

Facts: Deputy Smith knowingly authored and signed two warrants and incident reports containing material falsehoods under oath. The bodycam transcript and physical evidence directly contradict his sworn statements, making the false statements material to the case outcome. Deputy Smith violated my constitutional rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments by conducting an arrest without probable cause and neglecting to provide medical assistance.

- Violation: Deputy Smith's misconduct, including fabricating evidence and failing to offer medical care for visible injuries, deprived me of my constitutional rights under the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments.
- Violation: Failure to provide medical care for visible injuries and known PTSD violated Eighth Amendment protections against cruel and unusual punishment (Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976)).
- Violation: Fourth Amendment: I was unlawfully arrested based on falsified statements without probable cause.
- Violation: Fourteenth Amendment: Fabricated evidence and bias against me as a disabled veteran denied me due process.
- Evidence: Confirmed visible injuries that were ignored, and bodycam footage highlights procedural violations.

- Precedent: Smith's actions are clear deprivations under Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976)—Denial of medical care to detainees constitutes a violation of the Eighth Amendment, where abuse of authority constitutes actionable civil rights violations.
- Precedent: Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961).

3. Official Oppression (Tennessee Code § 39-16-403): Statute: Official oppression occurs when a public servant intentionally subjects another to mistreatment under the guise of official duty.These actions directly violate Tennessee law prohibiting misconduct under official authority.

Facts: Deputy Smith, acting under color of law, intentionally subjected me to false arrest and detention, causing physical and emotional harm while ignoring exculpatory evidence. Deputy Smith used his authority to unlawfully detain, intimidate, and cause harm, ignoring proper investigative protocols.

- Violation: Deputy Smith used his official capacity to manipulate evidence and detain Jeremy Black without probable cause.
- Violation: Smith knowingly manipulated statements from Teshia Black, coached her to omit material details, and used those fabrications to justify Jeremy Black's arrest.
- Violation: Failed to investigate contradictory evidence (bodycam, injuries, and witness accounts), abusing his authority.
- Evidence: Coaching Teshia Black during her statement and neglecting exculpatory evidence.
- Precedent: State v. Brooks, 741 S.W.2d 920 (Tenn. Crim. App. 1987)—Abuse of power to unjustly restrict liberty qualifies as official oppression.
- Precedent: State v. Moore, 196 S.W.3d 564 (Tenn. 2006).

4. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103): Statute: A conspiracy occurs when two or more persons agree to commit an offense.

Facts: Deputy Smith conspired with other parties, including Teshia Black, to construct a false narrative that led to my arrest. The bodycam transcript reveals collusion and coaching of statements to align with the fabricated charges.

- Violation: Deputy Smith conspired with Lt. Zach Magourik, Deputy Austin Kress, Teshia Black, Tammy Webb, and Diane Parker to fabricate charges against Jeremy Black.
- Violation: Deputy Smith conspired with Teshia Black and others by:
    - Allowing Teshia's fabricated statements to guide the investigation.
    - Ignoring evidence that contradicted her claims.
    - Failing to document witness inconsistencies, including Daniel Black's statements captured on bodycam.
- Evidence: Bodycam footage reveals collaborative efforts to align false narratives.
- Evidence: Bodycam footage reveals Smith advising Teshia on her statement and ignoring contradictions.
- Precedent: United States v. Jimenez Recio, 537 U.S. 270 (2003)—An agreement to commit unlawful acts constitutes conspiracy.

5. Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311): Statute: Law enforcement officers must report misconduct and act impartially under their oath of office.

Facts: Deputy Smith failed in his duty to provide medical care for my visible injuries and PTSD, as required under Tennessee law and ADA guidelines. His bodycam footage confirms no attempt to address or assess my injuries. His bodycam footage confirms a clear failure to fulfill this duty. Failure to secure or provide accurate and unbiased investigative details regarding the incident.

- Violation: Deputy Smith neglected his obligation to report misconduct and ensure proper treatment of a detainee.
- Violation: Smith failed to provide medical care for visible injuries, violating his sworn duty to protect individuals in his custody.
- Violation: He neglected to investigate exculpatory evidence, including witness testimony and Daniel Black's statements contradicting Teshia's claims.
- Violation: Failure to act violates Smith's ethical and statutory obligations as a law enforcement officer.
- Evidence: Ignoring visible injuries and refusing to provide accommodations for disabilities.

- Evidence: Bodycam footage captures Deputy Smith speaking with Lt. Magourik and others while deliberately ignoring my medical needs, constituting deliberate indifference to my health and safety.
- Precedent: Neglecting sworn duties undermines public trust in law enforcement.

6. False Reports (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502):

Facts: Deputy Smith filed reports containing knowingly false allegations against me, which led to my arrest without corroborative evidence, violating his oath of impartiality as a public servant.

- Violation: Deliberate misrepresentation in official reports to support baseless charges.
- Evidence: Bodycam and witness testimony directly contradict the content of the incident reports.

7. Violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Statute: Title II of the ADA requires law enforcement to accommodate individuals with disabilities.

Facts: As a combat-disabled veteran with PTSD, Deputy Smith discriminated against me by using my condition as justification for false allegations while denying me necessary medical attention and due process.

- Violation: Smith was aware of Jeremy Black's PTSD diagnosis and physical disabilities (shoulder, elbow, and knee injuries).
- Violation: Despite visible injuries, he failed to provide assistance or consider reasonable accommodations, exacerbating emotional distress.
- Precedent: Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907 (8th Cir. 1998) – failure to accommodate disabilities during law enforcement actions constitutes ADA violations.
- Precedent: Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004).

8. Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law – 18 U.S.C. § 242 Statute:

Criminalizes willful deprivation of constitutional rights by public officials.

Facts: Deputy Smith acted under color of law to deprive me of my constitutional rights, including the right to due process, protection from false arrest, and access to medical care.

- Smith's actions resulted in the violation of Jeremy Black's Fourth and Eighth Amendment rights:
- Violation: False arrest without probable cause.
- Violation: Failure to provide medical care, constituting cruel and unusual punishment.
- Precedent: Screws v. United States, 325 U.S. 91 (1945) – willful misuse of authority under color of law is actionable as a federal offense.
- Precedent: United States v. Lanier, 520 U.S. 259 (1997).

9. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

Facts: Deputy Smith's conduct caused severe emotional distress by falsely arresting me, fabricating evidence, ignoring my injuries, and violating my constitutional rights. Deputy Smith's actions, including false reporting, biased investigations, and deliberate omission of exculpatory evidence, caused severe emotional harm to me and my family.

Elements:

- Defendant's conduct is intentional or reckless.
- Conduct is outrageous and intolerable.
- Causes severe emotional distress.

- Violation: Smith's failure to provide medical care for Jeremy's visible injuries, along with coaching false allegations, caused severe physical and emotional harm.
- Evidence of Smith's disregard for Jeremy's condition demonstrates intentional and reckless conduct.
- Precedent: Miller v. Willbanks, 8 S.W.3d 607 (Tenn. 1999) – IIED claims are actionable where outrageous conduct causes severe emotional harm.
- Precedent: Bain v. Wells, 936 S.W.2d 618 (Tenn. 1997).

10. Evidence Supporting Violations

- Bodycam Footage (July 6, 2024)
    - Captures Smith's coaching of Teshia Black, neglect of injuries, and failure to investigate contradictory evidence.
- Incident Reports and Warrants
    - Signed under oath by Smith, containing fabricated statements inconsistent with video evidence.
- Witness Testimony
    - Statements from Daniel Black disproving Teshia's fabricated claims.

11. LEGAL BASIS FOR ACTION

The following legal precedents and statutes support this complaint:

- Aggravated Perjury: TCA § 39-16-703.
- Aggravated Perjury: Bronston v. United States, 409 U.S. 352 (1973)
- Civil Rights Violations: 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961)).
- Failure to Provide Medical Care:
    - Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976): Deliberate indifference to serious medical needs violates the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments.
- Official Oppression: TCA § 39-16-403.
- Official Oppression: State v. Moore, 196 S.W.3d 564 (Tenn. 2006)
- Conspiracy: TCA § 39-12-103.
- False Reporting: TCA § 39-16-502.
- Fabrication of Evidence: Miller v. Pate, 386 U.S. 1 (1967): Fabricated evidence violates due process.
- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963): Obligation to disclose exculpatory evidence.
- Neglect of Duty: Tenn. Code § 38-8-311
- ADA Violations: Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509 (2004); Americans with Disabilities Act, Title II
- Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law: United States v. Lanier, 520 U.S. 259 (1997); 18 U.S.C. § 242

- Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S. 51 (1988): Loss of potentially exculpatory evidence due to bad faith.
- Tennessee v. Ferguson, 2 S.W.3d 912 (Tenn. 1999): Remedies for loss or destruction of evidence.

12. RELIEF REQUESTED

The Complainant respectfully requests the following actions by the District Attorney's Office:

- File criminal charges against Deputy Josh Smith for the outlined violations.
- Issue sanctions or disciplinary action against Deputy Smith for neglect of duty, fabrication of evidence, and perjury.
- Initiate an independent investigation into systemic misconduct within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department.
- Open an internal and external investigation into Deputy Smith's conduct and all conspirators involved.
- Consideration of broader departmental policies and practices contributing to systemic misconduct.
- Implement measures to ensure accountability and transparency in law enforcement operations.
- Refer the matter to the DOJ, FBI, and TBI for investigation into federal civil rights violations and conspiracy.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Subject: Formal Complaint Against Assistant Chief Chuck Evans

Introduction

I, Jeremy Black, hereby submit this formal complaint against Assistant Chief Chuck Evans of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department for neglect of duty, obstruction of justice, and violations of my civil rights. Assistant Chief Evans' repeated dismissals of valid complaints, refusal to act on credible evidence, and failure to uphold his responsibilities as a law enforcement officer have caused significant harm to my constitutional rights and safety.

Summary of Allegations

Assistant Chief Chuck Evans failed to act on multiple valid complaints and evidence submissions, undermining the integrity of the investigative process. His deliberate inaction, coupled with dismissive behavior, constitutes neglect of duty, obstruction of justice, and conspiracy to suppress my rights.

Laws Violated

1. Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

- Violation: Evans failed to investigate or act on credible complaints regarding threats to my safety and ongoing misconduct by other officers.
- Evidence:
    - On two occasions, Evans dismissed valid complaints I submitted regarding threats to my safety and the suppression of charges.
    - Ignored evidence provided during a follow-up meeting with my attorney present.

2. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Violation: Evans' refusal to address credible threats and his suppression of valid charges violated my due process and equal protection rights under the Constitution.
- Evidence:
    - Refused to act on evidence of stalking, domestic assault, and other criminal behavior.
    - Dismissed my reports without justification, depriving me of fair treatment under the law.

3. Official Oppression (Tennessee Code § 39-16-403)

- Violation: By refusing to act on my complaints and stating he could not sign a warrant because he “didn’t do the investigation,” Evans subjected me to unjust treatment under the guise of his official duties.
- Evidence:
  - His refusal to act on my valid complaints obstructed my ability to pursue justice.
  - Failed to provide a reasonable explanation for suppressing charges supported by evidence.

4. Obstruction of Justice (Tennessee Code § 39-16-603)

- Violation: Evans’ inaction and suppression of my complaints actively obstructed the judicial process.
- Evidence:
  - Dismissed complaints of stalking and domestic assault without proper investigation.
  - Refused to act on evidence presented during a follow-up meeting.

5. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

- Violation: Evans’ actions align with a pattern of suppression and misconduct within the department, indicating a coordinated effort to obstruct justice.
- Evidence:
  - His refusal to act on my complaints is consistent with the actions of other officers, including Detective Josh Hall and Deputy Josh Smith.
  - The suppression of evidence and dismissal of valid complaints appear to be part of a larger conspiracy to protect certain individuals and obstruct my case.

Legal Precedents Supporting Allegations

- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963):
    - Principle: Suppression of evidence favorable to the defendant violates due process.
    - Application: Evans' refusal to act on credible evidence deprived me of my right to due process.
- Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961):
    - Principle: Violations of constitutional rights by officers acting under color of law are actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
    - Application: Evans' inaction and suppression of complaints constitute civil rights violations.
- State v. Ferguson, 2 S.W.3d 912 (Tenn. 1999):
    - Principle: Law enforcement must preserve evidence to ensure a fair trial.
    - Application: Evans' dismissal of valid complaints undermined the judicial process and my ability to seek justice.

Impact of Actions

- Endangerment to Safety:
    - Evans' refusal to act on threats to my safety placed me in danger and allowed criminal behavior to continue unchecked.
- Obstruction of Justice:
    - His suppression of my complaints hindered the legal process and allowed misconduct to persist within the department.
- Violation of Constitutional Rights:
    - Evans' inaction deprived me of my right to due process and equal protection under the law.

Relief Requested

I respectfully request the following:

- Investigation: Conduct a thorough investigation into Assistant Chief Evans' actions, including his suppression of complaints and refusal to act on credible evidence.
- Disciplinary Action: Impose appropriate measures for his neglect of duty, misconduct, and violations of state and federal laws.
- Referral to Higher Authorities: Escalate this matter to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and U.S. Department of Justice for review under civil rights laws.

Conclusion

Assistant Chief Chuck Evans' actions and inactions have caused significant harm to my ability to seek justice and protect my rights. His deliberate neglect of duty, suppression of valid complaints, and refusal to act on credible evidence warrant immediate investigation and accountability.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Subject: Formal Complaint Against Detective Josh Hall

Introduction

I, Jeremy Black, hereby submit this formal complaint against Detective Josh Hall of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department for his failure to act on submitted evidence, suppression of my charges, and intentional neglect of duty. This complaint highlights specific misconduct and violations of state and federal laws that resulted in harm to my constitutional rights and well-being.

Summary of Allegations

Detective Hall's actions and inactions during his handling of my complaints and evidence submission demonstrate neglect of duty, obstruction of justice, and civil rights violations. These failures are compounded by his deliberate suppression of my charges and his misleading statements regarding his authority to act.

Laws Violated

1. Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

- Violation: Detective Hall failed to act on my submitted evidence and statements, neglecting his responsibility to conduct a thorough investigation.
- Evidence:
    - Ignored my submitted charges for stalking and domestic assault against Teshia Black.
    - Refused to take appropriate investigative actions despite receiving sufficient evidence to proceed.

2. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Violation: As a law enforcement officer acting under color of law, Detective Hall's refusal to act on my complaints deprived me of due process and equal protection under the law.
- Evidence:
    - Suppressed charges despite clear evidence of criminal activity, including bodycam footage, medical records, and statements.
    - His inaction created a systemic barrier to justice, violating my constitutional rights.

3. Official Oppression (Tennessee Code § 39-16-403)

- Violation: By refusing to sign warrants Detective Hall knowingly subjected me to unjust treatment under the guise of his official duties.
- Evidence:
    - Refused to act on stalking and domestic assault charges despite clear evidence.
    - Failed to provide adequate justification for suppressing my complaints.

4. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

- Violation: Detective Hall's suppression of my complaints and alignment with other members of the department suggest coordinated efforts to prevent justice.
- Evidence:
    - Consistent suppression of my complaints by multiple officers, including Hall, Deputy Smith, and others.
    - Statements and actions indicating a deliberate effort to protect certain individuals and obstruct my case.

5. Obstruction of Justice (Tennessee Code § 39-16-603)

- Violation: By failing to act on evidence and refusing to pursue warranted charges, Detective Hall actively obstructed the judicial process.
- Evidence:
    - Dismissed valid complaints and evidence without due consideration.
    - Refused to proceed with warrants despite having a legal obligation to do so.

Legal Precedents Supporting Allegations

- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963):
    - Principle: Suppression of evidence favorable to the defendant violates due process.
    - Application: Hall's failure to act on exculpatory evidence obstructed my ability to seek justice.

- Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961):
    - Principle: Violations of constitutional rights by officers acting under color of law are actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
    - Application: Hall's inaction and suppression of complaints constitute civil rights violations.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972):
    - Principle: Failure to disclose material evidence impacts the fairness of legal proceedings.
    - Application: His suppression of my complaints and evidence impaired the integrity of the judicial process.

Impact of Actions

- Violation of Due Process:
    - Hall's refusal to act on valid complaints and evidence deprived me of my right to a fair investigation and legal recourse.
- Emotional and Financial Harm:
    - His inaction prolonged my legal battles and exacerbated the emotional and financial toll on my family.
- Suppression of Justice:
    - Hall's failure to act on my evidence allowed criminal behavior by others to go unchecked, undermining public trust in the justice system.

Relief Requested

I respectfully request the following:

- Investigation: Conduct a thorough investigation into Detective Hall's actions and inactions, including his suppression of charges and refusal to act on submitted evidence.
- Disciplinary Action: Impose appropriate measures for his neglect of duty, misconduct, and violations of state and federal laws.
- Referral to Higher Authorities: Escalate this matter to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and U.S. Department of Justice for review under civil rights laws.

Conclusion

Detective Hall's actions have had severe consequences on my ability to seek justice and protect my rights. His deliberate inaction and suppression of my complaints warrant immediate investigation and accountability.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Subject: Formal Complaint Against Lieutenant Zach Magourik

Introduction

I, Jeremy Black, hereby submit this formal complaint against Lieutenant Zach Magourik of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department for misconduct, neglect of duty, excessive use of force, and violations of my civil rights. His actions, including directly causing injuries that required multiple surgeries, failing to uphold his duties as a law enforcement officer, and his involvement in a conspiracy to suppress my rights, constitute serious breaches of state and federal laws.

Summary of Allegations

Lieutenant Magourik engaged in conduct that violated my constitutional rights, including:

- Excessive use of force, leading to significant physical injuries.
- Neglecting his duty to investigate allegations impartially and lawfully.
- Conspiring with other officers to suppress evidence and fabricate charges.

Laws Violated

1. Excessive Use of Force (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Violation: Magourik's use of force on August 4, 2024, and his involvement in the subsequent arrest caused injuries requiring multiple surgeries, including shoulder and elbow operations.
- Evidence:
    - Medical records documenting my injuries.
    - Bodycam footage showing the unnecessary physical escalation.

2. Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

- Violation: Magourik failed to uphold his duty to act impartially and to ensure that arrests were conducted lawfully.
- Evidence:
    - His involvement in arrests based on false and uncorroborated statements.
    - Refusal to address inconsistencies in evidence provided by witnesses.

3. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Violation: Magourik's actions deprived me of my Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
- Evidence:
    - Arrested me without probable cause.
    - Ignored exculpatory evidence and corroborating witness statements.

4. Official Oppression (Tennessee Code § 39-16-403)

- Violation: By engaging in oppressive behavior under the guise of law enforcement, Magourik abused his authority.
- Evidence:
    - His direct involvement in my wrongful arrest and detainment.
    - Ignored injuries sustained during the arrest and failed to provide medical attention.

5. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

- Violation: Magourik's actions suggest coordination with other officers, including Deputy Josh Smith, to fabricate charges and suppress evidence.
- Evidence:
    - His discussions with Smith and Kress, as captured on bodycam footage, align with fabricated narratives.
    - Consistent suppression of complaints and grievances filed against him and others.

6. Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Violations

- Violation: Ignored my documented PTSD and physical disabilities during the arrest process.
- Evidence:
    - Bodycam footage showing Magourik's disregard for my medical conditions.
    - Medical records confirming my disabilities and the exacerbation of my injuries.

Legal Precedents Supporting Allegations

- Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386 (1989):
    - Principle: Excessive force claims are evaluated under the Fourth Amendment's "objective reasonableness" standard.
    - Application: Magourik's use of force was unnecessary and unreasonable, leading to significant injuries.
- Tennessee v. Garner, 471 U.S. 1 (1985):
    - Principle: Law enforcement may not use excessive force unless necessary to prevent imminent harm.
    - Application: There was no justification for the level of force used during my arrest.
- Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961):
    - Principle: Violations of constitutional rights by officers acting under color of law are actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
    - Application: Magourik's actions deprived me of my rights to due process and equal protection.

Impact of Actions

- Physical Harm:
    - Magourik's use of excessive force resulted in injuries requiring multiple surgeries, causing ongoing physical pain and financial hardship.
- Emotional and Psychological Trauma:
    - His disregard for my documented PTSD and disabilities exacerbated my mental health challenges.

- Obstruction of Justice:
    - His involvement in suppressing evidence and fabricating charges undermined my ability to receive a fair trial.

Relief Requested

I respectfully request the following:

- Investigation: Conduct an independent investigation into Magourik's actions on August 4, 2024, and July 6, 2024.
- Disciplinary Action: Impose appropriate measures for his misconduct and violations of state and federal laws.
- Referral to Higher Authorities: Escalate this matter to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and the U.S. Department of Justice for review under civil rights laws.
- Medical and Financial Compensation: Hold Magourik accountable for the injuries sustained and the financial burdens caused by his actions.

Conclusion

Lieutenant Zach Magourik's actions, including excessive use of force, neglect of duty, and conspiracy to suppress my rights, represent serious violations of state and federal laws. His conduct has caused significant harm to my physical and emotional well-being and undermined my ability to seek justice.

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Subject: Formal Complaint Against Deputy Austin Kress

Introduction

I, Jeremy Black, hereby submit this formal complaint against Deputy Austin Kress of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department for his role in misconduct, neglect of duty, and violations of state and federal laws during the events of July 6, 2024. This complaint outlines specific actions, omissions, and their detrimental impact on my legal rights and well-being.

Summary of Allegations

Deputy Kress arrived on the scene during the incident on July 6, 2024, alongside Lt. Magourik. Although he primarily acted as an observer, his actions and inactions contributed to the misconduct, including his failure to intervene or properly document the events, his association with false narratives in official reports, and his role in subsequent incidents involving my unlawful arrests and injuries.

Laws Violated

1. Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

- Violation: As a law enforcement officer, Deputy Kress failed to ensure a thorough, impartial investigation and neglected his duty to uphold justice.
- Evidence:
    - No intervention or correction of inaccuracies in Deputy Josh Smith's false narrative and reports.
    - No attempt to secure or document exculpatory evidence at the scene.

2. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Violation: Acting under color of law, Deputy Kress contributed to the deprivation of my rights to due process and equal protection by failing to address fabricated evidence and omissions.
- Evidence:
    - Bodycam footage showing no attempt by Kress to challenge or correct false accounts provided by Teshia Black and others.
    - His association with and endorsement of reports containing material misrepresentations.

3. Official Oppression (Tennessee Code § 39-16-403)

- Violation: Deputy Kress, in his official capacity, knowingly neglected to prevent or correct unlawful actions that violated my constitutional rights.
- Evidence:
    - Presence at the scene during the fabrication of evidence and failure to address obvious inconsistencies.

4. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

- Violation: Deputy Kress acted in concert with other officers, including Deputy Smith, and Lt. Magourik, to suppress evidence, fabricate narratives, and deprive me of due process.
- Evidence:
    - Consistency in the suppression of my evidence and coordination in maintaining a false narrative across multiple incidents.
    - Refusal to address my grievances or ensure proper accountability.

5. Obstruction of Justice (Tennessee Code § 39-16-603)

- Violation: By failing to intervene or correct false reports, Deputy Kress hindered the fair administration of justice.
- Evidence:
    - Inclusion of his name on police reports containing fabricated accounts.
    - Bodycam footage showing his failure to address blatant inaccuracies.

6. Misrepresentation in Official Reports

- Violation: His name appears on reports containing falsehoods, which were later used to justify arrests and further legal actions against me.
- Evidence:
    - Police reports signed by other officers but containing his endorsement through presence or participation.

Legal Precedents Supporting Allegations

- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963):
    - Principle: Suppression of exculpatory evidence violates due process.
    - Application: Deputy Kress's failure to document or report exculpatory evidence undermined my defense.
- Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961):
    - Principle: Violations of constitutional rights by officers acting under color of law are actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
    - Application: Deputy Kress's inaction and complicity contributed to civil rights violations.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972):
    - Principle: Failure to disclose material evidence impacts the integrity of legal proceedings.
    - Application: His failure to intervene or disclose inconsistencies affected the fairness of the proceedings.

Impact of Actions

- Violation of Due Process:
    - Deputy Kress's actions and omissions directly impacted my ability to defend myself, leading to unlawful arrests and false charges.
- Physical and Emotional Harm:
    - His complicity in incidents on July 6, 2024, exacerbated my injuries and PTSD, requiring multiple surgeries and ongoing treatment.
- Suppression of Justice:

- By failing to address false narratives and fabricated evidence, Deputy Kress obstructed the judicial process and enabled continued harassment and retaliation.

Relief Requested

I respectfully request the following:

- Investigation: Conduct a thorough investigation into Deputy Kress's role in the incidents on July 6, 2024, including his association with false reports and suppression of evidence.
- Disciplinary Action: Impose appropriate measures for neglect of duty, misconduct, and violations of state and federal laws.
- Referral to Higher Authorities: Escalate this matter to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and U.S. Department of Justice for review under civil rights laws.

Conclusion

Deputy Kress's inaction and complicity have had severe consequences on my life, rights, and well-being. His failure to perform his duties with integrity and accountability warrants immediate attention and corrective action.

Subject: Formal Complaint Against April Devotie

BRIEF TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Introduction

I, Jeremy Black, respectfully submit this formal complaint against April Devotie, an employee of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department, for actions constituting misconduct, neglect of duty, obstruction of justice, and violations of state and federal laws. The following outlines specific violations, evidence, and the impact of her actions on my legal defense and constitutional rights.

Summary of Allegations

The allegations against April Devotie are based on her repeated refusal to provide critical evidence despite lawful requests, deliberate stalling, and false claims regarding the existence of documents. Her actions demonstrate a pattern of obstruction and misconduct, constituting violations of Tennessee law, federal law, and the policies governing her role as a public servant.

Laws Violated

1. Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

- Violation: As a public servant, April failed to fulfill her statutory duty by refusing to provide evidence necessary for legal proceedings and failing to respond appropriately to my grievances.
- Evidence:
    - Emails denying the existence of requested evidence (e.g., bodycam footage, police reports).
    - Delays in responding to evidence requests, despite statutory requirements under the Tennessee Public Records Act (Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503).

2. Official Misconduct (Tennessee Code § 39-16-402)

- Violation: April knowingly engaged in unauthorized and unlawful conduct by refusing to fulfill her obligations under the Public Records Act and obstructing my ability to obtain exculpatory evidence.
- Evidence:
    - Communication records showing her denial of evidence later proven to exist.
    - Evidence of her deliberate delays, obstructing the legal process.

3. Obstruction of Justice (Tennessee Code § 39-16-603)

- Violation: By withholding critical evidence, April interfered with the judicial process and hindered my ability to defend myself.
- Evidence:
    - Emails from April denying the existence of bodycam footage and police reports.
    - Documentation showing these records were later produced, contradicting her statements.

4. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Violation: Acting under color of law, April deprived me of my constitutional right to due process by obstructing access to evidence necessary for my defense.
- Evidence:
    - Proof of denials and delays in response to lawful requests.
    - Documentation showing her actions directly impacted my ability to defend against false allegations.

5. Tampering with or Fabricating Evidence (Tennessee Code § 39-16-503)

- Violation: April misrepresented the existence of evidence, effectively concealing or tampering with critical materials to obstruct the judicial process.
- Evidence:
    - Records showing evidence was denied or falsely claimed to be nonexistent.
    - Bodycam footage and other materials later revealed despite earlier denials.

6. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

- Violation: April's actions align with a broader pattern of misconduct within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department, indicating coordination to obstruct justice and suppress evidence.
- Evidence:
    - Consistent patterns of delays and denials across multiple officers and officials.

- Connection between April's actions and those of Deputy Josh Smith, Lt. Magourik, and Detective Josh Hall.

Legal Precedents Supporting Allegations

- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963):
    - Principle: Suppression of exculpatory evidence by law enforcement violates due process.
    - Application: April's refusal to provide requested evidence directly impacted my right to a fair trial.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972):
    - Principle: Failure to disclose material evidence undermines the integrity of judicial proceedings.
    - Application: April's denials and delays obstructed the discovery of critical exculpatory evidence.
- Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S. 51 (1988):
    - Principle: Failure to preserve or disclose potentially exculpatory evidence constitutes a due process violation.
    - Application: April's actions to withhold evidence created prejudice against my defense.

Impact of Actions

- Violation of Due Process:
    - April's refusal to provide evidence undermined my ability to mount a proper defense, violating my constitutional rights under the Fourteenth Amendment.

- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress:
    - Her actions exacerbated my PTSD and caused significant emotional and psychological harm.
- Obstruction of Justice:
    - By withholding evidence, April's actions delayed proceedings and hindered the pursuit of truth.

Relief Requested

I respectfully request the following:

- Investigation: Conduct a full investigation into April Devotie's actions, including her coordination with other officials in suppressing evidence.
- Disciplinary Action: Impose appropriate disciplinary measures for neglect of duty, misconduct, and obstruction.
- Referral to Higher Authorities: Refer April's actions to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and U.S. Department of Justice for further review under federal law.

Attachments:

- Email communications from April Devotie.
- Records of delayed or denied evidence requests.
- Evidence of later-discovered materials contradicting April's denials.

DEFENSE BRIEF ON BODYCAM TRANSCRIPT ANALYSIS

I. Introduction

This brief examines the bodycam footage transcript from Deputy Smith, highlighting inconsistencies, procedural issues, and evidence supporting the Defendant, Jeremy Black.

ANALYSIS

A. Witness Credibility and Inconsistencies

- Contradictory Statements:
    - Teshia provides varying accounts of the incident, including different details about how and when she was allegedly assaulted (e.g., her claims about being pinned down vs. other statements where details shift).
    - Daniel's testimony, while initially led by Deputy Smith, does not fully corroborate Teshia's story (e.g., Daniel denies being pushed down).

- Witness Coaching:
    - Deputy Smith prompts Teshia with specific phrases, such as “write the same story you told me outside” and “leave the part about Daniel out.” This suggests coaching and calls her testimony's reliability into question.
    - Deputy Smith repeatedly reminds Teshia and other witnesses of fabricated details, influencing their narratives.

- Bias and Fabrication:
    - Diane and Tammy support Teshia’s claims without direct observation of the incident, relying on hearsay. Their statements include fabrications like Diane claiming, “He’s been consistently getting worse over the years,” without evidence.

B. Procedural Issues and Misconduct

- Improper Conduct by Deputy Smith:
    - Deputy Smith discusses personal opinions and irrelevant topics (e.g., PTSD, family history) instead of maintaining professionalism.
    - He dismisses Jeremy’s injuries as “defensive wounds” without proper investigation or medical assessment.

- Failure to Secure Evidence:
    - There is no indication that Deputy Smith photographed Teshia’s alleged bruises or corroborated her claims with physical evidence.
    - No clear effort to confirm timelines, phone records, or independent verification of events.

- Misleading Charges:
    - The decision to charge Jeremy Black appears based solely on Teshia's inconsistent statements, despite physical evidence showing Jeremy sustained injuries.

C. Key Evidence Supporting the Defense

- Injuries Sustained by Jeremy Black:
    - Photographic evidence shows significant facial injuries sustained by Jeremy, which align with his account of being attacked.
- Absence of Corroborating Evidence:
    - Teshia claims Jeremy was “aggressive” and “pinned her down,” yet there are no visible injuries or eyewitness corroboration supporting this.
- Contradictions in Teshia’s Testimony:
    - Teshia claims she dialed 911 but then admits calling Diane instead. Phone records can demonstrate the lack of a 911 call.
    - Teshia repeatedly changes her story about key details, such as how the altercation began and the extent of her injuries.

Conclusion and Request for Relief

Given the numerous inconsistencies, procedural errors, and absence of corroborating evidence, the defense requests:

- Dismissal of Charges:
    - The charges lack sufficient evidentiary basis, relying heavily on contradictory and coached witness testimony.
- Challenge to Witness Credibility:
    - The Court should evaluate Teshia’s credibility based on her shifting narratives and reliance on hearsay.

- Suppression of Biased Evidence:
    - Statements influenced by Deputy Smith's coaching and misconduct should be excluded.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeremy Black

Exhibit M Jeremy Aug 4 Arrest Statement

On the morning of Sunday August 4 2024. My stepdaughter Tasha started texting me at 9:41. Telling me to meet her to get a generator I sold 4 days earlier. She was making it urgent that I come right now. I said I can't because I'm living in my truck. I told her I needed my computer, tools and parts. She text back 5 minutes later she told me she had parts and tools I needed, but I had to come right now.

I pulled out of where I am currently staying going east on Indian Camp rd. At about a third of mile. There was a police car with two officers sitting backed in to an old driveway. I waved as always have in the past. The officer on passenger side waved back. I instantly looked at my speedometer I was going 35. I kept it at that speed.

About 1 minute later I seen a different police car in my rearview mirror with his lights on. I immediately pulled over. He walked up to my drivers door. Told me I was speeding at 60MPH.. I replied no way. He said oh yes I was trailing you. I immediately said OK and handed him my license.

I started to have some serious anxiety. I turned away to look for my insurance. When I turned back around the officer told me to step out of the truck. I went into a full panic attack. I said why. He Told me I was being arrested. I noticed there were 6 or 7 police cars and 6 or 7 officers had surrounded me as I got out. A couple were wearing tactical gear. 4 had there hands on there weapons.

Officer in charge looked briefly at my release paperwork and court date. The officer in charge told me it did not really matter because I had a capias for Failure To Appear. I said how is that possible my court date isn't until August 19 2024, more than 2 weeks away. He told me it didn't matter I was going back to Cocke County Jail for at least 24 hours.

I was completely terrified and scared for my life from being surrounded by Officers. The officer told me to turn around I begged the officers to handcuff me in the front because my recent shoulder surgery. I begged them to read the paperwork again. He told me they were not allowed to hand cuff me in The front no matter the circumstances. The officer who arrested me on July 6th let me keep my hands in front with 2 pair cuffs. He definitely caused something in my shoulder to start hurting instantly.

I asked what was going on? Officer in charge told me that the sheriff's office received a call about speeding. I had been awake since 7 and estimate maybe 10 cars passed in over 2.5 hours. I asked why all the other officers came. This close to Sevier County there is not a large police presence. It was very odd to me and my friends. Officer told me they were all heading to breakfast. I said where, Janice's he replied no, The other way towards Sevier County. He said Jack's Market. I didn't say anything. The place is a hole and I didn't know they served anything worth eating for breakfast. It seemed like a long drive for gas station food.

While transporting me to jail there was an accident. He stopped. He switched my cuffs to the front, I was hurting pretty bad at this point and the anxiety of jail again. I was more comfortable but still in pain. I asked him as a supervisor why did he arrive so quickly. He told me he was the only one with a working computer in his car. So he is constantly running plates and people for other officers. I thought out of 7 cars he was the only one with a computer. I really felt like I was being lied to.

I begged him to look at paperwork. He did briefly and said all that mattered to him was the capias. I begged and begged told him how Dangerous the jail was. He just ignored me.

When we got to the jail. The officer that was waiting on my friend to get the truck. Radioed and said he had to go, my officer then radioed back that my friends were coming from same house I was at. I reflex questioned him. How do you know what house I was at? I never mentioned it. He got real short and sparky and replied I told him. I said OK.

When I got to booking I explained I had been arrested on a capias for Failure To Appear for a court date that was still 2 weeks away. The correction officers looked it up. Ethan said your correct your not supposed to be in jail. Someone made a huge mistake. All of the officers told me they were sorry except for the one who arrested me. He was out of there so fast after they said it was a mistake. Few minutes later the guards were asking where he went.

I was in booking for 4-5 hours while the guards called, supervisors and a number of phone calls. The officer in charge told me they called everyone in chain of command. It was really unbelievable and impossible situation that him nor any of the other officers have ever witnessed this happen. He said he had to put me in a cell. I said OK.

We walked back to holding cell 3. There was a sign on the door that said quarantine until August 9th. I questioned it. Derek said no to worry, he just moved the 4 inmates out and it was fine. When I went in, it was a complete mess fill with filth. The toilet was covered in fecal matter which was directly below the sink for water. It was plain nasty. Garbage and wet toilet paper rolls. They had no mats or blankets. So I was forced to sit or lay where the sick inmates were 15 minutes earlier. My head was spinning, possibly getting sick from unknown illness, getting beat up, not knowing how long I would be locked up.

It all looked really suspicious. A guard came by and told me that someone. Should be in by 8am next morning that should be able to fix it. It was horrible and terrifying every minute seemed like hours. I made it to the morning. Figured I should be able to see judge at 9. New guards seem to have no idea what was going on. They said they'd check into it. Another inmate left for morning court. I was a wreck mentally, I new the only chance I had was to talk to judge. Around 1130 another guard came by and informed me that I was not even listed on the docket for today. All my fears were happening.

I was starting to have negative reactions from not taking my heart and PTSD Meds. I informed the guards. I needed them my heart was tacking out. Then the guys left for afternoon court around 1230-1. I knew I was screwed.

Around 2pm a guard came around and informed me the lady Cici who promised to take care of issue first thing in the morning was a no show. I already missed both courts. I was in such a mental breakdown. I was shaking and sweating, anticipating doom. The guard told me maybe tomorrow.

Around 230 a guard came around and said he was working on it. He was very sorry it happened. I finally got released at 345-4. Every officer apologize d to me. Said the same thing as officers from night before. It was impossible and unbelievable that I was arrested and held. None of them ever heard of anything Like it..

My friend picked me up, I double dosed my meds as soon as I could. The shaking and My heart did not Calm down for hours. The anxiety carried through to the next day. I went to get evidence for the case I was arrested twice for. I was talking to the supervisor April in the hallway. When 3 officers walked I completely lost it. Shaking and crazy anxiety. April noticed how freaked out I was and moved me away from officers and sat me down. She was trying to calm me down. I left after a few minutes. This completely wrecked me mentally driving is unbearable and if I see the police it starts all over again.

I Have always respected police officers waved to them openly talked with them. Now I'm terrified for my life every time I see one. It is taking a huge toll on me mentally. I have not been arrested in years. Now my entire world is crumbling because of mistakes and false accusations.

I will be seeing my Orthopedic doctor tomorrow Friday and also my family physician for anything I might have contracted from quarantined cell and the bruises I received during my arrest from being poked with something over and over.

I really believe Tasha knew I was going to get arrested. She did not act surprised or ask me why. The tools and parts she brought, 4 pair of random pliers. Some parts. I asked he about my computer again. She answered that her mother Teshia Was not going to let me have my computer.

Editional information after I wrote this statement.

It turned out it was a complete and total setup packed with lies and intentions
*Confirmed by Tasha text message stating that it was because the prosecutor mailed a letter to Teshia that I had missed an imaginary court date.
*Confirmed by Tammy text message stating that it was because the prosecutor mailed a letter to Teshia that I had missed an imaginary court date.

The first time I was arrested it was by Deputy Josh Smith, Lt. Zach Magourik was the supervisor that showed up. When it was time to put me in hand cuffs. Deputy Smith asked Lt. Magourik if it would be ok if he hand cuffed me in the front because of my recent shoulder surgery. Lt. Magourik recommended and approved allowing my handcuffs be in front of me. This proves that it is ok to be compassionate or make a decision to knowingly intentionally cause injury.

The second time, I was arrested because of the Negligence of the prosecutor who mailed the letter to my wife, without double checking or confirming the legality of the capias, It. Zack Magourik, he picked up the warrant, gathered and organized 6 other officers, and hunted me down and trapped me like crazy and violent criminal for the world to see me on a Sunday while people are driving to church. This was completely degrading and the worst embarrassment of my life.

I did not recognize Lt Magourik. I begged him over and over not to handcuff me behind my back. Lt. Magourik was in charge and told me it was against the rules and continued to handcuff me behind my back This proves Lt. Magourik chose to not be compassionate for injuries he knew about from me begging and an arrest from a previous incident Lt. Magourik was in charge of. Instead Lt. Magourik chose to make the decision to knowingly and intentionally assault me causing further damage to an injury he knew about.

The choice that Lt. Zach Magourik consciously made to intentionally assault me and then use handcuffs as a weapon and torture device resulted in shoulder damage to my right shoulder requiring another new and additional surgery to fix again. Lt. Magourik's assault on me also resulted in me needing surgery on my elbow and wrist for nerve issues. Why did Lt. Magourik decide to hurt me on purpose? When just a month earlier Lt. Magourik said it was ok to handcuff me in front with three pairs of cuffs?

Someone was in constant contact with my wife from Sheriffs Department while she was tracking me on GPS to assist officers.

There is absolutely no way that Lt. Zack Magourik didn't know who I was. He was at first arrest as supervisor, Lt. Magourik picked up and had the paper capias in his possession, and my wife was assisting in the entire plan as it was happening. There is body cam footage placing him at both scenes as the officer in charge.

The third time I was arrested for replying to my daughter “I LOVE YOU” once I told the officer of my injuries to my shoulder, elbow and wrist he put my cuffs in the front without hesitation. This proves that it is ok to be compassionate or make a decision to knowingly intentionally cause injury.

Why did Lt. Zach Magourik injure and assault me on purpose was it because that’s the kind of person he is

I know that they were all there to harm or even kill me if I resisted. Under the supervision of Lt. Magourik. I felt in danger for my life that day and everyday since this assault happened along with additional events, from my wife, Cocke County Sheriffs Department, and the Cocke County District Attorney’s Office as they all played a part in this conspiracy to injure and confine me.

I have been in fear for my life, for over 120 days. Lt. Zach Magourik assaulted me in front of at least 6 other officers that stood by and just watched the assault happen, they did not attempt to stop the assault or even speak up as I begged and pleaded. All of these officers took an oath to serve and protect. Everyone of them broke they’re oath that Sunday morning. Everyone knows that people and situations escalate over time if gone unchecked, Especially if they are following a supervisor like Lt. Magourik who has obviously been unchecked for quite some time because Lt. Magourik felt comfortable enough to make the decision to intentionally assault me in front of other officers. This incident was not carried out by officers that protect and serve. This was a hit squad to further my wife’s intentions of abuse towards me.

I am a 100% Disabled Veteran, I or any American citizen does not deserve to be treated like this by a bunch no good, lowdown dirt bags with badges lead by and supervised by an individual like Lt. Magourik. This type of behavior by Cocke County Sheriffs Department Is inexcusable and dangerous for our community. This is just another example of police brutality that happens everyday when gone unchecked and its hurtful and disgusting.

I would possibly feel a little safer if all involved were in custody including Lt. Magourik it was easy for him to find six other officers on a Sunday morning to witness his actions without any contradictions or empathy. I am sure Lt. Magourik knows other officers that could take retaliatory and violent action towards me putting my safety and life at risk.

VIOLATION OF ORDER PROTECTION: On August 22, a deputy was met by a complainant at the Cocke County Sheriff's Office regarding an active Order of Protection for herself and all of her children. The complainant stated she was granted the order after a domestic situation her and her ex-husband, Jeremy Black, 53, had previously been involved in. The complainant stated Black was served on July 15, 2024. The complainant showed messages of Black violating the order via online messages to one of their children on July 18. A warrant will be taken out on Black for violation of order of protection.

Assessment/Plan

Carpal and cubital tunnel syndrome
Jeremy has failed conservative management for his compressive neuropathy. At this point we discussed conservative and surgical care. He wants to proceed with surgery. Plan is for carpal tunnel release and cubital tunnel release with possible transposition if unstable. Risks benefits alternatives were discussed including nonoperative management surgical site infection neurovascular injury postop stiffness pain recurrent symptoms lack of full recovery to the severity of his disease and need for revision procedures. Given risks and benefits he wished to proceed with surgery

Federal Laws Requiring Reporting or Addressing Misconduct

- 42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Civil Rights Violations

    - Legal Obligation: Under this federal law, law enforcement officers, acting "under color of law," are liable if they violate someone's civil rights.
    - Failure to Act: Agencies that fail to report or investigate civil rights abuses can be considered complicit or negligent, especially if there is a pattern or policy of ignoring violations.
    - FBI Jurisdiction: Allegations of civil rights violations, including misconduct or excessive force, can be reported to the FBI under their Civil Rights Division.

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 – Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law

    - Legal Obligation: Makes it a federal crime for any law enforcement officer to willfully deprive someone of their constitutional rights.
    - Reporting Obligation: Local departments are encouraged to refer civil rights violations to federal authorities (FBI) when misconduct crosses this threshold.
    - Criminal Penalties: Officers found guilty under § 242 face severe penalties, including fines, imprisonment, or both.

- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) – Title II

    - Legal Obligation: Public entities, including law enforcement, must accommodate individuals with disabilities, including PTSD or physical impairments. Failure to do so can result in ADA violations.
    - Reporting: When ADA violations occur, they can be escalated to the Department of Justice (DOJ) for investigation and enforcement.

- The "Pattern or Practice" Investigation (42 U.S.C. § 14141)

    - Legal Obligation: The DOJ can investigate entire police departments that show a pattern or practice of civil rights violations.
    - Local law enforcement agencies that become aware of systemic misconduct are expected to self-report or take corrective action to avoid federal intervention.

Tennessee State Laws and Policies

- Tennessee Code Annotated (TCA) § 38-8-311 – Duty to Report Police Misconduct
    - Legal Obligation: Tennessee law requires any law enforcement officer or employee of a law enforcement agency to report misconduct or criminal behavior by other officers.
    - Failure to Report: Failure to report such misconduct can result in disciplinary action or criminal liability for aiding and abetting.

- Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) Authority
    - The TBI has authority to investigate law enforcement misconduct, civil rights violations, and corruption when:
        - They are referred cases by local authorities.
        - Citizens file formal complaints.
        - The Governor, DA, or Attorney General requests an investigation.
    - Local departments are encouraged to refer serious allegations to the TBI to ensure transparency and accountability.

- Tennessee Whistleblower Laws (TCA § 50-1-304)
    - Protects individuals, including law enforcement officers, who report misconduct, civil rights violations, or illegal activity.
    - Encourages internal and external reporting of misconduct without fear of retaliation.

- Tennessee Code § 39-16-403 – Official Oppression
    - Legal Obligation: It is illegal for any public servant, including law enforcement officers, to intentionally subject someone to mistreatment or abuse under "color of office."
    - Law enforcement agencies that observe this misconduct are obligated to act or face liability for complicity.

- State Policies on Civil Rights Compliance
    - Local law enforcement agencies must comply with state and federal civil rights requirements, including those enforced by the DOJ and TBI.
    - Failing to address or report allegations of civil rights abuses can expose departments to liability.

Key Takeaways for Reporting Misconduct

- FBI Reporting: Civil rights violations under federal law (e.g., 42 U.S.C. § 1983, § 242) must be reported to the FBI by local agencies, especially when systemic abuse occurs.
- TBI Reporting: Local law enforcement is expected to involve the TBI in cases of serious misconduct, corruption, or criminal behavior by officers.
- Failure to Report: Departments that do not act on credible allegations of misconduct risk violating Tennessee law and federal oversight laws, particularly in cases of systemic abuse.
- ADA Compliance: Violations of the ADA must be addressed internally or reported to the DOJ for investigation and enforcement.

Practical Next Steps for You

If you believe the Cocke County Sheriff's Department is failing to report or address the misconduct and violations, you can:

- File a formal complaint with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and include supporting evidence.
- Report violations of federal laws (e.g., civil rights violations, ADA issues) directly to the FBI Civil Rights Division or the Department of Justice.
- Reference Tennessee Code § 38-8-311 (duty to report misconduct) and Official Oppression laws (§ 39-16-403) in your complaint to demonstrate the department's obligation to act.

FORMAL DOCUMENT FOR REFERENCE

Tennessee Code § 38-8-311: Duty to Report Misconduct

Tennessee Code § 39-16-403: Official Oppression

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This document serves as a formal reference to Tennessee statutes that govern the obligations of law enforcement officers and agencies regarding reporting misconduct and preventing abuse of authority. The following laws are critical for ensuring accountability and integrity within law enforcement:

1. Tennessee Code § 38-8-311 – Duty to Report Misconduct

Statutory Language:

Under Tennessee Code Annotated § 38-8-311, any law enforcement officer or employee of a law enforcement agency is legally obligated to report any observed misconduct, unlawful behavior, or breaches of ethics involving other officers.

Key Provisions:

- Mandatory Reporting: Officers must report criminal behavior, abuse of power, or other misconduct by fellow law enforcement personnel.
- Accountability: Failure to report such behavior can lead to disciplinary action, termination, or criminal liability.
- Scope: This statute applies to all members of a law enforcement agency, including deputies, supervisors, and staff members.

Relevance:

In cases where law enforcement officials are aware of violations, including perjury, excessive force, false reporting, or civil rights violations, failure to act or report constitutes negligence under this statute.

2. Tennessee Code § 39-16-403 – Official Oppression

Statutory Language:

Tennessee Code Annotated § 39-16-403 makes it a criminal offense for a public servant acting under "color of office" to intentionally subject another person to:

- Unlawful mistreatment or denial of rights.
- Abuse of power or position to harm or harass an individual.

Key Provisions:

- Elements of the Offense:
  - The accused must be a public servant (e.g., deputy, sheriff, or other law enforcement official).
  - The mistreatment must be intentional and committed while acting in an official capacity.
  - The act must violate the individual's constitutional rights or due process protections.
- Penalties: Official oppression is punishable as a Class E Felony, which can include fines, imprisonment, and removal from office.

Examples of Official Oppression:

- False arrest or imprisonment.
- Abuse of authority to cover up misconduct or retaliate against individuals.
- Failure to provide medical care to detainees with known injuries.

- Encouraging or coercing witnesses to provide false statements.

APPLICATION TO CURRENT SITUATION

The referenced statutes are highly relevant in cases where law enforcement personnel, such as Deputy Josh Smith, Lt. Magourik, and others within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department, have:

- Failed to report misconduct or perjury committed by fellow officers or witnesses.
- Engaged in official oppression by violating constitutional rights, fabricating evidence, or denying access to exculpatory materials.
- Ignored mandatory reporting obligations despite clear evidence of perjury, false reporting, or excessive force.

Examples of Violations:

- Deputy Smith's perjury in police reports and affidavits, which directly resulted in harm and false imprisonment.
- Failure to report misconduct related to Deputy Smith's handling of the July 6 and August 4 incidents, including ADA violations and withholding medical care.
- The collaborative failure of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department to address grievances filed regarding these issues.

RELIEF SOUGHT

In light of Tennessee Code § 38-8-311 and § 39-16-403, any failure by the Cocke County Sheriff's Department to investigate or report misconduct may result in further legal action at both the state and federal levels.

The undersigned respectfully requests:

- A formal investigation into the misconduct of Deputy Josh Smith and other officers involved.

- Enforcement of mandatory reporting obligations as required by Tennessee law.
- Accountability for official oppression under Tennessee Code § 39-16-403.

CONCLUSION

This document outlines the legal framework requiring law enforcement officers to report misconduct and the penalties for official oppression. These statutes are critical in protecting the public from abuse of power and ensuring law enforcement operates with transparency and accountability.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeremy Black

1. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

Statute: Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, it is unlawful for any person acting under the color of state law to deprive another of their constitutional rights.

Precedents:

- Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961): Public officials can be held liable under § 1983 for actions violating constitutional rights.
- Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386 (1989): Law enforcement must act reasonably under the Fourth Amendment during arrests or detentions.

Evidence:

- Warrantless GPS tracking of your location (August 4, 2024, and September 5, 2024) violated your Fourth Amendment rights (see Carpenter v. United States, 138 S. Ct. 2206 (2018)).
- Deputies failed to provide medical care for visible injuries and disregarded your documented PTSD, violating the Eighth Amendment and ADA protections.
- Deputies ignored submitted evidence of misconduct and failed to investigate stalking and domestic assault allegations.

2. Official Oppression (§ 39-16-403)

Statute: Tennessee law prohibits public servants from acting unlawfully to deprive a person of their rights while under the color of office.

Precedents:

- State v. Culver, 918 S.W.2d 287 (Tenn. Crim. App. 1995): Official oppression occurs when public officials misuse their power to harm an individual's rights.
- United States v. Lanier, 520 U.S. 259 (1997): A pattern of oppressive conduct can establish violations of due process.

Evidence:

- Deputy Josh Smith's fabricated reports and false sworn statements led to your arrest.

- Deputies (including Lt. Magourik and Deputy Kress) failed to acknowledge your injuries and ADA-protected PTSD during the arrest.
- Assistant Chief Chuck Evans refused to act on credible evidence and reports, thereby failing to uphold his oath of office.

3. Conspiracy (§ 39-12-103)

Statute: Conspiracy occurs when two or more individuals agree to commit an unlawful act or a lawful act by unlawful means.

Precedents:

- Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144 (1970): Conspiracy claims under § 1983 require evidence of agreement and overt acts that violate constitutional rights.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Conspiracy by public officials to deprive someone of rights can lead to civil and criminal liability.

Evidence:

- Deputies acted in concert to suppress evidence, as seen in:
    - April Devotie's delayed or denied records requests.
    - Detective Josh Hall's failure to file charges after taking your statement.
    - Assistant Chief Evans dismissing credible complaints and reports.
- The coordinated refusal to investigate stalking and false domestic assault claims, alongside warrantless GPS tracking, demonstrates a conspiracy to suppress your rights.

4. Neglect of Duty (§ 38-8-311)

Statute: Tennessee law requires law enforcement officers to fulfill their duties impartially and report any misconduct they observe.

Precedents:

- State v. Baker, 751 S.W.2d 154 (Tenn. Crim. App. 1987): Failure to act or investigate known misconduct constitutes neglect of duty.
- City of Canton v. Harris, 489 U.S. 378 (1989): Law enforcement agencies must train officers to fulfill constitutional obligations.

Evidence:

- Detective Josh Hall failed to act on evidence you submitted regarding stalking and assault.
- Assistant Chief Evans refused to file charges, dismissing your concerns despite clear evidence of criminal conduct.
- Deputies failed to intervene in misconduct (e.g., Deputy Smith's false reports and denial of medical care).

5. Aggravated Perjury (§ 39-16-703)

Statute: Aggravated perjury occurs when:

- A false statement is made under oath.
- The statement is material to an official proceeding.

Precedents:

- Bronston v. United States, 409 U.S. 352 (1973): False statements under oath are perjury if they are intentional and material.
- State v. Henry, 834 S.W.2d 273 (Tenn. 1992): Material statements that affect the outcome of an investigation or case constitute aggravated perjury.

Evidence:

- Deputy Josh Smith's incident reports (July 6, 2024) contain false statements:
  - Fabricated allegations that you pinned Teshia down.
  - Omissions and mischaracterizations of the events captured on bodycam.
- Deputy Smith signed warrants and reports under oath, making these false statements material to your arrest and prosecution.

CONCLUSION

The evidence and legal authorities outlined above demonstrate multiple violations of state and federal laws, including:

- Civil Rights Violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
- Official Oppression under Tennessee Code § 39-16-403.
- Conspiracy under Tennessee Code § 39-12-103.
- Neglect of Duty under Tennessee Code § 38-8-311.
- Aggravated Perjury under Tennessee Code § 39-16-703.

These violations collectively establish a coordinated effort within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department to suppress your rights, fabricate evidence, and obstruct justice.

AFFIDAVIT STATE OF TENNESSEECOUNTY OF COCKE

I, Jeremy Black, being first duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

Personal Information

- I am Jeremy Black, a resident of Cocke County, Tennessee, residing at 4636 Indian Camp Creek Rd, Newport, TN 37721.
- I am a 100% disabled U.S. Army Combat Veteran, with PTSD and physical injuries, both service-connected and exacerbated by the incidents outlined herein.

Purpose of Affidavit

- This affidavit is submitted in support of my criminal complaint and accompanying documentation against Teshia Black, as well as other individuals and personnel within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department (CCSD).
- The purpose is to request:
    - A thorough investigation into their actions.
    - The filing of appropriate charges.
    - Legal accountability for violations of my civil and constitutional rights.

Summary of Allegations

- The attached documents detail multiple criminal and civil violations, including but not limited to:
    - Perjury: Knowingly making false statements under oath.
    - False Reporting: Fabricating events to instigate wrongful arrests.
    - Conspiracy: Coordinating with others to manipulate evidence and obstruct justice.
    - Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED): Causing severe emotional harm through deliberate and malicious actions.
    - Defamation: Spreading false and damaging information about me.
    - Alienation of Affection: Severing my relationships with my children through manipulation and falsehoods.
    - Stalking: Repeated harassment and monitoring of my activities.
    - Civil Rights Violations: Deprivation of constitutional protections, including due process and protection from unlawful arrest.

Facts Supporting Allegations

1. False Arrests

- On July 6, 2024, and September 5, 2024, I was wrongfully arrested based on fabricated claims by Teshia Black.
- Bodycam footage from Deputy Josh Smith reveals inconsistencies in Teshia's allegations and suggests coaching by law enforcement officers.

2. Conspiracy and Coordination

- Evidence includes text messages, phone records, and police reports demonstrating collaboration between:
    - Teshia Black.
    - Tammy Webb.
    - Diane Parker.
    - Certain CCSD officers, including Deputy Josh Smith.
- Deputy Smith failed to investigate glaring inconsistencies, instead relying on unverified statements to file charges.

3. Stalking and Privacy Violations

- My location data was accessed without a warrant on multiple occasions, violating my Fourth Amendment rights.
- Teshia and her associates engaged in over 60 documented stalking incidents, including harassment via social media and physical tracking.

4. Defamation and Alienation of Affection

- Teshia spread false accusations of abuse, damaging my reputation and severing my relationships with my children.
- Since July 6, 2024, I have been denied contact with my children due to these actions.

5. Physical and Emotional Harm

- These incidents exacerbated my PTSD and physical injuries, causing ongoing psychological distress and financial strain.

Relevant Facts and Assertions

- Individuals within the CCSD engaged in misconduct, including:
- Deputy Josh Smith: Fabricating evidence, suppressing exculpatory material, and violating ADA protections.
- Lt. Zach Magourik: Using excessive force during arrests, resulting in injuries requiring multiple surgeries.
- April Devotie: Delayed or denied lawful requests for access to evidence.
- Detective Josh Hall and Assistant Chief Chuck Evans: Ignored evidence and neglected credible threats to my safety.
- Evidence suggests a coordinated effort among these individuals to:
- Suppress information.

- Manipulate investigations.
- Deprive me of my legal rights.

Request for Action

- I respectfully request the District Attorney's Office to:
- Conduct an impartial investigation into the actions of Teshia Black, Tammy Webb, Diane Parker, Deputy Josh Smith, and other relevant parties.
- File criminal charges for perjury, false reporting, conspiracy, stalking, and related offenses.
- Hold the CCSD accountable for procedural failures and constitutional violations.
- Restore my parental rights and ensure protection from further harassment.

Affirmation of Truth

- I affirm under penalty of perjury that the statements made in this affidavit and the accompanying documentation are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

COMPLAINT TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR COCKE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

INTRODUCTION
This brief outlines the charges that can be filed against Teshia Black based on her actions, as documented through evidence, including conspiracy, manipulation, perjury, intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED), civil rights violations, alienation, and false allegations. The evidence supports a pattern of deliberate misconduct designed to harm my reputation, alienate me from my children, and undermine my rights.

CHARGES AGAINST TESHIA BLACK

1. Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-702)

Statute: Perjury occurs when a person makes a false statement under oath in an official proceeding, knowing it to be false.

- Violations:
    - Teshia provided multiple inconsistent statements to law enforcement, including:
    - Allegations that Jeremy Black pinned down their son, Daniel, which Daniel himself denied before being led into agreement by Deputy Josh Smith.
    - Contradictory statements in her written affidavit, police report, and conversations captured on bodycam footage.
    - Her fabrications materially influenced law enforcement's decision to file charges, making the false statements material to the case.

• Basis: Teshia provided false statements under oath, as documented in police reports, written statements, and in her verbal claims captured on bodycam footage.

- False Statements Made Under Oath: Teshia provided false testimony in her written and verbal statements during the events surrounding my arrest on July 6, 2024, and subsequent legal proceedings. Her statements included fabricated allegations of domestic assault and child abuse, as outlined in police reports, her statements to Deputy Josh Smith, and her written petition for an order of protection.

- Contradictions and Evidence of Fabrication:
    - Bodycam Footage: Bodycam footage from Deputy Josh Smith directly contradicts Teshia's allegations. For example:
        - Teshia claimed I attacked Daniel, but Daniel initially denied this incident and stated he could not recall what happened. Only after being prompted by Deputy Smith did Daniel modify his statement.
        - Teshia stated I pinned her down and assaulted her, yet bodycam footage shows no evidence of injuries consistent with her claims, while I had visible injuries.
    - Text Messages and Communications: Teshia's communications demonstrate a pattern of fabricating stories to manipulate outcomes in custody and legal disputes.

- Materiality of False Statements: Teshia's false statements were integral to securing my arrest and the subsequent charges against me. These statements influenced the decisions of law enforcement and judicial officers, thereby meeting the standard of "materiality" required under Tennessee Code Annotated § 39-16-702 and § 39-16-703.

- Ongoing Pattern of Dishonesty: Teshia has a documented history of making inconsistent and false allegations, including previous dismissals of orders of protection filed against me in March 2022 and July 2024. This pattern highlights her intent to deceive the courts and law enforcement for personal gain.

• Evidence:
  • Bodycam footage reveals that Teshia fabricated claims of physical abuse, including allegations that I attacked our son Daniel.
  • Contradictions between her initial verbal statements and her written police report demonstrate clear intent to deceive law enforcement.

Tennessee Laws Violated:

- TCA § 39-16-702 – Perjury: Teshia knowingly made false statements under oath during official proceedings. Her allegations were not only false but intended to influence legal outcomes, including my arrest and the issuance of protective orders.

- TCA § 39-16-703 – Aggravated Perjury: These false statements were made during official proceedings (e.g., police reports, affidavits for orders of protection) and were material to the decisions made by law enforcement and the courts.

- TCA § 39-16-502 – False Reporting: Teshia provided false information to law enforcement with the intent to implicate me in criminal conduct.

Federal Laws Violated:

- 18 U.S.C. § 1001 – False Statements: False statements made to law enforcement officers during investigations are punishable under federal law when they materially affect the proceedings.

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy Against Rights: Teshia conspired with others, including Tammy Webb and Diane Parker, to deprive me of my constitutional rights through fabricated allegations.

Legal Precedent:

• Bronston v. United States, 409 U.S. 352 (1973): False statements made under oath are actionable when intentionally misleading and material to the proceeding.

IMPACT OF PERJURY Teshia's false statements have caused the following harm:

- Reputation Damage: My reputation has been irreparably harmed by these baseless allegations.
- Legal and Financial Hardship: The false charges have resulted in significant legal expenses and time lost in court.
- Emotional and Physical Harm: The stress caused by these allegations has exacerbated my PTSD and physical injuries.
- Parental Alienation: Teshia's actions have estranged me from my children and undermined my role as a father.

2. False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502)

Statute: A person commits false reporting when they knowingly provide false information to law enforcement, initiating or influencing an investigation.

- Alleged Incident: Teshia Black falsely accused me of child abuse, claiming that I physically attacked my son, Daniel Black, during the events of July 6, 2024. This accusation was made to Deputy Josh Smith and her sister, Tammy Webb, and later implied to Diane Parker.

- Daniel's Denial: Bodycam footage from Deputy Smith clearly shows that Daniel denied any physical altercation initially. Daniel explicitly stated that he did not recall such an event and described the situation as a "blur" until Deputy Smith prompted him by asserting, "Your dad pushed your mom down twice." Only after this suggestive questioning did Daniel suddenly say, "Oh, I remembered."

- Teshia's Contradictions:

    - Teshia mentioned the alleged child abuse only to Deputy Smith and Tammy Webb initially.
    - When Diane Parker arrived and brought up the alleged incident, Teshia conspicuously refrained from elaborating, as Deputy Smith had earlier advised her to omit any mention of Daniel from her narrative.
    - This omission and selective disclosure indicate her awareness of the false nature of the allegations.

- Fabrication and Collusion:

    - Bodycam footage captures Deputy Smith coaching Teshia on what to include in her statement, further indicating collusion.
    - Tammy Webb's statements corroborate this manipulation, as her own words reflect the false narrative propagated by Teshia.

- Violations:

    - Teshia falsely accused Jeremy of child abuse and domestic violence without corroborating evidence, leading to his wrongful arrest.
    - She initiated a fabricated story to Deputy Josh Smith and further misrepresented the events to other officers, as shown on bodycam footage.

- False Reporting on July 6, 2024:

    - On July 6, 2024, Teshia Black falsely reported to Deputy Josh Smith that I had physically assaulted her and our son, Daniel. Her claims included accusations of pinning her down, taking her phone to prevent a 911 call, and harming Daniel during the altercation.

    - Bodycam footage and subsequent statements by Daniel contradict her claims, including his initial denial that any incident occurred involving him and his later coerced response.

- False Statements in Subsequent Reports: Teshia reiterated her false allegations in written statements submitted to law enforcement and during the petitioning process for an order of protection. These reports were used to justify my arrest and the filing of criminal charges.

- Intent to Mislead Law Enforcement: Teshia's statements were knowingly false, as evidenced by contradictions between her account and the evidence, including bodycam footage, text messages, and the absence of corroborating witness testimony.

- Tammy's Admission of Falsehood:

    - In a text exchange, Tammy explicitly admits to lying for Teshia, which undermines the credibility of any allegations or claims made by Teshia against Jeremy.
    - This admission validates Jeremy's assertion of coordinated efforts to malign his character and credibility.

- Contradictions in Teshia's Allegations:

    - Teshia's refusal to acknowledge photographic evidence of injuries while simultaneously deflecting blame in text messages highlights inconsistencies in her narrative.
    - Her actions and statements conflict with the documented reality, as evidenced by injury photos and corroborating messages.

• Basis: Teshia knowingly made false allegations of domestic abuse and child abuse, leading to my wrongful arrest.

• Evidence:
    • Police and bodycam footage document her repeated false claims.
    • Text messages and contradictory statements undermine her credibility and support the claim of intentional fabrication.

Under Tennessee law, a person commits false reporting if they:

- Make a statement to law enforcement knowing it to be false.
- Cause law enforcement to act based on the false statement, resulting in an investigation, arrest, or other legal action.

Teshia's actions meet both criteria:

- Knowingly False Statements: Teshia fabricated allegations against me, as proven by contradictory evidence.
- Material Consequences: Her false statements led directly to my arrest and subsequent legal proceedings, causing significant personal, financial, and emotional harm.

Tennessee Code § 39-16-702 – Perjury Her false statements, submitted under oath as part of the order of protection process, also constitute perjury due to their material impact on judicial decisions.

Tennessee Code § 39-16-503 – Tampering with Evidence By fabricating her account and omitting material facts, Teshia effectively tampered with the evidentiary process, further obstructing justice.

Federal Implications – 18 U.S.C. § 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights) The coordinated actions between Teshia, Tammy Webb, and Diane Parker to fabricate a narrative against me could constitute a conspiracy to violate my constitutional rights under federal law.

IMPACT OF FALSE REPORTING Teshia’s false reporting has caused the following harm:

- Wrongful Arrest and Legal Hardship: My arrest and subsequent legal proceedings were based entirely on her fabricated allegations.

- Reputation Damage: Teshia’s false claims have tarnished my reputation within the community and among family members.

- Emotional and Physical Distress: The stress of these allegations has exacerbated my PTSD and physical injuries.

- Alienation from My Children: Her actions have estranged me from my children, causing irreparable harm to our relationships.

- Denial of Constitutional Rights: The false allegations have violated my right to due process and equal protection under the law.

• Legal Precedent:

- State v. Merriman, 410 S.W.3d 779 (Tenn. 2013) – False reports to law enforcement that result in harm to another party are punishable under state law.

• Hartman v. Moore, 547 U.S. 250 (2006): False accusations causing harm to another's reputation or legal standing constitute actionable misconduct.

3. Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

- Statute: Conspiracy occurs when two or more persons agree to commit an offense, and at least one act is taken to further the conspiracy. Deprivation of constitutional rights under color of law.

18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy Against Rights: Teshia, along with others, conspired to deprive me of my constitutional rights, including the right to due process and equal protection under the law.

Civil Rights Violations – 42 U.S.C. § 1983

- Statute: Violations:

  - Teshia's actions deprived Jeremy Black of his Fourth Amendment rights (unlawful arrest) and Fourteenth Amendment rights (due process).

- Her false claims, knowingly provided to law enforcement, led to Jeremy's arrest without probable cause.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS DEMONSTRATING CONSPIRACY

- Coordinated False Allegations:
    - On July 6, 2024, Teshia falsely alleged that I assaulted her and our son, Daniel.
    - Diane Parker and Tammy Webb provided false or manipulated accounts to corroborate Teshia's statements.
- Deputy Josh Smith's Complicity:
    - Deputy Smith failed to investigate the inconsistencies in Teshia's claims and encouraged her to omit details that would undermine the allegations.
    - Smith's bodycam footage captures him coaching Teshia on what to include in her statement while ignoring conflicting evidence.
- Ongoing Coordination:
    - Phone records reveal Teshia, Tammy, and Diane communications before, during, and after further proving a shared agreement to fabricate evidence.
- Overt Acts in Furtherance of Conspiracy:
    - Filing of false police reports by Teshia.
    - Statements made by Diane Parker and Tammy Webb to law enforcement to support Teshia's claims.
    - Deputy Smith's official reports and warrants, which relied on knowingly false statements.
- Violations:
    - Teshia conspired with Tammy Webb, Diane Parker, and Lt. Magourik to fabricate allegations, as shown in the timeline of statements.
    - Evidence includes coordination between Teshia and others to build a false narrative, confirmed by:

- Diane Parker introducing fabricated child abuse claims only after speaking to Teshia.
- Tammy Webb's admission that she would lie for Teshia (text messages).
- Teshia acted as the central figure, orchestrating the plan to manipulate events and law enforcement.

• Basis: Teshia acted in concert with Deputy Josh Smith, Diane Parker, Tammy Webb, and others to fabricate evidence and orchestrate false allegations.

• Evidence:

• Phone calls before and after alleged incident between Teshia and her coconspirators reveal coordination in fabricating events and manipulating narratives.

• Bodycam footage shows collusion, as Teshia and her associates align their stories in the presence of law enforcement.

• Legal Precedent:

• Dennis v. United States, 384 U.S. 855 (1966): Conspiracy to deprive someone of their rights or to harm them legally or personally is actionable.

- United States v. Jimenez Recio, 537 U.S. 270 (2003) – A conspiracy exists if participants agree to commit a crime and take overt acts toward achieving it.

- Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961) – False accusations resulting in abuse of law enforcement authority violate civil rights.

LEGAL VIOLATIONS

- Conspiracy to Commit False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103 and § 39-16-502):

  - Agreement between Teshia, Tammy, and Diane to fabricate allegations constitutes conspiracy.

    - Filing false police reports constitutes a criminal offense.

- Civil Rights Violations (18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy Against Rights): The coordinated effort deprived me of my constitutional rights, including due process and equal protection under the law.

- Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-702): False statements made under oath during the petition for an order of protection further the conspiracy.

- Obstruction of Justice (Tennessee Code § 39-16-503): Falsifying evidence and manipulating law enforcement investigations obstructed justice.

- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED): The conspiracy caused severe emotional distress, exacerbating my PTSD and harming my reputation.

- Violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): Exploiting my documented PTSD to portray me as violent demonstrates discriminatory behavior that exacerbates the harm caused by the conspiracy.

IMPACT OF CONSPIRACY

- Wrongful Arrest and Detention: The fabricated allegations resulted in my arrest and incarceration, causing emotional, physical, and financial harm.

- Damage to Reputation: The conspiracy has tarnished my reputation within the community and estranged me from my children.

- Ongoing Harassment: The coordinated efforts to defame and criminalize me have continued through false reports and harassment.

- Violation of Second Amendment Rights: The false allegations led to unwarranted restrictions on my right to bear arms, a clear violation of my constitutional protections.

4. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

Under Tennessee law, the Defendant must demonstrate:

- Extreme and Outrageous Conduct: Plaintiff's false allegations, stalking, and interference with Defendant's parental role constitute behavior that exceeds the bounds of decency.
- Intent or Reckless Disregard: Plaintiff's actions were intended to harm Defendant emotionally and psychologically.
- Severe Emotional Distress: Defendant has experienced exacerbation of his PTSD and significant emotional harm as a direct result of Plaintiff's conduct.

- Elements:
    - Defendant's conduct is intentional or reckless.
    - Conduct is outrageous and intolerable.
    - Causes severe emotional distress.

- Violations:
    - Teshia's false statements, manipulation of events, and fabricated child abuse claims caused extreme emotional harm to Jeremy Black.
    - Her actions resulted in:
        - Wrongful arrest and public humiliation.
        - Severe emotional and psychological harm exacerbating Jeremy's PTSD.
        - Alienation from his children and financial hardship.

• Basis: Teshia's actions were designed to cause extreme emotional distress through alienation, public humiliation, and false accusations.

• Evidence:
• Publicly humiliating and alienating me from my children through false statements and manipulation.
• Emotional harm exacerbated by her calculated actions, including stalking and harassment, as documented in text messages and stalking report.

- False Allegations of Domestic Abuse and Child Abuse:
    - On July 6, 2024, Teshia falsely accused me of domestic assault and child abuse, claims later contradicted by bodycam footage and witness statements.
    - Teshia's accusations were uncorroborated and fabricated, as evidenced by Daniel's statements on bodycam footage and her inconsistent testimony.

- Conspiracy to Fabricate Evidence:
    - Text messages and other communications reveal that Teshia, Tammy, and Natasha coordinated false narratives to incriminate me.
    - Deputy Josh Smith knowingly accepted these false statements, failed to investigate their validity, and incorporated them into official reports under oath.

- Public Humiliation and Slander: Teshia's public accusations and subsequent false claims in court filings have severely tarnished my reputation in the community and estranged me from my children.

- Exploitation of My PTSD:
    - Teshia and her associates have repeatedly weaponized my documented PTSD, falsely portraying me as unstable to law enforcement and the courts.
    - This narrative has exacerbated my emotional distress and caused unwarranted scrutiny of my mental health.

- Pattern of Harassment and Stalking: Teshia's continued harassment, including stalking incidents demonstrates her intent to cause ongoing emotional distress.

SEVERE EMOTIONAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL HARM The deliberate actions of Teshia and her associates have caused me significant emotional harm, including:

- Exacerbation of PTSD Symptoms: The false accusations and harassment have intensified my PTSD, leading to increased anxiety, sleeplessness, and emotional instability.

- Alienation from My Children: As a direct result of Teshia's actions, I have been wrongfully separated from my children, causing profound emotional pain.

- Damage to Reputation and Livelihood: Teshia's public allegations have irreparably damaged my reputation, affecting my standing in the community and professional opportunities.

- Physical Manifestations of Distress: The stress caused by these actions has resulted in physical symptoms, including anxiety, high blood pressure, and fatigue.

LEGAL VIOLATIONS

- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED): Teshia's actions meet all elements of IIED, as her false accusations and coordinated harassment were extreme, outrageous, and intended to cause emotional harm.

- Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983): The conspiracy to deprive me of my rights, including access to a fair investigation and the presumption of innocence, constitutes a violation of my civil rights.

- Abuse of Process: Teshia's false filings and manipulation of the legal system for personal gain constitute a clear abuse of process.

- Defamation: The false statements made by Teshia, Tammy, and Diane to law enforcement and in public filings have caused significant harm to my reputation.

- Legal Precedent:

- Miller v. Willbanks, 8 S.W.3d 607 (Tenn. 1999) – Conduct intentionally causing severe emotional harm constitutes IIED.

• State v. Henry, 834 S.W.2d 273 (Tenn. 1992): IIED claims are valid when a party's actions are intentional and cause severe emotional harm.

5. Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

Statute: Deprivation of constitutional rights under color of law.

- Violations:

  - Teshia's actions deprived Jeremy Black of his Fourth Amendment rights (unlawful arrest) and Fourteenth Amendment rights (due process).
  - Her false claims, knowingly provided to law enforcement, led to Jeremy's arrest without probable cause.

• Basis: Teshia's false allegations led to the deprivation of my constitutional rights, including my Second, Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendment protections.

LEGAL DEFINITION OF CIVIL RIGHTS VIOLATIONS UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, any person who, under color of law, deprives another of constitutional rights or privileges is liable for civil damages. This statute addresses violations such as:

- Fourth Amendment Rights: Protection from unreasonable search and seizure.
- Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Guarantees of due process and equal protection.
- First Amendment Rights: Protection from retaliation for exercising free speech or petitioning the government.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The actions of the named individuals and law enforcement officers demonstrate a coordinated effort to deprive me of these rights:

- False Allegations and Reporting:
    - On July 6, 2024, Teshia falsely accused me of domestic violence and child abuse.
    - These accusations were fabricated, as proven by bodycam footage (Exhibit K), text messages (Exhibits QQ, RR, SS), and contradictory statements from Daniel Black on record.

- Conspiracy to Deprive Rights:
    - Phone records and evidence reveal a coordinated effort between Teshia, Tammy, and Diane to fabricate allegations, influencing law enforcement to act against me without probable cause.
    - Deputy Josh Smith knowingly accepted false statements without proper investigation and incorporated them into official reports under oath.

- False Arrest and Detention:
    - Based solely on false and uncorroborated allegations, I was arrested on July 6, 2024, in violation of my Fourth Amendment rights.
    - Deputy Smith and Lt. Magourik failed to investigate inconsistencies or consider exculpatory evidence, leading to my unlawful detention.

- Denial of Due Process:
    - Law enforcement delayed or refused to provide access to critical evidence, including bodycam footage and dispatch logs, despite repeated requests.
    - Emails from April Devotie demonstrate the deliberate withholding of evidence, impairing my ability to mount a defense.

- Violation of Equal Protection: Law enforcement demonstrated bias by accepting Teshia's claims without question, while dismissing or ignoring my statements, medical evidence, and reports of abuse and stalking.

- Retaliation and Harassment:
    - Teshia weaponized my PTSD and disability status to portray me as unstable, influencing law enforcement and court proceedings.

- This has resulted in emotional distress, alienation from my children, and ongoing legal and financial burdens.

SPECIFIC VIOLATIONS

- Fourth Amendment Violations: My arrest and detention were based on false allegations and lacked probable cause, as required under Mapp v. Ohio, 367 U.S. 643 (1961) and Tennessee v. Garner, 471 U.S. 1 (1985).

- Fourteenth Amendment Violations: The denial of access to critical evidence and biased handling of my case deprived me of due process and equal protection under the law, violating Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

- First Amendment Violations: Efforts to discredit me based on my PTSD and retaliation for my attempts to defend myself publicly and legally violated my rights to free speech and petition.

- Civil Conspiracy (42 U.S.C. § 1985): Evidence of coordination between Teshia, Tammy, Diane, and law enforcement officers demonstrates a conspiracy to deprive me of my rights.

- Evidence:
  - Her actions directly resulted in unlawful detention and a denial of due process.
  - She weaponized my PTSD diagnosis to influence law enforcement's perception, leading to discrimination and bias.

- Legal Precedent:

  - Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978): Actions that result in the deprivation of constitutional rights are actionable under federal law.

  - Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961) – False accusations resulting in abuse of law enforcement authority violate civil rights.

- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963): Suppression of exculpatory evidence by law enforcement violates due process.

- Mapp v. Ohio, 367 U.S. 643 (1961): Evidence obtained without probable cause or due process is inadmissible.

- Tennessee v. Garner, 471 U.S. 1 (1985): Protects individuals from unlawful arrest and detention.

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978): Municipalities and departments are liable for unconstitutional policies or customs.

- 42 U.S.C. § 1985 (Civil Conspiracy): Prohibits conspiracies to interfere with civil rights, including equal protection.

6. Alienation of Affection

• Basis: Parental Alienation and Emotional Manipulation:
    - Plaintiff has consistently undermined Defendant's role as a parent, including:
    - Discouraging the children from listening to or respecting Defendant.
    - Making negative and false statements about Defendant's mental health and character to the children.
    - Plaintiff's actions have caused significant emotional harm to the children and strained their relationship with Defendant.

While Alienation of Affection is traditionally a civil tort, its elements align with the intentional actions taken by Teshia to sever my parental bonds. The legal basis for such claims includes:

Tennessee courts recognize parental alienation as a harmful behavior that negatively impacts children and the targeted parent. Plaintiff's actions meet the elements of parental alienation, including:

- Interfering with Defendant's access to the children during significant family events and emergencies.

- Discouraging or outright blocking communication between Defendant and the children.
- Encouraging disrespect and hostility toward Defendant.
- Manipulating the children to fear and distrust Defendant.

Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)
Under Tennessee law, the Defendant must demonstrate:
- Extreme and Outrageous Conduct: Plaintiff's false allegations, stalking, and interference with Defendant's parental role constitute behavior that exceeds the bounds of decency.
- Intent or Reckless Disregard: Plaintiff's actions were intended to harm Defendant emotionally and psychologically.
- Severe Emotional Distress: Defendant has experienced exacerbation of his PTSD and significant emotional harm as a direct result of Plaintiff's conduct.
- Teshia's actions demonstrate a clear intent to alienate me from my children, including fabricating allegations, manipulating family dynamics, and fostering negative perceptions of me.

- Causation of Loss: These actions have directly resulted in the loss of my relationship with my children, causing severe emotional and psychological distress.

- Emotional and Psychological Damage: Alienation of affection is not limited to romantic relationships but also encompasses the destruction of familial bonds, as recognized in legal precedent.

- False Allegations of Child Abuse and Domestic Violence:

    - Teshia fabricated claims that I physically abused our son Daniel and committed domestic violence.
    - These false allegations, made in the presence of law enforcement and documented in police reports, were part of a deliberate strategy to vilify me and sever my relationship with my children.

- Manipulation of Family Dynamics:

    - Teshia has consistently portrayed me as unstable and dangerous due to my PTSD, despite evidence to the contrary.

    - She has influenced my children, particularly Daniel, to view me negatively, even coercing or encouraging false statements against me.

- Public Slander and Retaliation: Teshia has made defamatory statements about me to family members, law enforcement, and others in our community, damaging my reputation and further alienating me from my children.

- Parental Gatekeeping and Interference:

    - Since July 6, 2024, I have been denied contact with my children. Teshia has cut off all communication channels, including phone calls, social media, and in-person visits.
    - This deliberate obstruction has deprived me of the opportunity to maintain a meaningful relationship with my children.

- Complete Denial of Contact Since July 6, 2024:

    - Jeremy has had no physical or virtual access to his children since July 6, 2024.
    - Teshia has actively blocked all forms of communication, including phone calls, social media, and other channels.

- Confiscation of Electronics and Learning Tools:

    - Teshia removed the children's access to electronics that Jeremy provided for their education and communication.
    - This action disrupted their learning and cut off their primary means of maintaining contact with Jeremy, who has historically been deeply involved in their educational progress.

- Disruption of Emotional Bond:

    - Text messages from Jeremy show repeated attempts to resolve conflicts and reestablish communication with the children.
    - The children's expressed anger and frustration at being kept from their father highlight the emotional harm caused by Teshia's actions.

- Blocking and Limiting Communication:

    - Teshia consistently ignored or dismissed Jeremy's requests to communicate with the children, as evidenced in text messages and emails.
    - Despite Jeremy's repeated efforts to negotiate and express his desire to remain involved in their lives, Teshia either deflected or outright denied these requests.

- Manipulation of the Children:

    - Evidence suggests that Teshia has made disparaging remarks about Jeremy to the children, painting him in a negative light and influencing their perception of him.
    - Messages show her unwillingness to address Jeremy's concerns or involve him in parenting decisions, leaving him excluded from critical aspects of the children's lives.

- Encouragement of False Allegations:

    - Teshia has involved third parties, such as Tammy Webb and Natasha Rick, in efforts to create false narratives about Jeremy, as evidenced by their admissions in text messages.
    - This coordinated effort has damaged Jeremy's reputation and further alienated him from his children.

- Isolation During Key Events:

    - Text messages reveal that Jeremy was excluded from significant milestones in the children's lives, such as birthdays and holidays.
    - Jeremy's messages reflect his desire to participate in these events, while Teshia's lack of response or outright refusal underscores her intent to isolate him.

- Emotional and Psychological Harm:

    - The children have expressed anger and frustration about the estrangement from their father. This emotional distress is documented in Jeremy's communications and their reported reactions.
    - The removal of their electronic devices and learning tools disrupted their routines and severed their connection with Jeremy, exacerbating feelings of isolation and abandonment.

- Harmful Role Modeling: Teshia's actions demonstrate to the children a disregard for co-parenting and healthy conflict resolution. This behavior may have long-term negative effects on their understanding of relationships and communication.

- Violation of Parental Rights: Under Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to maintain meaningful relationships with their children. Teshia's actions constitute a direct violation of Jeremy's parental rights.

- Best Interests of the Children: Alienating the children from Jeremy undermines their emotional and psychological well-being, which is a direct violation of their best interests as determined by family law standards.

- Potential Legal Sanctions: Alienation tactics such as those employed by Teshia may warrant legal sanctions, including modifications to custody and visitation arrangements, as well as orders for counseling or mediation.

  • Evidence:

    • Documentation of her false statements to law enforcement, Sessions and Circuit Courts about my relationship with our children, including the fabricated claim that I attacked Daniel.
    • Evidence of her manipulation of our children, as noted in text messages and public statements.

  • Legal Precedent:

    • Hixon v. Buchanon, 44 Tenn. App. 351 (1956): Deliberate actions to alienate a parent from their children are actionable under Tennessee law.

    - Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000): Recognizes the fundamental right of parents to the care, custody, and control of their children.

    - Hughes v. Hughes, 35 Tenn. App. 586, 250 S.W.2d 541 (1951): Affirms that intentional interference with familial relationships constitutes actionable harm.

- Kovacs v. Brewer, 356 S.W.2d 599 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1961): Holds that deliberate actions to destroy familial relationships are actionable under Tennessee law.

7. Defamation (Libel and Slander)

Statute: Defamation involves false statements communicated to a third party that damage an individual's reputation.

Plaintiff's repeated false statements to law enforcement and others, accusing Defendant of violent and abusive behavior, have damaged Defendant's reputation and ability to maintain a relationship with his children.

- Violations:

    - Teshia falsely accused Jeremy of child abuse and domestic violence to law enforcement and third parties, tarnishing his reputation.
    - Her accusations resulted in public records portraying Jeremy as violent, despite lack of evidence.

• Basis: Teshia made false and damaging statements about me to law enforcement, family, and the public.

- False Allegations of Domestic Violence and Child Abuse (Spoken Statements): Teshia repeatedly alleged to law enforcement and family members that I physically assaulted her and our son Daniel, which is demonstrably false.

- Fabricated Claims in Written Police Reports (Libel): Teshia's written statement, provided to Deputy Josh Smith on July 6, 2024, includes fabricated allegations that I pushed her and Daniel, pinned them down, and acted aggressively. These claims are not supported by physical evidence, eyewitness accounts, or bodycam footage.

- False Claims of PTSD-Related Aggression (Slander): Teshia has consistently mischaracterized my PTSD as dangerous and uncontrollable in conversations with law enforcement and others, despite my documented history of successful treatment and management.

- Defamatory Statements to Third Parties: Teshia told her sister Tammy Webb and her friend Diane Parker that I was violent and abusive, encouraging them to repeat and amplify these false claims.

- Public Defamation: Teshia has used public platforms, including social media and community interactions, to spread false allegations, further damaging my reputation.

Under Tennessee law, defamation occurs when a false statement is communicated to a third party, causing harm to the subject's reputation. Key elements of defamation include:

- False Statements: Teshia knowingly made false statements alleging abuse and violence that are unsupported by evidence.

- Publication to Third Parties: These statements were shared with law enforcement, family members, and the community.

- Harm to Reputation: The statements have caused significant damage to my personal and professional reputation, as well as my relationships with my children.

- Negligence or Malice: Teshia acted with either negligence or actual malice, knowing the statements were false or recklessly disregarding the truth.

IMPACT OF DEFAMATION The false statements made by Teshia have had profound consequences, including:

- Emotional and Psychological Harm: The defamatory allegations have exacerbated my PTSD and caused significant emotional distress.

- Alienation from Children: These false claims have been used to justify denying me access to my children, causing irreparable harm to our relationships.

- Damage to Reputation: The allegations have tarnished my standing in the community and among family members.

- Legal and Financial Burdens: I have incurred substantial costs defending myself against baseless accusations.

• Evidence:
    - False claims of abuse recorded in police reports and bodycam footage.
    - Public dissemination of false accusations, leading to reputational harm.

• Legal Precedent:

- New York Times Co. v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254 (1964): Established the standard for defamation, particularly when false statements are made with malice or reckless disregard for the truth.

- Press, Inc. v. Verran, 569 S.W.2d 435 (Tenn. 1978): Tennessee law emphasizes that defamation requires proof of harm to reputation through false and damaging statements.

- Handley v. May, 588 S.W.2d 772 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1979): Recognized the harm caused by public statements that falsely attribute criminal or immoral behavior to another person.

- Tennessee Code § 39-16-502 (False Reporting): Highlights the criminal implications of knowingly providing false information to law enforcement.

8. Harassment and Stalking (Tennessee Code § 39-17-315)

- Basis: Plaintiff has engaged in stalking and harassment, including:
    - Using GPS tracking and other methods to monitor Defendant's location.
    - Engaging in physical stalking incidents, such as the one on October 4, 2024, involving Plaintiff and her associates.
    - Repeatedly attempting to provoke Defendant into violations of court orders.

- .Stalking (Tennessee Code § 39-17-315): Defined as a willful course of conduct involving repeated or continuing harassment of another individual that would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.

- Unlawful Search and Seizure (Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution): Protects individuals from searches and seizures conducted without a valid warrant supported by probable cause.

- Location Privacy (Carpenter v. United States, 138 S.Ct. 2206 (2018)): The Supreme Court ruled that accessing cell phone location data requires a warrant.

SPECIFIC ACTIONS BY TESHIA AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

- Stalking and Harassment: Teshia engaged in a sustained course of stalking, involving:

    - Enlisting third parties, such as Tammy Webb and Diane Parker, to monitor and track my activities.
    - Filing false allegations, including fabricated claims of child abuse and domestic violence.
    - Coordinating with law enforcement to escalate harassment, as demonstrated by the incidents on August 4, 2024, and September 5, 2024.

- Unlawful Access to Location Data:

    - On August 4, 2024, deputies accessed my historical location data without a warrant to determine my whereabouts, leading to my wrongful arrest.
    - Similarly, on September 5, 2024, my location data was unlawfully used to track me, violating Fourth Amendment protections and the precedent set by Carpenter v. United States.

- Fabricated Arrests and False Reporting:

    - Both arrests were based on false statements from Teshia and third parties.
    - Evidence supporting these claims, such as bodycam footage and text messages, shows a lack of corroboration or credible evidence justifying the arrests.

- Coordination Between Teshia and Law Enforcement:

    - Deputies' reliance on unverified statements and unauthorized surveillance demonstrates a coordinated effort to target me.
    - This conspiracy violated my constitutional rights and caused severe emotional distress.

IMPACT OF THESE ACTIONS

- Emotional and Physical Harm:

    - The fabricated allegations and unwarranted arrests have exacerbated my PTSD, leading to severe emotional and psychological distress.
    - My physical injuries, sustained during the events in question, were neglected, compounding my suffering.

- Violation of Privacy: The unlawful access to my location data constituted a gross invasion of privacy, undermining my sense of safety and security.

- Reputational and Financial Damage: The false arrests have tarnished my reputation and caused significant financial strain due to legal expenses and lost income.

- Coordinated Efforts to Set Up Jeremy:
    - Text messages and timelines indicate coordinated actions by Teshia, Tammy, and Tasha to entrap Jeremy into confrontations or false allegations, leading to his repeated arrests.
    - Tammy admitted in a text exchange that she lied for Teshia, confirming deliberate manipulation and deceit.

- Stalking Behavior: Evidence submitted demonstrates Teshia's continued surveillance and harassment of Jeremy, even post-separation. These actions include following him, monitoring his social media, and interfering with his interactions with others.

• Evidence:
    • Text messages and social media posts demonstrate her intent to monitor and harass me.
    • Stalking reports filed with law enforcement further corroborate her behavior.

LEGAL BASIS FOR CHARGES

- Stalking (Tennessee Code § 39-17-315): Teshia's repeated harassment and coordination with others meet the statutory definition of stalking.

- False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502): Filing false reports to law enforcement furthered the course of harassment and stalking.

- Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Deputies' actions, including unlawful surveillance and arrests, violated my constitutional rights.

- Unlawful Search and Seizure (Fourth Amendment): Accessing my location data without a warrant constituted a clear violation of my privacy rights under federal law.

- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103): Coordinated efforts between Teshia and law enforcement to harass and target me demonstrate a conspiracy to violate my rights.

• Legal Precedent:

• Tennessee v. Elder, 271 S.W.3d 102 (Tenn. 2008): Stalking involves repeated harassment that causes emotional distress or fear.

- Carpenter v. United States, 138 S.Ct. 2206 (2018): Accessing historical location data without a warrant violates the Fourth Amendment.

- State v. Gentry, 538 S.W.3d 413 (Tenn. Crim. App. 2017): Recognized stalking as a deliberate pattern of harassment requiring legal intervention.

- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963): The suppression of exculpatory evidence, including failure to disclose unlawfully obtained evidence, violates due process.

- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Law enforcement must disclose all evidence impacting the credibility of witnesses and allegations.

- 42 U.S.C. § 1983: Protects individuals from coordinated efforts by state actors that deprive them of constitutional rights.

9. False Allegations of Child Abuse

• Basis: Teshia falsely claimed that I attacked our son Daniel, as documented in bodycam footage and police reports.

- Alleged Incident: Teshia Black falsely accused me of child abuse, claiming that I physically attacked my son, Daniel Black, during the events of July 6, 2024. This accusation was made to Deputy Josh Smith and her sister, Tammy Webb, and later implied to Diane Parker.

- Daniel’s Denial: Bodycam footage from Deputy Smith clearly shows that Daniel denied any physical altercation initially. Daniel explicitly stated that he did not recall such an event and described the situation as a "blur" until Deputy Smith prompted him by asserting, "Your dad pushed your mom down twice." Only after this suggestive questioning did Daniel suddenly say, "Oh, I remembered."

- Teshia’s Contradictions:

    - Teshia mentioned the alleged child abuse only to Deputy Smith and Tammy Webb initially.
    - When Diane Parker arrived and brought up the alleged incident, Teshia conspicuously refrained from elaborating, as Deputy Smith had earlier advised her to omit any mention of Daniel from her narrative.
    - This omission and selective disclosure indicate her awareness of the false nature of the allegations.

- Fabrication and Collusion:

    - Bodycam footage captures Deputy Smith coaching Teshia on what to include in her statement, further indicating collusion.
    - Tammy Webb’s statements corroborate this manipulation, as her own words reflect the false narrative propagated by Teshia.

- Material Impact: These false allegations led to my wrongful arrest and detention, tarnished my reputation, alienated me from my children, and exacerbated the emotional trauma I have endured due to the ongoing legal battles with Teshia.

• Evidence:
    • Bodycam footage shows her repeating the false claim 10 times, despite no corroborating evidence.
    • Contradictory statements from Daniel undermine her allegations.

LEGAL BASIS FOR FILING CHARGES

Tennessee Laws Violated:

- TCA § 39-16-502 – False Reporting: Teshia knowingly made false statements with the intent to implicate me in a criminal act.

- TCA § 39-16-703 – Aggravated Perjury: Teshia's statements, made in connection with official proceedings and police reports, were materially false and intended to influence judicial decisions.

- TCA § 36-6-106 – Custody Interference: Her actions were part of a calculated effort to interfere with my parental rights and alienate me from my children.

Federal Laws Violated:

- 18 U.S.C. § 1001 – False Statements: Making false statements to law enforcement officers violates federal statutes when such statements materially affect the investigation.

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy Against Rights: Teshia, along with others, conspired to deprive me of my constitutional rights, including the right to due process and equal protection under the law.

Legal Precedent:

• State v. Merriman, 410 S.W.3d 779 (Tenn. 2013): False allegations of child abuse carry severe legal consequences and require substantive evidence.

10. Marital Misconduct and Inhumane Treatment

I. Physical Abuse

- March 21, 2022:

    - Photographic evidence submitted shows visible injuries on Jeremy Black's face, including bruises and lacerations.
    - A text exchange from the same date includes a direct response from Jeremy stating, "You think I deserve to walk around with this or the pain," indicating that these injuries were inflicted by Teshia.
    - Teshia's lack of acknowledgment or remorse in subsequent messages highlights her indifference to the harm caused.

- November 28, 2023:

    - Fresh lacerations and visible wounds are documented in photographic evidence. These injuries further validate a pattern of physical violence.
    - A jail booking photo annotated to emphasize multiple visible injuries supports the assertion of abuse.
- Physical Harm: Multiple documented instances of violence against Jeremy, resulting in visible injuries and emotional trauma.
- Emotional and Psychological Abuse: A consistent pattern of gaslighting, isolation, and manipulation, designed to undermine Jeremy's stability and well-being.
- Financial Coercion: Restricting access to necessary tools and resources, creating undue hardship.
- Child Alienation: Preventing contact between Jeremy and his children, coupled with neglectful actions that harm their development.
- Legal Manipulation: Coordinated efforts to set up false allegations and misuse the legal system to harass and control Jeremy.

II. Emotional and Psychological Abuse

Parental Alienation Tennessee courts recognize parental alienation as a harmful behavior that negatively impacts children and the targeted parent. Plaintiff's actions meet the elements of parental alienation, including:

- Interfering with Defendant's access to the children during significant family events and emergencies.
- Discouraging or outright blocking communication between Defendant and the children.
- Encouraging disrespect and hostility toward Defendant.
- Manipulating the children to fear and distrust Defendant.

Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)
Under Tennessee law, the Defendant must demonstrate:

- Extreme and Outrageous Conduct: Plaintiff's false allegations, stalking, and interference with Defendant's parental role constitute behavior that exceeds the bounds of decency.
- Intent or Reckless Disregard: Plaintiff's actions were intended to harm Defendant emotionally and psychologically.
- Severe Emotional Distress: Defendant has experienced exacerbation of his PTSD and significant emotional harm as a direct result of Plaintiff's conduct.

- Gaslighting and Manipulation:

  - Numerous text messages from Teshia show a pattern of gaslighting, where Jeremy's reality is dismissed or manipulated.
  - Examples include her refusal to address concerns raised by Jeremy regarding their children's welfare, dismissing his legitimate grievances as unreasonable.

- Alienation from Children:

  - Jeremy has been denied contact with his children since July 6, 2024.
  - Teshia removed the children's access to electronics and educational tools, deliberately isolating them from Jeremy and disrupting their routine learning and communication with their father.
  - Evidence from text exchanges shows that the children expressed frustration and anger at the situation, further demonstrating that this isolation was not in their best interest.
- Denial of Access to Children:
  - No Access Since July 6, 2024: Plaintiff has denied Defendant access to his children entirely since this date, including phone communication, social media interactions, and participation in their extracurricular activities.
  - November 13, 2024: Following the death of Defendant's father, Plaintiff denied Defendant access to their children during this critical time of grieving.
  - November 22, 2024: Plaintiff denied Defendant access to their 11-year-old daughter during her appendicitis surgery, depriving him of the opportunity to support his child during a medical emergency.

- Disruption of Emotional Bond:
    - Text messages from Jeremy show repeated attempts to resolve conflicts and reestablish communication with the children.
    - The children's expressed anger and frustration at being kept from their father highlight the emotional harm caused by Teshia's actions.
- Manipulation of the Children:
    - Evidence suggests that Teshia has made disparaging remarks about Jeremy to the children, painting him in a negative light and influencing their perception of him.
    - Messages show her unwillingness to address Jeremy's concerns or involve him in parenting decisions, leaving him excluded from critical aspects of the children's lives.
- Emotional and Psychological Harm:
    - The children have expressed anger and frustration about the estrangement from their father. This emotional distress is documented in Jeremy's communications and their reported reactions.
    - The removal of their electronic devices and learning tools disrupted their routines and severed their connection with Jeremy, exacerbating feelings of isolation and abandonment.
- Harmful Role Modeling: Teshia's actions demonstrate to the children a disregard for co-parenting and healthy conflict resolution. This behavior may have long-term negative effects on their understanding of relationships and communication.
- Encouragement of False Allegations:
    - Teshia has involved third parties, such as Tammy Webb and Natasha Rick, in efforts to create false narratives about Jeremy, as evidenced by their admissions in text messages.
    - This coordinated effort has damaged Jeremy's reputation and further alienated him from his children.

- Isolation During Key Events:
    - Text messages reveal that Jeremy was excluded from significant milestones in the children's lives, such as birthdays and holidays.
    - Jeremy's messages reflect his desire to participate in these events, while Teshia's lack of response or outright refusal underscores her intent to isolate him.

- Violation of Parental Rights: Under Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to maintain meaningful relationships with their children. Teshia's actions constitute a direct violation of Jeremy's parental rights.

- Best Interests of the Children: Alienating the children from Jeremy undermines their emotional and psychological well-being, which is a direct violation of their best interests as determined by family law standards.

- Potential Legal Sanctions: Alienation tactics such as those employed by Teshia may warrant legal sanctions, including modifications to custody and visitation arrangements, as well as orders for counseling or mediation

- False Accusations and Legal Manipulation:
    - On July 6, 2024, Plaintiff filed a false police report alleging domestic violence. These fabricated claims led to Defendant's wrongful arrest and have been used as a tool to alienate the children from their father.
    - Plaintiff obtained an order of protection based on unsubstantiated and demonstrably false allegations.

- Refusal to Engage in Resolution:
    - Text messages from Jeremy repeatedly request cooperative efforts to address parenting responsibilities, roles, and household matters. These messages were met with evasion, silence, or dismissive responses from Teshia.
    - Jeremy's proposals to collaboratively address issues such as the children's eating habits, bedtime routines, and consequences for behavior were ignored, as evidenced in detailed text records.

11. Financial Sabotage:

- Plaintiff has taken steps to harm Defendant's financial stability by sabotaging his online accounts, leading to significant loss of income and business opportunities.

- Withholding Necessary Resources: Teshia has withheld access to Jeremy's tools, computer, and other resources vital for his work and daily functioning. Text exchanges document repeated requests by Jeremy for the return of his belongings, which were denied or delayed.

- Mismanagement and Neglect: Evidence shows a deliberate effort to restrict Jeremy's financial stability while portraying him as neglectful. For instance, in one message, Tammy acknowledges that Teshia's actions created unnecessary obstacles for Jeremy to fulfill his obligations.

RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request the Court to:

• Investigate and Prosecute: Initiate a thorough investigation into Teshia's actions and pursue the charges outlined above.

    - Charge Teshia with perjury, aggravated perjury, false reporting, and conspiracy

- Accountability: Ensure that individuals who participated in enabling these false statements are held accountable, including law enforcement officers who failed to act impartially.

• Issue Restraining Orders: Enforce measures to prevent further harassment or manipulation by Teshia.

- Judicial Recognition of Abuse: That the court acknowledges the pattern of abuse, harassment, and alienation as marital misconduct.

- Restoration of Parental Rights: Immediate reinstatement of Jeremy's right to access and communicate with his children.

- Custody Modification: Award joint or primary custody to Jeremy to ensure the children's best interests are met and to prevent further alienation.

- Court-Ordered Sanctions:
    - Impose sanctions on Teshia for violating Jeremy's parental rights, including covering legal fees and compensating for emotional distress.
    - That the court impose appropriate sanctions on Teshia and her associates for filing false reports and engaging in defamatory conduct.

• Award Damages: Compensate for emotional, reputational, and financial harm caused by her actions.

• Mandate Counseling: Require Teshia to undergo counseling to address her behavior and its impact on our children.

The evidence submitted paints a clear picture of systematic abuse, neglect, and manipulation perpetrated by Teshia Black. Jeremy Black respectfully requests the Court to consider this brief and take appropriate action to ensure justice, protect the children's best interests, and prevent further harm.

The evidence overwhelmingly supports the charges against Teshia Black for perjury, false reporting, conspiracy, IIED, defamation, False allegations of child abuse, and civil rights violations. Her intentional fabrications and coordination with others have caused irreparable harm to Jeremy Black's life, family, and reputation

The evidence presented clearly demonstrates a pattern of alienation by Teshia Black, causing significant harm to Jeremy Black and their children. Jeremy respectfully requests the Court to recognize this alienation and take appropriate actions to restore his parental rights, protect the children's best interests, and hold Teshia accountable for her actions.

False allegations of child abuse not only harm the accused but also undermine the credibility of genuine victims. Teshia's actions have caused immense harm to me and my family and violated the principles of justice. I urge the Cocke County Sheriff's Department to take swift and decisive action to hold her accountable for these malicious acts.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jeremy Black

not on phone bill or officers body cam

First of all you prevented the 911 call the deputy saw the calls you prevented. Second you are not to have any contact with any if them and you contacted them that is not mom and you can go to jail because of the Order of Protection that is in place. Second you didn't go to court and the DA sent mom a letter saying there was a capias on you.
And my childhood was just fine. My mom has always been a good mom and still is. She does everything for the kids and you cant deny that. I have been here for 2 years no abuse toward me or the kids that never happened!! just your bullying my mom and she has had to defend herself against you and all your screaming and bullying Daniel about something always. Last words to him were fuck you Daniel!! Isn't that emotional abuse? Absolutely it is from you!! Not mom!!

Teshia slapped Tasha in the face they fought. Tasha was kicked out for a month. and lived with you and mammaw. you, your mom and children will be called to testify.

How did Teshia defend herself against me yelling?

if you consider telling Daniel the exact same things i tell the other kids bullying. what do I Say or do?

GROUNDS

4.1 Irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties.

ARMED SERVICES

5.1 The husband is a retired member of the Army.

PROPERTY

6.1 The parties have acquired real property. In addition, they have acquired various marital assets and items of personal property, household furnishings and fixtures.

6.2 The parties will need to equitably divide all assets, and agree to a Marital Dissolution Agreement or the Court will need to equitably divide same.

DEBTS

7.1 The parties have incurred certain debts since the inception of the marriage, which will be detailed in an appropriate listing of debts and assets. Some debts accrued during the marriage, to the parties, separately, will also need to be equitably divided.

MEDIATION REQUIRED BY TENNESSEE CODE ANNOTATED § 36-4-131

8.1 Pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-131, effective July 1, 2007, except as provided in subsection (b) or unless specifically waived or extended by the Court for reasons including, but not limited to, those codified in Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-6-409(4), in any proceeding for divorce or separate maintenance, the court shall order the parties to participate in mediation and such mediation shall be concluded and a report provided to the court no later than one hundred eighty (180) days from the date the complaint for divorce was filed. If the parties are able to enter into a reasonable and appropriate Marital Dissolution Agreement, the same shall be presented to the Court and mediation is not required.

AUTOMATIC TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

9.1 Pursuant to the Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-106(d), an Automatic Temporary Injunction is incorporated and attached to this Complaint as if restated verbatim and applies to both parties. The parties shall continue to pay such debt as they have paid during the duration of the marriage, and shall not dissipate the marital assets.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, PLAINTIFF PRAYS as follows:

1. Proper process issue and be served upon the Defendant, allowing him to appear and answer the Complaint within the time required by law unless they sooner file a Marital Dissolution Agreement for approval.

2. If the parties do not settle the issues, that the Court awards an equitable distribution of the parties' marital assets and debts.

3. Upon hearing of this cause a decree of absolute divorce be granted.

4. In the event the parties are able to enter into a Marital Dissolution Agreement, that the Court approve the same and enter the same as the judgment of the Court;

5. The Court approves the Proposed Parenting Plan that is filed herewith;

6. The parties have any other relief to which they may be entitled.

Case No. 37,107 II

NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

By act of the Tennessee General Assembly, Tennessee Code Annotated § 36-4-106(d)(as amended) both Husband and Wife in this lawsuit are restrained and enjoined, until further order of the Court from:

1. Transferring, assigning, borrowing against, concealing or in any way dissipating or disposing, without the consent of the other party or an order of the court, of any marital property (expenditures from current income to maintain the marital standard of living and the usual and ordinary costs of operating a business are not restricted by this injunction, but each party shall maintain records of all expenditures, copies of which shall be available to the other party upon request).
2. Voluntarily canceling, modifying, terminating, assigning, or allowing to lapse for nonpayment of premiums, any insurance policy, including, but not limited to, life, health, disability, homeowners, renters, and automobile, where such insurance policy provides coverage to either of the parties or the children, or that names either of the parties or the children as beneficiaries without the consent of the other party or an order of the court ("modifying" includes any change of beneficiary status).

3. Harassing, threatening, assaulting or abusing the other and from making disparaging remarks about the other to or in the presence of any children of the parties or to either party's employer.

4. Hiding, destroying, or spoiling, in whole or in part, any evidence electronically stored or on computer hard drives or other memory storage devices.

5. Relocating any children of the parties outside the State of Tennessee, or more than fifty (50) miles from the marital home, without the permission of the other party or an order from the court, except in the case of a removal based upon a well-founded fear of physical abuse against either the fleeing parent or the child.

In cases of relocation, as described in paragraph 5, upon request of the non-relocating parent, the court will conduct an expedited hearing, by telephone conference if appropriate, to determine the reasonableness of the relocation and to make such other orders as appropriate.

If agreed upon by the parties, the ☐ mother ☐ father ☐ both shall insure his/her own life in the minimum amount of $_____ by whole life or term insurance. Until the child support obligation has been completed, each policy shall name the child/children as sole irrevocable primary beneficiary, with the ☐ other parent ☐ other _____, as trustee for the benefit of the child(ren), to serve without bond or accounting.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child or children are scheduled to reside the majority of the time as designated in Section I.A. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to:

Ξ Mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.
☐ Arbitration by a neutral party selected by parents or the Court.
☐ The Court DUE TO ORDER OF PROTECTION OR RESTRICTIONS.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by ☐ written request ☐ certified mail ☐ other: _____.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.

b. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;

(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of children who are being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider. The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child or children shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and

(9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities; provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

(a) After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;

(2) Location of proposed new residence;

(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and

(4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.

(b) Absent agreement by the parents on a new visitation schedule within thirty (30) days of the notice or upon a timely objection in response to the notice, the relocating parent shall file a petition seeking approval of the relocation. The non-relocating parent has thirty (30) days to file a response in opposition to the petition. In the event no response in opposition is filed within thirty (30) days, the parent proposing to relocate with the child shall be permitted to do so.

(c) (1) If a petition in opposition to relocation is filed, the court shall determine whether relocation is in the best interest of the minor child.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☐ both parents ☐ mother ☐ father ☐ neither. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent. A notary public is required if this is an agreed plan by both parents.)

Case No. 37,107 II

MOTION FOR ALIMONY

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Teshia Y. Black, herein after referred to as the "Wife," and would file this Motion for Temporary and Permanent Alimony, and in support of same would aver as follows:

1. The husband has always been the main provider for the family, as the wife has always stayed at home to care for the four (4) minor children during the duration of the marriage;
2. The Wife has always been supported by the Husband, and he is continuously paid for the majority of the food, upkeep, and maintenance for the Wife;
3. At this time, the Wife has no way of supporting herself with her current wages, and needs further support from this Court, as she has minimal income. The Husband, though he is on disability, works several jobs outside of the house,
4. The Wife has attached hereto an Affidavit outlining her income and expenses, showing her need for alimony.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, THE WIFE PRAYS as follows:

The Wife prays that the Court enter an Order based upon her Motion and Affidavit filed herewith, and specifically finds that she is in need of temporary support, and the Husband has the ability to continue to support her at the rate as he has done during the marriage. The Wife also prays for all such further relief, both general and specific, as the Court may deem fit.

NOTICE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY EXEMPTION

TO THE DEFENDANT(S): Tennessee law provides a ten thousand dollar ($10,000) personal property exemption as well as a homestead exemption, from execution or seizure to satisfy a judgment. The amount of the homestead exemption depends upon your age and the other factors which are listed in TCA § 26-2-301. If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for your self and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer. Please state file number on list.

II. JURISDICTION

The Plaintiff/Wife is a bona fide resident of Cocke County, Tennessee, and the acts complained of were committed while the Husband and Wife were residents of Cocke County, Tennessee.

III. GROUNDS

Plaintiff alleges as grounds for her divorce that Defendant is guilty of inappropriate marital conduct towards the Plaintiff as would render cohabitation unsafe and improper as provided for in T.C.A. § 36-4-101 (14) and in the alternative, Plaintiff would allege that such irreconcilable differences now exist in the parties' marriage as would entitle her to an absolute divorce as provided for in T.C.A. § 36-4-101(14).

IV. FACTS

1. The Wife would show unto the Court that the Defendant is guilty of inappropriate marital conduct towards the Plaintiff as would render cohabitation unsafe and improper as provided for in T.C.A. § 36-4-101 (14) or in the alternative, such irreconcilable differences now exist in the parties' marriage as would entitle her to an absolute divorce as provided for in T.C.A. § 36-4-101(14).

2. The Wife would show the Court that the parties have four (4) minor children as a result of the marriage; to wit: Daniel (09/12/06), Biani (10/26/07), Brynley (04/14/13) and Gabriel (10/17/15).

3. The Wife would show the Court that the parties own real property.

4. The Wife would show the Court that the parties have various items of personal property, including, but not limited to vehicles, household furnishings and appliances, bank accounts, etc.

5. The Wife would show the Court that the parties have marital debts.

Filed: 2024 6:41 PM

6. The Wife is in dire straits and is in immediate need of spousal and child support, both temporary and permanent.

V. PRAYERS

1. That personal service of process be had upon the Husband and that he be required to answer this Complaint filed against him within the time established by law.

2. That upon a hearing of this cause, the Wife be awarded an absolute divorce on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct, irreconcilable differences and/or stipulated grounds and approve any Marriage Dissolution Agreement and Permanent Parenting Plan entered into by the parties.

3. That the Court adopt the Permanent Parenting Plan attached hereto and incorporated as if fully set out herein.

4. That the Court make an equitable division of the real and personal property owned by the parties and set forth individual responsibility for the marital debts.

5. That the Court order that the Husband pay the Wife spousal support and child support, both temporary and permanent, in accordance with the Tennessee Child Support Guidelines.

6. That the costs of this cause be taxed equally between the parties for which execution may issue.

7. That the Wife be granted general relief.

The parents acknowledge that court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced or modified.

*Child Support Worksheet can be found on DHS website at http://www.state.tn.us/humanserv/is/isdocuments.html or at your local child support offices.

B. FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTION*

The ☐ mother ☐ father is the parent receiving child support.

The Mother shall claim the following children: Daniel, Biani, Brynley and Gabriel

The Father shall claim the following children: _____

The ☐ mother ☐ father may claim the exemptions for the child or children so long as child support payments are current by the claiming parent on January 15 of the year when the return is due. The exemptions may be claimed in: ☐ alternate years starting _____ ☐ each year ☐ other: _____.

The ☐ mother ☐ father will furnish IRS Form 8332 to the parent entitled to the exemption by February 15 of the year the tax return is due.

C. PROOF OF INCOME AND WORK-RELATED CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Each parent shall send proof of income to the other parent for the prior calendar year as follows:

- IRS Forms W-2 and 1099 shall be sent to the other parent on or before February 15.

* NOTE: The child support schedule assumptions in the guidelines (1240-2-4-.03 (6)(b)) assume that the parent receiving the child support will get the tax exemptions for the child.

- A copy of his or her federal income tax return shall be sent to the other parent on or before April 15 or any later date when it is due because of an extension of time for filing.
- The completed form required by the Department of Human Services shall be sent to the Department on or before the date the federal income tax return is due by the parent paying child support. This requirement applies only if a parent is receiving benefits from the Department for a child.

The parent paying work-related child care expenses shall send proof of expenses to the other parent for the prior calendar year and an estimate for the next calendar year, on or before February 15.

D. HEALTH AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Reasonable health insurance on the child or children will be:

x maintained by the mother
x maintained by the father ☐ maintained by both

Proof of continuing coverage shall be furnished to the other parent annually or as coverage changes. The parent maintaining coverage shall authorize the other parent to consult with the insurance carrier regarding the coverage in effect.

Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, which may include but is not limited to, deductibles or co-payments, eyeglasses, contact lens, routine annual physicals, and counseling will be paid by ☐ mother ☐ father ☐ pro rata in accordance with their incomes. After insurance has paid its portion, the parent receiving the bill will send it to the other parent within ten days. The other parent will pay his or her share within 30 days of receipt of the bill.

If available through work, the ☐ mother ☐ father shall maintain dental, orthodontic, and optical insurance on the minor child or children.

E. LIFE INSURANCE

If agreed upon by the parties, the ☐ mother ☐ father ☐ both shall insure his/her own life in the minimum amount of $_____ by whole life or term insurance. Until the child support obligation has been completed, each policy shall name the child/children as sole irrevocable primary beneficiary, with the ☐ other parent ☐ other _____, as trustee for the benefit of the child(ren), to serve without bond or accounting.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child or children are scheduled to reside the majority of the time as designated in Section I.A. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

6:45 PM

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to:

- x Mediation by a neutral party chosen by the parents or the Court.
- ☐ Arbitration by a neutral party selected by parents or the Court.
- ☐ The Court DUE TO ORDER OF PROTECTION OR RESTRICTIONS.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by ☐ written request ☐ certified mail ☐ other: _____.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The parent exercising parenting time shall furnish the other parent with a telephone number where the child may be reached at the days and time specified in a parenting plan or other court order or, where days and times are not specified, at reasonable times;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not destroy, deface, open or censor. The parent exercising parenting time shall deliver all letters, packages and other material sent to the child by the other parent as soon as received and shall not interfere with their delivery in any way, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any hospitalization, major illness or injury, or death of the child. The parent exercising parenting time when such event occurs shall notify the other parent of the event and shall provide all relevant healthcare providers with the contact information for the other parent;
(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any educational records customarily made available to parents. Upon request from one parent, the parent enrolling the child in school shall provide to the other parent as soon as available each academic year the name, address, telephone number and other contact information for the school. In the case of children who are being homeschooled, the parent providing the homeschooling shall advise the other parent of this fact along with the contact information of any sponsoring entity or other entity involved in the child's education, including access to any individual student records or grades available online. The school or homeschooling entity shall be responsible, upon request, to provide to each parent records customarily made available to parents. The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. These records include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical, health or other treatment records directly from the treating physician or healthcare provider. Upon request from one parent, the parent who has arranged for such treatment or health care shall provide to the other parent the name, address, telephone number and other contact information of the physician or healthcare provider. The keeper of the records may require a written request including a current mailing address and may further require payment of the reasonable costs of duplicating such records. No person who receives the mailing address of a requesting parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about such parent or such parent's family by the other parent to or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extracurricular school, athletic, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate, and the opportunity to participate in or observe them. The parent who has enrolled the child in each such activity shall advise the other parent of the activity and provide contact information for the person responsible for its scheduling so that the other parent may make arrangements to participate or observe whenever possible, unless otherwise provided by law or court order;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than forty-eight (48) hours, an itinerary which shall include the planned dates of departure and return, the intended destinations and mode of travel and telephone numbers. The parent traveling with the child or children shall provide this information to the other parent so as to give that parent reasonable notice; and

(9) The right to access and participation in the child's education on the same bases that are provided to all parents including the right of access to the child during lunch and other school activities; provided, that the participation or access is legal and reasonable; however, access must not interfere with the school's day-to-day operations or with the child's educational schedule.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

(a) After custody or co-parenting has been established by the entry of a permanent parenting plan or final order, if a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that absent agreement between the parents or an objection by the non-relocating parent within thirty (30) days of the date notice is sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with subsection (a), the relocating parent will be permitted to do so by law.

(b) Absent agreement by the parents on a new visitation schedule within thirty (30) days of the notice or upon a timely objection in response to the notice, the relocating parent shall file a petition seeking approval of the relocation. The non-relocating parent has thirty (30) days to file a response in opposition to the petition. In the event no response in opposition is filed within thirty (30) days, the parent proposing to relocate with the child shall be permitted to do so.

(c) (1) If a petition in opposition to relocation is filed, the court shall determine whether relocation is in the best interest of the minor child.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☐ both parents ☐ mother ☐ father ☒ neither. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent. A notary public is required if this is an agreed plan by both parents.)

BRIEF ANALYZING VA PSYCH NOTES

Case Background and Relevance of VA Notes

The VA therapy notes provided detail Jeremy Black's ongoing treatment for combat-related PTSD and associated challenges in family dynamics. These notes serve as a foundation to:

- Demonstrate Active Management of PTSD:
    - Consistent attendance at therapy sessions.
    - Active engagement in Cognitive Processing Therapy (CPT) and other structured treatments.
    - Use of mindfulness and grounding techniques as adaptive coping mechanisms.
- Counter Allegations of Instability:
    - The notes document stable behavior, cooperative demeanor, and absence of harm towards self or others.
    - Evidence of improvement and commitment to therapy negates claims of uncontrolled PTSD-related outbursts.
- Highlight External Stressors:
    - Repeated mention of family-related stressors, including marital discord and barriers to parenting.

- Incidents involving spousal accusations and reactive behaviors attributed to Jeremy's PTSD rather than malice.

Key Findings from VA Notes

1. Consistency in Seeking Help

The notes reflect Jeremy's proactive approach:

- Regular follow-ups with a psychologist at the James H. Quillen VAMC.
- Open communication about symptoms and treatment effectiveness.
- Willingness to address both past trauma and current stressors, such as marital issues.

2. Evidence of Psychological Impact from Spousal Actions

- March 21, 2022 Session: Jeremy described an argument with his wife where she became physical and later accused him falsely. This supports claims of provocation and manipulation.
- April 18, 2022 Session: He expressed devastation over being unable to see his children, documenting the emotional toll of these circumstances.

3. Counter to PTSD-Driven Violence Claims

- The records indicate a low risk of harm (consistent denial of suicidal or homicidal ideation).

- Behavioral observations consistently describe Jeremy as cooperative, logical, and non-aggressive.

4. Alignment with Allegations of Spousal Manipulation

- The notes reveal patterns of emotional and psychological stress inflicted by spousal actions, aligning with claims of alienation.

- Mention of his wife's inconsistent actions, such as offering reconciliation while taking adversarial legal steps, supports claims of manipulation.

Legal Implications

- Credibility:

    - The consistent documentation of treatment and self-awareness strengthens Jeremy's credibility.

    - Counters narratives painting him as unstable or unpredictable.

- Provocation and Context:

    - Documented incidents of spousal manipulation and verbal/physical aggression provide context for Jeremy's reactions during disputes.

- Relevance to Parental Fitness:

- The notes highlight Jeremy's dedication to maintaining a relationship with his children and his efforts to create a stable environment.

- No evidence suggests any threat or harm to his children, countering opposing claims.

Recommendations

- Introduce the VA Notes as Evidence:

  - To highlight Jeremy's active management of PTSD.

  - To provide documented evidence of the psychological impact of spousal actions.

- Emphasize Behavioral Observations:

  - Consistent documentation of appropriate behavior, logical thinking, and cooperative demeanor should be used to refute claims of instability.

- Contextualize Marital Discord:

  - Use documented incidents from the notes to argue that spousal actions exacerbated stress and led to reactive situations, not premeditated harm.

- Support Motion to Challenge Credibility:

  - These notes bolster claims of spousal manipulation and inconsistency, aligning with documented attempts to undermine Jeremy's role as a father.

Conclusion

The VA therapy notes provide critical evidence of Jeremy Black's proactive management of PTSD and the detrimental impact of external stressors, particularly spousal manipulation. They reinforce his credibility, counter narratives of instability, and highlight the context behind contested incidents. These notes should be strategically employed in motions and defense strategies to substantiate Jeremy's claims and discredit opposing allegations.

Date/Duration of visit: 9-6-24; 30 min follow up psychotherapy session

Confidentiality: Prior to starting the evaluation/treatment, the limits of confidentiality were discussed and the Veteran agreed to proceed voluntarily with this mental health evaluation/treatment.
No intellectual, communication, learning ability barriers to care noted.

Chief Complaint/Consult: The Veteran was referred for ptsd sxs by PCP.

Subjective: The Veteran was contacted same day in response to secure message. Veteran reported he had a rough week but he is feeling "strong". He reported he went to the court house to renew his plates and after getting to the parking lot he saw a cop behind him and they reported they had a warrant for him violating order of protection. He reported that he went to jail for 57 minutes as the judge released him when they reviewed the violation (he responded to his 11 yo when she sent messages to him). He did discuss how he is concerned that he had no memory of the time he was transported to the jail and we discussed that this has occurred to him recently in similar situation with high stress. We discussed dissociation and he notes that it has only happened during the times of being arrested recently. He does endorse significant hypervigilance and anxiety related to his previous arrest that was a "mistake" (false arrest). He reported that other than the increased anxiety he feels he is managing his symptoms, has been utilizing all the skills learned in therapy, and is focused on getting back with his children. He reported they are his motivation/goal. He reported he is meeting with his attorney today and feels hopeful about it. He discussed having some supportive friends surrounding him. Encouraged him to continue with his exposures and challenging maladaptive thoughts/feelings/reactions as they come. Veteran agreeable for f/u with this provider. Veteran denied current SI/HI, plan, and/or intent.

Mental Status Exam: The patient's voice was normal in tone, volume, and rate.
Pt was cooperative and engaged. A & O x 4. Mood was described as "anxious".
Thought process was linear, logical, goal-directed. Pt did not endorse psychoses. Pt did not express suicidal/homicidal/violent ideation, intent, or plan. Veteran is not presenting with imminent risk for suicidal or homicidal behavior.

AFFIDAVIT OF JEREMY BLACK

STATE OF TENNESSEE

COUNTY OF COCKE

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Jeremy Black, who, being duly sworn, deposed and stated as follows:

1. Personal Information

- My name is Jeremy Black, and I reside at 4636 Indian Camp Creek Rd, Newport, Tennessee 37721.

- I am a 100% disabled combat veteran and a pro se litigant in legal proceedings concerning Case No.: 2024-CR-941 in Cocke County, Tennessee.

- This affidavit is provided in support of the formal complaints and evidence submitted to the District Attorney's Office regarding misconduct, systemic failures, and constitutional violations perpetrated by members of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department (CCSD).

2. Relevant Facts

Misconduct and Procedural Failures

- The CCSD has engaged in repeated and systemic failures, including:

    - Fabrication of evidence and false statements.

- Failure to provide requested records, bodycam footage, and evidence critical to my defense.

- Suppression of complaints and refusal to investigate credible threats and incidents involving misconduct.

- Specific instances include:

    - Deputy Josh Smith's fabricated reports and coaching of witnesses to align with false narratives.

    - Lieutenant Zach Magourik's involvement in excessive use of force during my arrest on August 4, 2024, resulting in severe physical injuries.

    - Assistant Chief Chuck Evans' and Detective Josh Hall's refusal to act on submitted evidence and credible complaints, constituting neglect of duty and obstruction of justice.

Constitutional Violations

- My constitutional rights under the Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments have been violated, including:

    - Arrest without probable cause.

    - Use of warrantless GPS tracking to locate and detain me.

    - Denial of medical care for injuries sustained during arrests.

    - Refusal to investigate exculpatory evidence and deliberate suppression of my complaints.

- My rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) have been disregarded, with officers using my PTSD and physical disabilities to undermine my credibility and as pretexts for their actions.

Evidence Submitted

- The following evidence supports my claims:
    - Bodycam footage showing coaching of witnesses and procedural misconduct.
    - Medical records documenting injuries sustained due to excessive force.
    - Official incident reports, which contain false statements and omissions.
    - Requests for records and bodycam footage repeatedly ignored by CCSD.
- Specific exhibits include:
    - Exhibit A: Summary of Bodycam Transcript from Deputy Josh Smith.
    - Exhibit B: Full Bodycam Transcript.
    - Exhibit T: Medical Records of Shoulder and Elbow Injuries.
    - Exhibit P: Communications showing procedural irregularities.

3. Impact of Misconduct

- The misconduct and systemic failures within the CCSD have caused:
    - Emotional distress, exacerbating my documented PTSD.
    - Financial harm due to prolonged legal battles and lost opportunities.
    - Alienation from my children and irreparable damage to familial relationships.

4. Request for Relief

- I respectfully request the following:
    - Immediate review of my complaints and evidence by an independent third party.
    - Disciplinary actions against CCSD personnel involved in misconduct.
    - Investigation into systemic failures and implementation of corrective measures.

5. Sworn Statement

- I affirm under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

AFFIDAVIT OF JEREMY BLACK

STATE OF TENNESSEE

COUNTY OF COCKE

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Jeremy Black, who, being duly sworn, deposed and stated as follows:

1. Personal Information

- My name is Jeremy Black, and I reside at 4636 Indian Camp Creek Rd, Newport, Tennessee 37721.
- I am a 100% disabled U.S. Army veteran and a pro se litigant in case number 2024-CR-941 in the Cocke County General Sessions Court.
- The purpose of this affidavit is to provide sworn testimony regarding the documented evidence of fabrication, conspiracy, and civil rights violations in the allegations against me of domestic assault and child abuse on July 6, 2024.

2. Factual Statements

Fabrication of Evidence

- The allegations against me, including domestic assault and child abuse, are false and were fabricated by my wife, Teshia Black, with the support of Tammy Webb and Diane Parker.
- Bodycam footage from Deputy Josh Smith reveals:

    - Coaching of Teshia Black on what to include in her written statement.
    - Leading questions directed at my son, Daniel, pressuring him to adopt a false narrative.
- My son, Daniel, explicitly denied the allegations, stating, “He wasn’t yelling… He didn’t push me down,” contradicting claims that I pinned him and Teshia to a bed.

Witness Coordination

- Teshia Black, Tammy Webb, and Diane Parker coordinated their statements to present a fabricated narrative of abuse.
- Diane Parker made claims of witnessing events she was not present for, as evidenced by inconsistencies in her statements captured on bodycam footage.
- Tammy Webb’s statements mirror Teshia’s claims despite lacking firsthand knowledge of the incident.

Procedural Misconduct

- Deputy Josh Smith:
    - Coached Teshia Black to exclude certain details from her statement.
    - Discussed irrelevant topics, such as my PTSD, to discredit me.
    - Dismissed visible injuries I sustained during the alleged incident without proper investigation.
- Law enforcement failed to investigate or corroborate the allegations before arresting me.

False Reporting and Conspiracy

- The coordinated actions by Teshia Black, Tammy Webb, Diane Parker, and Deputy Josh Smith constitute a conspiracy under Tennessee Code § 39-12-103.
- Their actions have caused severe emotional distress, reputational harm, and the alienation of my children.

Civil Rights Violations

- The following constitutional violations occurred:
    - Fourth Amendment: Arrested without probable cause based on false allegations.
    - Fourteenth Amendment: Deprived of due process and equal protection under the law.
    - ADA Violations: Mischaracterization of my PTSD as dangerous behavior.

Impact of False Allegations

- These fabricated allegations have:
    - Severed my bond with my children.
    - Damaged my reputation within the community.
    - Exacerbated my documented PTSD, as supported by VA medical records.

3. Supporting Evidence

- I have attached the following evidence in support of my statements:
    - Transcript excerpts from bodycam footage.
    - Medical records documenting injuries sustained during the alleged incident.
    - Legal precedents supporting my claims of procedural and constitutional violations.

4. Request for Relief

- I respectfully request a thorough review of the evidence, dismissal of all charges, and an investigation into the misconduct by the involved parties.

5. Sworn Statement

- I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

AFFIDAVIT OF JEREMY BLACK

STATE OF TENNESSEE
COUNTY OF COCKE

I, Jeremy Black, residing at 4636 Indian Camp Creek Rd, Newport, TN 37721, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

Purpose of the Affidavit

This affidavit is provided to support the detailed criminal complaints and allegations against Teshia Black and other involved parties. This document summarizes the evidence, legal violations, and actions leading to my wrongful arrest, defamation, alienation from my children, and emotional distress.

Background and Incidents

- False Allegations: On July 6, 2024, and subsequent dates, Teshia Black falsely accused me of domestic violence and child abuse, leading to my wrongful arrests on July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024.
- Fabricated Evidence: Multiple pieces of evidence, including bodycam footage and text messages, demonstrate inconsistencies and falsehoods in Teshia's claims.
- Stalking and Harassment: Teshia engaged in coordinated stalking efforts using third parties and unauthorized access to my location data, violating Tennessee and federal privacy laws.
- Alienation of Affection: Her actions have caused irreparable harm to my relationship with my children through manipulation, false accusations, and denial of access.
- Violation of Rights: These actions resulted in violations of my constitutional rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments, as well as Tennessee statutes.

Legal Violations

- False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502): Teshia knowingly provided false information to law enforcement, leading to my arrest.
- Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-702): False statements made under oath during official proceedings materially influenced judicial decisions.
- Stalking (Tennessee Code § 39-17-315): Documented incidents of harassment and monitoring without consent constitute stalking.

- Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983): The coordination between Teshia and certain law enforcement officers deprived me of due process and equal protection under the law.

Request for Action

I respectfully request:

- Investigation and Prosecution: A thorough investigation into the actions of Teshia Black, including her coordination with other parties, and the filing of appropriate criminal charges.
- Legal Accountability: Measures to address the violations of my constitutional rights and ensure justice is served.
- Restoration of Parental Rights: Actions to restore access to and relationships with my children.

Affirmation of Truth

I affirm under penalty of perjury that the statements made in this affidavit and the accompanying documents are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Sheriff Ball,

I just returned from Tennessee where I had three court dates in one week — Criminal Court on August 12, CPS Family Court on August 14, and Divorce Court on August 19, 2025.

Criminal Court went about as I expected, though it was hard to watch my former Public Defender unravel in front of Judge Moore. He literally begged to withdraw, turning the hearing into a spectacle. At the same time, Mr. Kear pressed me hard to “get a lawyer” while he and Thornton continue suppressing and obstructing, even admitting they know about felonies and perjury. The evidence is clear on audio and video, yet no one steps forward to correct it. My case has turned into a circus — and while they play games, my children suffer.

CPS Family Court was worse. Though the matter was dismissed, I learned my daughter Brynley had already tried to reach out back in March to stop the abuse coming from Teshia. Instead of being protected, the children were shuffled to a new counselor — handpicked by her divorce attorney, Crystal Jesse — a man openly disliked and distrusted even inside that courtroom. Which means when my children cry for help, their voices are locked away behind closed doors.

And the most crushing part? Teshia was told only to “slow down” when using a belt — not to stop. My kids are still being beaten every day. And because of fabricated charges against me, I can’t reach them. They know I’ve been to court three times to fight for them, and each time I walked out empty-handed. Children notice when authority breaks down. They notice when no one protects them. And you and I both know what happens inside kids that age — 10 and 12 — when that happens. They start to shut down. They break inside. Too often, they turn toward the darker side of life.

It’s already happening. Brynley has been pulled from activities after telling her friends what was going on at home. Gabriel won’t even talk to CPS anymore. He’s sad, quiet, and carrying more than any 10-year-old should.

Then came Divorce Court. I had hope something could change there. Instead, I was warned by my attorney that if I reported the abuse, my kids could end up in foster care. Sheriff, imagine hearing that. Imagine knowing your children are crying for help, being beaten and silenced, and then being told that if you speak out, they might be taken away forever. That’s a cruel trap for any father. I cried most of the eight-hour drive back to Ohio.

I was told Jimmy Dunn is now “involved.” Sheriff, I’ll be honest — I don’t trust him. The DA’s office, Deputy Smith, Deputy Magourik, Deputy Kress, and Teshia Black are at the root of all this.

My wife lied to all three deputies. When her lies didn’t match a witness’s statement, Deputy Smith created a new narrative that would stick and instructed her to get a Protection Order built on it — with no investigation, as was later admitted in court. The DA’s office even instructed your department not to release public records or take any statements from me. That’s not law enforcement, that’s cover-up.

On January 22, 2025 — the same day my federal lawsuit became public — I told the court flat out that witnesses lied under oath and I would prove it. Kear retaliated immediately, requesting an ankle monitor as punishment. Later, in circuit court on two separate hearings ADA Thornton stood up in open court not once, but twice, and admitted she knew about the perjury and felonies but would do nothing to correct it. And what about the Grand Jury? I’d bet everything I’ve lost that Kear and Teshia both lied and let perjury stand uncorrected — even when he had evidence in his hands.

Teshia has testified under oath in every forum possible: to deputies, in sworn police statements, on the Protection Order, in Sessions Court, in front of the Grand Jury, and in CPS Family Court. She’s changed her story at least five times. She even went back to her original lie from July 6, 2024 — the one Smith told her to leave out — and still denied in court ever saying it. It’s perjury after perjury, and yet she’s been rewarded with money, protection, and power.

She took those fraudulent documents to Social Security and changed my benefits. She now lives in luxury, collecting over $8,000 per month from what I earned, while I live on less than $1,200 and remain homeless. She knows the day we are divorced she loses everything, so she stretches this out with more lies and perjury, supported by the DA’s office.

And the deputies? Smith lies, ruins lives, commits perjury, and still walks proud. His behavior around my wife, her sister, and her friend made clear he was more interested in looking like a hero to lure them in than enforcing the law. Rumors say he has had sexual encounters in his patrol car while on duty. He's even accused fellow deputies of misconduct to cover himself — destroying a young deputy's career in the process. He is a predator, and Sheriff, you know as well as I do, predators only get worse when they're protected.

Magourik isn't clean either. I've uncovered ties to a well-known family drug dealer who lives across from him, and I've seen his bias against military veterans, likely because he was rejected by the military. On August 4, 2024, every bit of evidence — bodycam from seven deputies, warrants, reports — magically disappeared. That false arrest was orchestrated from the top, with a letter sent straight to Teshia from the DA's office.

Sheriff, I need you to hear this not as part of a system, but as a father. My children are breaking down while the DA's office and deputies hand out free passes to liars, predators, and abusers. My campaigns have already brought forward others who've been intimidated, falsely arrested, and silenced by this county. Too many stories to ignore.

You were the first to break the silence and offer me help. That told me you still have a conscience, that you're still a father who understands what's at stake. That's why I'm writing to you this way.

But, If you're telling me the two most powerful law enforcement officials in Cocke County can't do more than contact the TBI — then I have to ask you, man to man, father to father: How fast would you act if it were your children?

With respect,
Jeremy Black

Subject: Follow-Up on December 26 Email and Legal Concerns

Sheriff CJ Ball

I appreciate your acknowledgment of my complaints and your expressed intention to review the initial complaint, involve the TBI and FBI, and notify the county attorney. Transparency and accountability are crucial in addressing the serious matters I've raised, which include allegations of misconduct, constitutional violations, and procedural improprieties within your department.

However, despite your assurances in December, I have not received any updates, follow-ups, or resolutions concerning my allegations. For over six months, I have been unable to see or speak with my children due to the ongoing legal and procedural issues stemming from these allegations. I have sent numerous emails to your staff outlining my concerns, violations of laws, rules, and civil rights, and yet responses ceased after I highlighted these matters.

I remain steadfast in my pursuit of justice and resolution. My claims are backed by substantial evidence, which I am prepared to present. I have operated entirely within my constitutional rights and remain accountable for my actions. Should any of my allegations be unfounded or unsupported by evidence, I am willing to take full responsibility.

That said, I am also open to pretrial resolutions and negotiations to address these matters fairly and expediently. The goal has always been to seek justice and protect my rights, as well as the best interests of my children, who have been significantly impacted by this situation.

I respectfully request an update on the status of my complaints and investigations. When can I expect progress on the issues I've raised? If no progress has been made, I urge you to prioritize these matters promptly and ensure that my concerns are addressed thoroughly and without bias.

Everything I say is fully supported by evidence, meticulously documented, and firmly grounded within my constitutional rights. I have taken great care to ensure that every statement and claim I make is backed by verifiable facts, demonstrating the integrity of my position. If, at any point, it is shown that my actions or assertions are unfounded or outside the scope of my rights, I am fully prepared to take responsibility and be held accountable. However, I am confident in the strength and accuracy of the evidence that supports my case.

However, if you continue to deny, deflect, or conceal the truth, it will only strengthen the case against you and the CCSD.

Leadership requires integrity and accountability. Are you willing to demonstrate these qualities, or will you remain complicit in these actions?

I am sending this message as a gesture of transparency and to demonstrate my willingness to resolve this matter amicably. My intention is not to create unnecessary conflict but to ensure accountability and justice prevail. I believe that open communication and a commitment to the truth can lead to a resolution that benefits all parties involved, and I hope this message will encourage meaningful dialogue and action.

Sincerely,
Jeremy Black

Affidavit in Support of the Formal Complaint Against Multiple Parties

State of Tennessee

County of Cocke

I, Jeremy Black, being duly sworn, depose and state the following:

- Introduction and Personal Background
    - My name is Jeremy Black, residing at 4636 Indian Camp Creek Rd, Newport, TN 37721.
    - I am a 100% disabled U.S. Army combat veteran with a service history marked by discipline and commitment to justice and fairness.
- Purpose of the Affidavit
    - This affidavit is submitted to support formal complaints and charges against the following individuals:
        - Deputy Josh Smith for perjury, false reporting, conspiracy, and civil rights violations.
        - Lt. Zach Magourik for conspiracy, neglect of duty, excessive force, and constitutional violations.
        - Deputy Austin Kress for neglect of duty, conspiracy, and filing inaccurate reports.
        - Tammy Webb and Diane Parker for conspiracy, false reporting, and fabrication of evidence.
        - Teshia Black for perjury, intentional infliction of emotional distress, stalking, and parental alienation.
- Factual Basis of the Complaint
    - On July 6, 2024, I was wrongfully arrested following false allegations of domestic assault made by Teshia Black.
        - Video evidence from Deputy Smith’s body camera shows manipulation and coaching of statements by law enforcement officials and witnesses.

    - Tammy Webb and Diane Parker provided false statements, which contradicted other evidence, including bodycam footage and medical reports.
- On August 4, September 6, 2024, I was arrested again based on warrantless GPS tracking and fabricated allegations by the same parties.

- Evidence Submitted

    - Bodycam footage from July 6, 2024, and transcripts demonstrating contradictions in witness statements.
    - Police reports showing inaccuracies and deliberate omissions.
    - Witness testimonies and medical records highlighting the emotional and physical harm I endured.

- Legal Principles Supporting the Complaint

    - Aggravated Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-703): Multiple individuals made false statements under oath or in official reports.
    - False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502): Deputy Smith and others knowingly filed or endorsed false reports.
    - Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103): Evidence shows coordinated efforts to fabricate allegations and manipulate investigations.
    - Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Actions led to the deprivation of my constitutional rights, including my Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment protections.
    - Excessive Force (42 U.S.C. § 1983): Unnecessary physical harm during arrests, violating the Eighth Amendment.
    - Parental Alienation (Tennessee Code § 36-6-101): Teshia Black's actions resulted in separation from my children.

- Relief Requested

    - I request a full investigation into the actions of the individuals mentioned above.
    - Prosecution for the relevant charges, including perjury, conspiracy, and civil rights violations.
    - Accountability measures to prevent similar misconduct in the future.

- Conclusion
    - I declare under penalty of perjury that the facts stated in this affidavit are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
    - This affidavit is submitted with the expectation of transparency and adherence to justice by the Cocke County Sheriff's Department.

Detailed Brief on Teshia Black's Misconduct and Violations

1. Overview of Misconduct

Teshia Black's actions demonstrate a coordinated and deliberate effort to fabricate allegations, manipulate law enforcement, and violate civil and legal rights. Her misconduct includes providing false statements, conspiring with others to orchestrate wrongful arrests, engaging in stalking and warrantless GPS tracking, and attempting to alienate Jeremy Black from his children. These actions violate state and federal laws and infringe upon constitutional protections.

2. Specific Acts of Misconduct

A. Filing False Allegations

- Actions:
    - Teshia filed false claims of domestic assault and interference with a 911 call on July 6, 2024, despite contradictory evidence, including bodycam footage and witness statements.
    - She falsely accused Jeremy Black of pinning her and Daniel (their 17-year-old son) down on a bed, which was explicitly denied by Daniel on bodycam footage.
- Legal Violations:
    - Tennessee Code § 39-16-502: False reporting to law enforcement.
    - 18 U.S.C. § 1001: Making false statements to federal or local authorities.
    - Civil Rights Violations: Using fabricated allegations to deprive Jeremy Black of his liberty, violating the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.
- Precedents:

- Franks v. Delaware (1978): False statements by individuals leading to law enforcement actions violate due process protections.
- Napue v. Illinois (1959): False testimony and fabricated evidence undermine judicial integrity.

B. Stalking and Warrantless GPS Tracking

- Actions:
  - Teshia repeatedly used GPS tracking data without obtaining a warrant, violating privacy laws.
  - She provided Jeremy Black's location to law enforcement on August 4 and September 5, 2024, facilitating his wrongful arrests.
  - She engaged in consistent stalking behavior, both in-person (e.g., October 4 and October 7 incidents) and online (e.g., using TikTok and social media).
- Legal Violations:
  - Tennessee Code § 39-13-602: Stalking.
  - Carpenter v. United States (2018): Warrantless GPS tracking is unconstitutional.
  - 18 U.S.C. § 2261A: Federal stalking statute.
- Precedents:
  - Carpenter v. United States (2018): Establishes that location data requires a warrant due to Fourth Amendment protections.
  - Doe v. Medlin (1996): Addresses misuse of technology for stalking and privacy violations.

C. Conspiracy and Coordination

- Actions:

- Teshia conspired with Tammy Webb and Diane Parker to create a false narrative about Jeremy Black's behavior, as evidenced in coordinated statements captured on bodycam footage.
- Her involvement led to wrongful arrests, causing physical, emotional, and reputational harm to Jeremy Black.

- Legal Violations:

  - 18 U.S.C. § 241: Conspiracy to deprive constitutional rights.
  - Tennessee Code § 39-12-103: Criminal conspiracy.
  - 42 U.S.C. § 1985: Civil conspiracy to interfere with civil rights.

- Precedents:

  - Dennis v. Sparks (1980): Conspiracy between private individuals and state actors violates constitutional protections.
  - United States v. Price (1966): Conspiracy to violate civil rights is actionable under federal law.

D. Parental Alienation

- Actions:

  - Teshia actively sought to alienate Jeremy Black from his children by:
    - Denying him communication or visitation.
    - Encouraging false narratives to influence law enforcement and judicial outcomes.
    - Misusing legal orders of protection to restrict parental rights.

- Legal Violations:

  - Tennessee Code § 36-6-101: Custodial interference.
  - Troxel v. Granville (2000): Protects parental rights as a fundamental liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment.
  - 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

- Precedents:
    - Troxel v. Granville (2000): Parental rights are fundamental and protected under the Constitution.
    - Elrod v. Burns (1976): Government interference in familial relationships must meet strict scrutiny standards.

E. Emotional and Physical Harm

- Actions:
    - Her false allegations and actions caused emotional distress and physical harm to Jeremy Black, including injuries sustained during his wrongful arrest.
    - She failed to consider the emotional toll on their children, who were exposed to these fabricated disputes.
- Legal Violations:
    - Tennessee Code § 29-24-102: Intentional infliction of emotional distress.
    - 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.
    - Brady v. Maryland (1963): Suppression of exculpatory evidence leading to wrongful harm.
- Precedents:
    - Graham v. Connor (1989): Physical harm resulting from unlawful actions is a constitutional violation.
    - Estelle v. Gamble (1976): Failure to address known harms violates Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment protections.

3. Training or Knowledge Expected of Teshia

While not a public official, Teshia had a responsibility to act truthfully and in the best interest of her children. Her deliberate actions demonstrate malicious intent and a disregard for the law.

4. Broader Implications

Teshia's actions, compounded by the complicity of others, represent a breakdown in legal accountability. Her misconduct has caused harm to Jeremy Black's life and violated numerous state and federal laws, warranting legal accountability and civil remedies.

5. Conclusion

Teshia Black's misconduct and violations are well-documented, supported by substantial evidence, and actionable under both state and federal laws. These actions justify her inclusion as a defendant in ongoing civil litigation and potential criminal investigations. The court and relevant authorities should hold her accountable to restore justice and address the harm caused.

SUBJECT: Formal Request to Press Criminal Charges Against Teshia [Last Name]

DATE: January 23, 2025

FORMAL COMPLAINT AND REQUEST TO PRESS CHARGES

TO: Cocke County Sheriff's Department

RE: Teshia Black – Alleged Criminal Misconduct, False Accusations, Perjury, and Civil Rights Violations

I. INTRODUCTION

I, Jeremy Black, respectfully submit this formal complaint to request the initiation of criminal charges against Teshia Black for her documented pattern of criminal behavior, including perjury, false reporting, defamation, and intentional infliction of emotional distress. This complaint is based on verifiable evidence, including video transcripts, sworn statements, and other corroborative materials, which highlight a deliberate and calculated effort to harm me legally, emotionally, and financially.

II. CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS BY TESHIA

- Aggravated Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-703)
    - Teshia knowingly made false statements under oath in official proceedings and reports.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Statements to Deputy Josh Smith, claiming I "pinned Daniel down" multiple times, were directly contradicted by video evidence and Daniel's own statements.
        - Fabricated claims in police reports and court testimony that lacked corroborating evidence.
- False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502)
    - Teshia knowingly provided false information to law enforcement, initiating baseless criminal proceedings against me.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Claims that I committed child abuse and domestic violence were unsupported by physical evidence or credible witness testimony.
        - Her allegations shifted multiple times in both her verbal and written statements.
- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)
    - Teshia’s false allegations and ongoing manipulation caused severe emotional and psychological harm.
    - Key Evidence:

        - Her repeated use of false allegations in March 2022 and July 2024 to alienate me from my children.
        - Public and private statements that defamed my character and caused emotional distress.

- Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

    - Teshia's false statements led to the violation of my constitutional rights, including unlawful arrests and restrictions on my parental rights.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Her actions directly led to law enforcement detaining me without probable cause.

- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

    - Teshia acted in concert with others, including Tammy Webb and Diane Parker, to fabricate allegations against me.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Coordinated efforts captured in bodycam footage showing discussions among the parties to align their narratives.

- Defamation (Libel and Slander)

    - Teshia made false and damaging statements about me, harming my reputation and relationships.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Claims in police reports and public statements that portrayed me as violent and abusive.

- Stalking (Tennessee Code § 39-17-315)

    - Teshia's pattern of harassment and attempts to monitor my activities constitute stalking.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Documentation of her repeated actions to monitor and control my interactions with others.

III. LEGAL PRECEDENTS

- Aggravated Perjury and False Reporting
    - State v. Smith (Tenn. App. 2015): Establishes that knowingly providing false statements under oath constitutes perjury.
    - Napue v. Illinois (1959): Holds that falsehoods by state actors violate due process.
- Civil Rights Violations
    - Monroe v. Pape (1961): Protects against state actors depriving individuals of constitutional rights.
- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress
    - Rogers v. Louisville Land Co. (Tenn. 2006): Defines actionable emotional distress claims under Tennessee law.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request the following actions:

- Press Criminal Charges:
    - Initiate a formal investigation into Teshia's actions and pursue charges under Tennessee and federal law.
- Independent Review:
    - Review all evidence, including video transcripts, police reports, and statements, to identify patterns of misconduct.
- Restraining Orders:

- Consider issuing restraining orders to prevent further harassment or false allegations.

V. CONCLUSION

This request is supported by substantial evidence, including bodycam footage, police reports, and witness statements, which establish a pattern of misconduct and violations of my constitutional rights. As a victim of these actions, I demand accountability under the law and immediate corrective action to address these issues.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeremy Black

Document: Analysis of Deputy Josh Smith's Illegal Actions and Violations of Law and Civil Rights (Including Perjury)

Introduction

This document outlines the illegal actions, civil rights violations, and instances of perjury committed by Deputy Josh Smith in connection with the investigation and arrest of Jeremy Black on July 6, 2024. Deputy Smith relied on false statements, ignored exculpatory evidence, and included misleading information in official documents, such as the police report and warrant application, to justify an arrest without probable cause. His actions violated state and federal laws, as well as constitutional protections.

Key Illegal Actions and Violations by Deputy Josh Smith

1. Filing a False and Misleading Police Report (Perjury)

- Misrepresentation in Police Report:
    - Deputy Smith knowingly omitted exculpatory evidence, including:
        - Daniel's statements on bodycam: "He wasn't yelling… He didn't push me down."
        - Lack of medical evidence supporting claims of physical violence (e.g., choking, hitting).
        - Contradictions in witness statements from Tammy and Teshia.
    - He included false claims from Teshia and Tammy without corroboration, such as:
        - Allegation: Jeremy choked Teshia and held her and Daniel down, despite Daniel denying this on bodycam.

- Violation:
    - Filing a knowingly false police report constitutes perjury under Tennessee Code § 39-16-702 (False statements under oath).
    - Misrepresenting facts in an affidavit for a warrant violates Tennessee Code § 39-16-703 (Aggravated perjury).
- Precedents:
    - Franks v. Delaware (1978): An arrest warrant based on false or misleading statements violates the Fourth Amendment.
    - Brady v. Maryland (1963): Suppression or omission of exculpatory evidence is a violation of due process.
    - Napue v. Illinois (1959): Knowingly presenting false statements undermines the integrity of judicial proceedings.

2. Excluding Exculpatory Evidence from Warrant Application

- Misconduct:
    - Deputy Smith omitted critical evidence contradicting the claims in the warrant, including:
        - Daniel's direct denial of the allegations.
        - Absence of corroborative physical evidence.
        - Tammy and Teshia's inconsistent statements on bodycam.
    - By excluding this evidence, Smith created a false narrative to justify Jeremy's arrest.
- Violation:
    - Misleading a magistrate by withholding exculpatory evidence constitutes perjury and violates due process rights.
    - Relevant statutes:
        - Tennessee Code § 39-16-703: Aggravated perjury for omitting critical evidence.

        - 42 U.S.C. § 1983: Filing a warrant with false information constitutes a violation of constitutional rights.

- Precedents:

    - Whiteley v. Warden (1971): An arrest warrant based on false or misleading information violates the Fourth Amendment.
    - Malley v. Briggs (1986): Officers who apply for warrants without probable cause are not protected by qualified immunity.
    - Groh v. Ramirez (2004): A warrant that lacks factual accuracy or completeness is unconstitutional.

3. Suppressing Exculpatory Evidence

- Examples:

    - Deputy Smith disregarded Daniel's bodycam statements, which directly contradicted the claims made by Tammy and Teshia.
    - He ignored the absence of physical evidence supporting allegations of choking or holding anyone down.
    - He failed to investigate the credibility of Tammy and Teshia's statements, despite contradictions and a lack of independent witnesses.

- Violation:

    - Suppressing evidence favorable to the accused violates:
        - The Brady Rule, established in Brady v. Maryland (1963).
        - The Fourteenth Amendment's Due Process Clause.

- Precedents:

    - Youngblood v. West Virginia (2006): Suppression of evidence favorable to the defense violates due process.
    - Kyles v. Whitley (1995): Prosecutors and law enforcement must disclose all evidence that could exonerate the defendant.
    - Giglio v. United States (1972): Failure to disclose information undermining the credibility of key witnesses is unconstitutional.

4. Proceeding with Arrest Based on False Statements

- Actions:
    - Deputy Smith relied solely on the false claims of Tammy and Teshia, ignoring:
        - Contradictory evidence from Daniel.
        - Lack of medical or forensic evidence.
        - Absence of corroboration from independent witnesses.
    - He coerced and coached witnesses, including Teshia, to align their statements with the false allegations.
- Violation:
    - Arresting someone without probable cause violates:
        - The Fourth Amendment's Protection Against Unreasonable Seizures.
        - Tennessee Code § 39-16-402: Abuse of public office by using official authority to wrongfully arrest someone.
    - Federal civil rights violations:
        - 42 U.S.C. § 1983: Violating constitutional rights under color of law.
- Precedents:
    - Beck v. Ohio (1964): Arrests without probable cause are unconstitutional.
    - Albright v. Oliver (1994): Law enforcement must have sufficient evidence to justify prosecution.
    - Wilson v. Layne (1999): Officers must act within the boundaries of constitutional rights.

5. Conspiracy to Violate Civil Rights

- Actions:
    - Deputy Smith's reliance on fabricated statements, coaching of witnesses, and suppression of exculpatory evidence demonstrates a conspiracy with Tammy and Teshia to deprive Jeremy Black of his constitutional rights.
    - This conspiracy extended to other officials in the Cocke County Sheriff's Department, including Lt. Magourik and potentially Assistant Sheriff Chuck Evans.

- Violation:
    - Conspiring to violate constitutional rights violates 18 U.S.C. § 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights).
    - Acting in concert with others to suppress evidence and manufacture charges violates 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

- Precedents:
    - Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co. (1970): Conspiracy between state actors and private individuals to violate rights is actionable.
    - Monroe v. Pape (1961): Government officials acting under color of law who violate constitutional rights can be held liable.
    - Dennis v. Sparks (1980): Private individuals and officials conspiring to violate rights can both be held liable.

Conclusion

Deputy Josh Smith's actions—including filing a false police report, suppressing exculpatory evidence, and proceeding with an arrest based on fabricated claims—constitute perjury, abuse of power, and violations of constitutional rights. His conduct aligns with a broader conspiracy involving other officials and private individuals, necessitating accountability through legal remedies and potential criminal charges.

RE: Deputy Josh Smith – Alleged Criminal Misconduct, Civil Rights Violations, and Fabrication of Evidence

I. INTRODUCTION

My name is Jeremy Black, a resident of Newport, Tennessee, and a 100% disabled U.S. Army combat veteran. This formal request is submitted to your office to press criminal charges against Deputy Josh Smith based on documented evidence of perjury, false reporting, deprivation of rights, civil rights violations under federal law, and multiple instances of unethical and unlawful conduct related to his handling of the incidents on July 6, 2024, and subsequent legal actions.

II. CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS BY DEPUTY JOSH SMITH

- Aggravated Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-703)
    - Deputy Smith made knowingly false statements under oath in police reports and during official proceedings.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Bodycam footage where Deputy Smith fabricated and coached narratives, including advising Teshia Black to omit conflicting details regarding her allegations.
        - False statements documented in police reports that were materially inconsistent with video evidence.

- False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502)
    - Smith provided false information in his reports, claiming incidents that were contradicted by Daniel's and other witnesses' statements.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Smith asserted in his report that I "pinned Daniel down," which Daniel initially denied during the bodycam recording.
        - His narrative shifted to support fabricated allegations after influencing witness testimony.

- Deprivation of Medical Care (42 U.S.C. § 1983)
    - Despite visible injuries, including scratches and blood on my face noted by witnesses, Deputy Smith failed to provide or offer medical attention.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Bodycam footage showing my visible injuries and reports confirming no medical care was offered.

- Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983)
    - Deputy Smith violated my constitutional rights by fabricating evidence and making false allegations, depriving me of due process.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Misuse of authority to coerce statements, manipulate evidence, and pursue baseless charges.
- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)
    - Deputy Smith collaborated with others, including Lt. Magourik and civilian witnesses, to support fabricated claims against me.
    - Key Evidence:
        - Coordinated efforts with Teshia, Tammy Webb, and Diane Parker, as evidenced by bodycam conversations and inconsistencies across statements.

III. LEGAL PRECEDENTS

- Aggravated Perjury and False Reporting
    - State v. Smith (Tenn. App. 2015): Establishes that knowingly providing false statements under oath constitutes perjury.
    - Napue v. Illinois (1959): Holds that state actors' deliberate falsehoods violate due process.
- Deprivation of Medical Care
    - Estelle v. Gamble (1976): Establishes that detainees are entitled to medical care while in custody.

- Civil Rights Violations
    - Monroe v. Pape (1961): Protects against abuses by officials under the color of law.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request the following actions:

- Press Criminal Charges:
    - Initiate a formal investigation into Deputy Josh Smith's actions and pursue criminal charges under Tennessee and federal law.
- Independent Review:
    - Conduct a review of bodycam footage, reports, and all statements to identify patterns of misconduct.
- Transparency:
    - Ensure that all findings are shared with relevant oversight bodies, including the FBI and TBI, to protect public confidence in law enforcement integrity.
- Immediate Suspension:
    - Suspend Deputy Smith from active duty pending the outcome of this investigation.

V. CONCLUSION

This request is supported by substantial evidence, including bodycam footage, police reports, and witness statements, which establish a pattern of misconduct and violations of my constitutional rights. As a victim of this misconduct, I demand accountability under the law and immediate corrective action to address these systemic issues within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeremy Black

Detailed Brief on Tammy Webb's Misconduct and Violations

Introduction This brief outlines the misconduct and legal violations committed by Tammy Webb in her role during the events surrounding the allegations against Jeremy Black. Her actions include fabricating statements, conspiring with others to harm Jeremy Black's reputation and legal standing, stalking, and providing false information to law enforcement. Tammy Webb's misconduct has had severe emotional, legal, and familial repercussions for Jeremy Black and his children.

1. Misconduct in Providing False Statements

Fabrication of Statements to Law Enforcement

- Tammy Webb falsely claimed that Jeremy Black choked Teshia Black and held both Teshia and Daniel down. These statements were later contradicted by Daniel, who explicitly stated that Jeremy did not hold him down or engage in the behavior alleged.
- Tammy's false statements were presented to law enforcement as factual despite her not witnessing the alleged events firsthand, violating Tennessee Code § 39-16-502 (False Reporting).

Impact:

- Her fabricated statements contributed to the wrongful arrest and prosecution of Jeremy Black, leading to violations of his Fourth Amendment rights (protection from unlawful seizure) and Fourteenth Amendment rights (due process).

Relevant Precedents:

- Brady v. Maryland (1963) – Failure to present truthful and exculpatory evidence violates due process rights.
- Napue v. Illinois (1959) – Providing false testimony or statements undermines the integrity of the judicial process.
- Albright v. Oliver (1994) – Wrongful accusations and arrests without probable cause constitute a violation of constitutional rights.

2. Conspiracy to Commit Harm

Coordination with Teshia Black and Diane Parker

- Tammy Webb actively conspired with Teshia Black and Diane Parker to create a narrative that falsely implicated Jeremy Black in criminal activity.
- Evidence from bodycam footage shows Tammy reiterating fabricated allegations, aligning her statements with Teshia's false narrative.
- Conspiracy is a violation under Tennessee Code § 39-12-103 (Conspiracy) and 18 U.S.C. § 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights).

Impact:

- Tammy's coordinated actions aimed to deprive Jeremy Black of his constitutional rights, including fair treatment under the law and access to his children.
- Her participation in the conspiracy undermined the legal process and enabled the harassment and alienation of Jeremy Black from his family.

Relevant Precedents:

- Dennis v. Sparks (1980) – Private individuals conspiring with public officials can be held liable under civil rights laws.
- Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co. (1970) – Conspiracies involving state actors and private individuals violate constitutional protections.
- United States v. Price (1966) – Conspiracy to violate constitutional rights is actionable under federal law.

3. Stalking and Harassment

Use of GPS Data to Track Jeremy Black

- Tammy participated in stalking activities, including using GPS data provided by Teshia Black to track Jeremy's location on August 4 and September 5, 2024.
- These actions violate federal and state privacy laws, including 18 U.S.C. § 1030

(Computer Fraud and Abuse Act) and Tennessee privacy statutes.

Social Media Harassment

- Tammy participated in or encouraged harassment on platforms like TikTok.

Impact:

- These actions created a hostile and unsafe environment for Jeremy Black, furthering emotional and psychological harm while obstructing justice.

Relevant Precedents:

- Katz v. United States (1967) – Protects individuals from unauthorized tracking and surveillance without a warrant.
- Carpenter v. United States (2018) – Warrantless access to location data violates the Fourth Amendment.
- United States v. Jones (2012) – GPS tracking without a warrant constitutes an unconstitutional search.

4. Emotional and Familial Harm

Alienation of Jeremy Black from His Children

- Tammy's actions, including false statements and conspiracy, contributed directly to Jeremy's separation from his children for over six months.
- The alienation caused severe emotional harm to Jeremy and his children, violating his substantive due process rights under the Fourteenth Amendment and Tennessee laws protecting parental rights.

Relevant Precedents:

- Troxel v. Granville (2000) – Protects parents' fundamental rights to maintain relationships with their children.
- Santosky v. Kramer (1982) – Parents are entitled to due process before their parental rights are infringed.
- Doe v. Heck (2003) – Government actors and conspirators cannot interfere with a parent's relationship with their children without proper cause.

5. Perjury and Obstruction of Justice

False Statements in Written Reports

- Tammy provided statements that omitted exculpatory evidence, such as Daniel's denial of being held down, violating Tennessee Code § 39-16-702 (Perjury).

Obstruction of Justice

- By fabricating evidence and participating in a conspiracy, Tammy obstructed the legal process, delaying justice for Jeremy Black.

Relevant Precedents:

- United States v. Aguilar (1995) – Obstructing justice by providing false or misleading statements is actionable.
- United States v. Dunnigan (1993) – Perjury undermines the integrity of the judicial process.
- Hickman v. Taylor (1947) – Parties involved in obstruction through false statements or destruction of evidence violate legal standards.

Conclusion

Tammy Webb's actions—including false reporting, conspiracy, stalking, harassment, and obstruction of justice—have caused substantial harm to Jeremy Black. Her misconduct violates federal and state laws, constitutional protections, and ethical standards. Accountability is essential to restoring justice and addressing the damages caused by her malicious actions.

SUBJECT: Complaint Against Tammy Webb for False Statements, Conspiracy, and Other Related Offenses

DATE: January 23, 2025

INTRODUCTION

I, Jeremy Black, respectfully submit this formal complaint against Tammy Webb for her involvement in providing false statements under oath, engaging in conspiracy with others, and perpetuating fabricated allegations against me. Tammy Webb's contradictory statements and corroboration of false narratives demonstrate a deliberate intent to harm my reputation, support fabricated charges, and undermine the judicial process.

ALLEGATIONS AGAINST TAMMY WEBB

- False Statements Under Oath

    - On the stand, Tammy Webb falsely claimed that she was called after the incident on July 6, 2024.
    - Bodycam footage, however, reveals that Tammy and Teshia stated that Tammy was called before the alleged incident because Teshia claimed she "knew something was going to happen."
    - This contradiction demonstrates a deliberate attempt to manipulate the timeline of events to support fabricated allegations against me.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Transcript: Statements from Tammy Webb and Teshia confirming that Tammy was called before the incident.
- Court Testimony: Tammy's statement that she was called after the incident directly contradicts prior recorded evidence.

Precedents Supporting False Statement Claims:

- Bronston v. United States, 409 U.S. 352 (1973): False or misleading statements made under oath constitute perjury.
- State v. Smith, 436 S.W.3d 751 (Tenn. 2014): Providing false testimony undermines the integrity of judicial proceedings and is actionable under state law.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-702: False statements under oath constitute perjury, a prosecutable offense.

- Conspiracy to Provide False Statements

    - Tammy Webb conspired with Teshia to fabricate allegations against me, as evidenced by their coordinated narratives captured on video.
    - Bodycam footage reveals that Tammy and Teshia discussed details of the alleged incident, altering the narrative to align with their fabricated claims.
    - Tammy's involvement in supporting these false narratives demonstrates her active participation in a conspiracy to harm me.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Footage: Conversations between Tammy and Teshia about the alleged incident, including alterations to their stories.
- Inconsistent Testimony: Tammy's claims on the stand directly contradict prior recorded evidence.

Precedents Supporting Conspiracy Claims:

- Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144 (1970): Conspiracy to violate rights involves collaboration between parties to deprive constitutional protections.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Participation in a conspiracy that leads to harm is actionable under both state and federal laws.
- Tennessee Code § 39-12-103: Conspiracy occurs when two or more persons agree to engage in conduct that constitutes a criminal offense.

- Fabrication of Evidence

  - Tammy Webb knowingly supported fabricated allegations, including claims of domestic violence and child abuse, despite the lack of corroborating evidence.
  - Tammy's statements on the bodycam and her testimony reflect her willingness to alter facts to align with Teshia's narrative.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Transcript: Statements from Tammy Webb confirming her involvement in discussing and supporting Teshia's false claims.
- Medical and Incident Reports: Evidence demonstrating inconsistencies and lack of corroboration for Tammy's claims.

Precedents Supporting Fabrication Claims:

- Miller v. Pate, 386 U.S. 1 (1967): Fabrication of evidence constitutes a violation of due process.
- Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959): Knowingly presenting false information or evidence undermines the fairness of judicial proceedings.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-503: Tampering with or fabricating evidence is a criminal offense.

- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

    - Tammy Webb's participation in fabricating allegations and providing false testimony has caused significant emotional distress and harm to my reputation.
    - Her actions, in coordination with others, demonstrate a reckless disregard for the truth and the impact on my well-being.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Footage and Transcript: Evidence of Tammy's involvement in perpetuating false narratives.
- Court Testimony: Tammy's false claims and contradictions under oath.

Precedents Supporting IIED Claims:

- Hustler Magazine, Inc. v. Falwell, 485 U.S. 46 (1988): Intentional conduct causing severe emotional distress is actionable.
- Rogers v. Louisville Land Co., 367 S.W.3d 196 (Tenn. 2012): IIED claims require evidence of extreme and outrageous conduct causing severe emotional distress.
- Tennessee Code § 29-39-104: Provides remedies for emotional distress caused by intentional actions.

SUMMARY OF CHARGES

Based on the evidence provided, the following charges are warranted against Tammy Webb:

- Perjury (Tennessee Code § 39-16-702)
- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)
- Fabrication of Evidence (Tennessee Code § 39-16-503)
- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request that the Cocke County Sheriff's Department:

- Conduct a full investigation into Tammy Webb's actions on July 6, 2024, including her false statements under oath and involvement in fabricating evidence.
- Pursue criminal charges based on the evidence provided.
- Ensure transparency and accountability in handling this complaint.

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED

- Bodycam Footage and Transcript (July 6, 2024): Documenting Tammy Webb's statements and contradictions.
- Incident Reports: Demonstrating inconsistencies in Tammy's claims.
- Medical Records and Supporting Evidence: Undermining the credibility of the fabricated allegations.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeremy Black

Detailed Brief on Lt. Zach Magourik's Misconduct and Violations

This brief outlines the key areas of misconduct and legal violations committed by Lt. Zach Magourik, highlighting his role in wrongful arrests, neglect of duty, and potential civil rights violations. The actions (or inactions) detailed herein demonstrate a pattern of abuse of authority, disregard for legal obligations, and failure to uphold the principles of justice.

1. Failure to Comply with Subpoena

- Incident: Lt. Zach Magourik failed to appear in court after being served a valid subpoena.
- Legal Obligation: Under state and federal law, individuals served with subpoenas are legally required to appear in court unless excused by the issuing court.
- Violation:
    - Tennessee Code § 29-9-108: Failure to comply with a subpoena constitutes contempt of court.
    - Civil Rights Violation: Failing to provide testimony obstructs due process and denies the plaintiff access to justice.
- Impact:
    - Undermined the integrity of judicial proceedings.
- Precedent: International Union, United Mine Workers v. Bagwell (1994) established the importance of enforcing contempt in cases of subpoena non-compliance.

2. Involvement in Warrantless Arrests

- Incidents:
    - August 4, 2024: Magourik led a team of deputies in arresting Jeremy Black without a valid warrant.
- Legal Obligations:
    - Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution: Protects against unreasonable searches and seizures.

    - Tennessee Code § 40-7-103: Requires valid warrants or probable cause for arrests.
- Violations:
    - Conducted arrests without verifying the validity of warrants or ensuring probable cause.
    - Failed to provide necessary medical care during detention, violating ethical and legal standards.
- Impact:
    - Caused physical harm and emotional distress to the plaintiff.
    - Violated constitutional rights, opening the department to civil liability.
- Precedent: Graham v. Connor (1989) emphasizes the need for reasonable force and actions during arrests.

3. Use of Unauthorized GPS Tracking

- Incident: Magourik's team used GPS tracking data provided by a private individual (Teshia Black) without obtaining a warrant.
- Legal Standard:
    - Carpenter v. United States (2018): The Supreme Court held that accessing location data requires a warrant.
    - Tennessee Code § 39-13-601: Prohibits the use of tracking devices without proper authorization.
- Violation:
    - Conducted warrantless GPS tracking in direct violation of federal and state privacy laws.
    - Demonstrated disregard for established legal protections.
- Impact:
    - Invaded the plaintiff's privacy and subjected him to unlawful surveillance.
    - Compromised the legitimacy of law enforcement actions.
- Precedent: United States v. Jones (2012) ruled that warrantless tracking is unconstitutional.

4. Neglect of Duty

- Incident: Magourik failed to investigate or address complaints of misconduct within the department, despite being in a position of authority.
- Legal Obligation: As a law enforcement officer and leader, Magourik is required to ensure ethical conduct and adherence to laws by subordinates.
- Violation:
    - Neglected to address known instances of misconduct, such as Deputy Josh Smith's fabrication of evidence and coaching of witnesses.
    - Failed to uphold internal accountability standards, as required under Tennessee Code § 8-8-201.
- Impact:
    - Fostered a culture of impunity within the department.
    - Allowed violations of civil rights to continue unchecked.
- Precedent: Monell v. Department of Social Services (1978) established that government entities and their officers can be held liable for failing to address patterns of misconduct.

5. Failure to Provide Medical Care

- Incident: After the August 4 arrest, Magourik neglected to address the plaintiff's evident injuries (shoulder, elbow, and wrist) and denied medical care during detention.
- Legal Obligation:
    - Estelle v. Gamble (1976): Law enforcement must provide medical care to individuals in custody.
    - Tennessee Code § 41-4-115: Requires appropriate medical attention for detainees.
- Violation:
    - Ignored visible injuries and pain, resulting in prolonged suffering for the plaintiff.
    - Violated the Eighth Amendment's prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment.
- Impact:
    - Exacerbated the plaintiff's injuries, leading to further medical complications.
    - Demonstrated a callous disregard for human dignity.
- Precedent: Farmer v. Brennan (1994) held that deliberate indifference to medical needs violates constitutional protections.

6. Conspiracy to Suppress Evidence

- Incident: Magourik colluded with other officers and administrative staff to suppress bodycam footage, evidence of misconduct, and records related to the plaintiff's arrests.
- Legal Obligation:
    - Brady v. Maryland (1963): Prosecutors and law enforcement must disclose exculpatory evidence.
    - 18 U.S.C. § 241: Criminalizes conspiracies to deprive individuals of constitutional rights.
- Violation:
    - Participated in a coordinated effort to withhold evidence critical to the plaintiff's defense and civil case.
    - Enabled a culture of dishonesty within the department.
- Impact:
    - Obstructed justice and prevented the plaintiff from receiving a fair trial.
    - Undermined public trust in law enforcement.
- Precedent: Napue v. Illinois (1959) established that suppression of evidence favorable to the defense is unconstitutional.

Conclusion

Lt. Zach Magourik's actions and inactions constitute severe violations of federal and state laws, including constitutional protections, ethical standards, and his sworn duties as a law enforcement officer. His misconduct has caused significant harm to the plaintiff, violated public trust, and exposed the department to legal liability. The aforementioned incidents demonstrate a pattern of abuse of power, neglect of duty, and disregard for the principles of justice.

SUBJECT: Complaint Against Lt. Zach Magourik for Misconduct, False Arrests, Excessive Force, Conspiracy, and Constitutional Violations

DATE: January 23, 2025

INTRODUCTION

I, Jeremy Black, respectfully submit this formal complaint against Lt. Zach Magourik of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department for his involvement in actions that constitute misconduct, violations of constitutional rights, and other serious offenses stemming from the events on July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024. Evidence demonstrates that Lt. Magourik was not merely an observer, as he claimed on the stand, but an active participant in decisions that led to unlawful actions, including false arrests, excessive force, and deliberate disregard for procedural and ethical obligations.

ALLEGATIONS AGAINST LT. ZACH MAGOURIK

- False Arrest and Fabricated Charges (July 6, 2024)
    - On July 6, 2024, Lt. Magourik directed Deputy Josh Smith to file false charges against me, despite there being no probable cause or credible evidence to support the allegations.
    - Bodycam footage and testimony reveal that Lt. Magourik was not merely an observer but actively instructed Deputy Smith to arrest me and charge me with domestic assault and interference with an emergency call.
    - Lt. Magourik's role in influencing Deputy Smith undermines his claims of impartiality and demonstrates his involvement in fabricating charges.

Precedents Supporting False Arrest Claims:

- Beck v. Ohio, 379 U.S. 89 (1964): Arrests without probable cause violate the Fourth Amendment.
- Manuel v. City of Joliet, 580 U.S. 357 (2017): Fabrication of evidence to support charges constitutes a constitutional violation.
- Malley v. Briggs, 475 U.S. 335 (1986): Officials are liable for arrests based on deficient probable cause.

- Excessive Force (August 4, 2024)
    - During the August 4, 2024, arrest, Lt. Magourik supervised and approved the use of excessive force when I was forcibly restrained by six deputies under his authority.
    - The physical injuries I sustained during this incident—severe damage to my shoulder, elbow, and wrist—required multiple surgeries and resulted in long-term physical pain and disability.
    - Despite knowing about my injuries and my PTSD, which are documented disabilities under the ADA, Lt. Magourik failed to ensure reasonable accommodations and instead approved actions that exacerbated my conditions.

Precedents Supporting Excessive Force Claims:

- Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386 (1989): Excessive force claims are analyzed under the Fourth Amendment's "objective reasonableness" standard.

- Kingsley v. Hendrickson, 576 U.S. 389 (2015): Use of force must be proportional to the situation and avoid unnecessary harm.
- Tennessee v. Garner, 471 U.S. 1 (1985): Law enforcement cannot use force that is excessive in relation to the threat posed by the individual.

- Conspiracy to Violate Civil Rights (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

    - Lt. Magourik participated in a coordinated effort with other members of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department, including Deputy Josh Smith, to target me based on false allegations.
    - Evidence, including bodycam footage, reveals discussions and decisions that demonstrate a collective intent to deprive me of my rights through false arrests, fabricated charges, and suppression of evidence.
    - His actions directly contributed to violations of my Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendment rights.

Precedents Supporting Conspiracy Claims:

- Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144 (1970): Conspiracy to violate civil rights involves collaboration between officials to deprive constitutional protections.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Officials acting under color of state law in a conspiracy are liable for constitutional violations.
- Ziglar v. Abbasi, 582 U.S. ___ (2017): Collective actions by officials that result in rights deprivations can be actionable under civil rights laws.

- Failure to Provide Medical Care (July 6, 2024)

    - Despite visible injuries, including a bleeding face and evidence of physical trauma, Lt. Magourik failed to ensure I was offered medical care, violating my Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
    - Bodycam footage includes statements from Tammy Webb acknowledging my injuries ("He has a big ole place on his face"), yet no action was taken to address them.

Precedents Supporting Denial of Medical Care Claims:

- Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976): Failure to provide medical care to detainees constitutes cruel and unusual punishment.

    - Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S. 825 (1994): Deliberate indifference to medical needs violates constitutional protections.
    - City of Revere v. Massachusetts General Hospital, 463 U.S. 239 (1983): Detainees are entitled to medical care for injuries sustained during arrest.

- Perjury and Misrepresentation in Testimony

    - On the stand, Lt. Magourik falsely claimed he was merely an observer during the July 6, 2024, incident, despite evidence proving his direct involvement in directing charges and arrest decisions.
    - His misrepresentation under oath constitutes perjury under Tennessee Code § 39-16-702.

Precedents Supporting Perjury Claims:

- Bronston v. United States, 409 U.S. 352 (1973): False statements made under oath with intent to mislead constitute perjury.
- State v. Smith, 436 S.W.3d 751 (Tenn. 2014): Perjury undermines the integrity of judicial proceedings and is actionable.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-703: Aggravated perjury occurs when false statements under oath materially affect the proceedings.

SUMMARY OF CHARGES

Based on the evidence provided, the following charges are warranted against Lt. Zach Magourik:

- False Arrest
- Excessive Force
- Conspiracy to Violate Civil Rights
- Failure to Provide Medical Care
- Perjury

RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request that the Cocke County Sheriff's Department:

- Conduct a full internal investigation into Lt. Magourik's actions on July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024.
- Forward evidence of criminal misconduct to the appropriate prosecutorial authority.
- Impose disciplinary measures, including suspension or termination, pending the outcome of investigations.
- Ensure all relevant bodycam footage and reports are preserved for review.

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED

- Bodycam footage from July 6, 2024.
- Arrest records and incident reports for July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024.
- Medical records documenting injuries sustained during arrests.
- Witness statements highlighting Lt. Magourik's directives and actions.

Respectfully Submitted,

SUBJECT: Complaint Against Deputy Austin Kress for False Reporting, Neglect of Duty, and Conspiracy

DATE: January 23, 2025

INTRODUCTION

I, Jeremy Black, respectfully submit this formal complaint against Deputy Austin Kress for his role in the preparation and submission of false reports, failure to act impartially, and involvement in a conspiracy to support fabricated charges against me. Deputy Kress's actions, including his claim of being an "observer," directly conflict with the evidence, as his name appears on official reports containing Deputy Josh Smith's fabricated statements.

ALLEGATIONS AGAINST DEPUTY AUSTIN KRESS

- False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502)

    - Deputy Kress filed official reports that included Deputy Josh Smith's false narrative of the events on July 6, 2024, despite knowing the inaccuracies.
    - His name appears as the reporting officer, thereby endorsing the false statements made by Smith, including fabricated claims of child abuse and domestic violence.
    - The official report directly contradicts bodycam footage, which reveals significant inconsistencies in the statements provided by Teshia Black, Tammy Webb, and Diane Parker.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Footage and Transcript: Contradicts the claims made in the official reports filed under Kress's name.
- Court Testimony: Statements from Kress claiming he was merely an "observer," despite his active role in filing the report.

Precedents Supporting False Reporting Claims:

- State v. Merriman, 410 S.W.3d 779 (Tenn. 2013): Law enforcement officers are obligated to provide accurate and truthful information in official reports.
- Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959): Knowingly submitting false information undermines the integrity of judicial proceedings.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-502: False reporting is a prosecutable offense under state law.

- Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

    - As a law enforcement officer, Deputy Kress had a duty to ensure that all information in the reports he filed or endorsed was accurate and truthful.
    - By failing to challenge or correct Deputy Josh Smith's false narrative, Kress neglected his duty to act impartially and uphold the law.
    - His inaction allowed the perpetuation of false charges, leading to my wrongful arrest and subsequent emotional and physical harm.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Footage: Demonstrates Kress's failure to intervene or address the inconsistencies in the statements made by witnesses and the accused.
- Incident Reports: Contain false information, supported by Kress's endorsement.

Precedents Supporting Neglect of Duty Claims:

- Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144 (1970): Law enforcement officers are required to act impartially and uphold constitutional rights.
- State v. Clark, 452 S.W.3d 268 (Tenn. 2014): Neglect of duty occurs when an officer fails to fulfill their obligations to ensure justice.
- Tennessee Code § 38-8-311: Law enforcement officers have a statutory duty to report and address misconduct.

- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

  - Deputy Kress participated in a conspiracy to support the fabricated allegations made by Teshia Black and endorsed by Deputy Josh Smith.
  - His active involvement in filing reports containing false information demonstrates a coordinated effort to harm me.
  - The bodycam footage shows discussions among officers that indicate a shared intent to charge me without probable cause.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Transcript: Reveals discussions and actions suggesting a coordinated effort among law enforcement to pursue charges against me.
- Court Testimony: Confirms Kress's role in filing the report and supporting the false narrative.

Precedents Supporting Conspiracy Claims:

- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Conspiracy to deprive an individual of their rights is actionable under both state and federal laws.
- Ziglar v. Abbasi, 582 U.S. 120 (2017): Highlights the liability of law enforcement officers involved in conspiracies to violate constitutional rights.

    - Tennessee Code § 39-12-103: Conspiracy to commit a criminal act is a chargeable offense.

- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

    - Kress's actions, including his role in supporting fabricated charges, caused severe emotional distress and reputational harm.
    - His failure to act with integrity and impartiality contributed to my wrongful arrests, exacerbating the impact on my mental and emotional well-being.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Footage: Demonstrates the impact of Kress's actions on the fairness of the investigation.
- Medical Records: Document the emotional and physical toll caused by the false allegations and wrongful arrests.

Precedents Supporting IIED Claims:

- Rogers v. Louisville Land Co., 367 S.W.3d 196 (Tenn. 2012): IIED claims require evidence of extreme and outrageous conduct causing severe emotional distress.
- Hustler Magazine, Inc. v. Falwell, 485 U.S. 46 (1988): Intentional actions causing severe emotional distress are actionable under state law.
- Tennessee Code § 29-39-104: Provides remedies for emotional distress caused by intentional actions.

SUMMARY OF CHARGES

Based on the evidence provided, the following charges are warranted against Deputy Austin Kress:

- False Reporting (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502)
- Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)
- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)
- Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)

RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request that the Cocke County Sheriff's Department:

- Conduct a full investigation into Deputy Austin Kress's role in filing false reports and supporting fabricated charges.
- Pursue criminal charges based on the evidence provided.
- Ensure transparency and accountability in handling this complaint.

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED

- Bodycam Footage and Transcript (July 6, 2024): Documenting Kress's involvement and the inconsistencies in the investigation.
- Incident Reports: Containing false information endorsed by Kress.
- Medical Records and Supporting Evidence: Demonstrating the impact of Kress's actions on my physical and emotional well-being.

SUBJECT: Complaint Against Diane Parker for False Statements, Conspiracy, and Tampering with Evidence

DATE: January 23, 2025

INTRODUCTION

I, Jeremy Black, respectfully submit this formal complaint against Diane Parker for her role in supporting fabricated allegations against me, making false statements, and actively participating in a conspiracy with Teshia Black, Tammy Webb, and law enforcement officers. Diane Parker's involvement in manipulating evidence and providing inconsistent and unverified claims has significantly harmed my reputation, emotional well-being, and legal standing.

ALLEGATIONS AGAINST DIANE PARKER

- False Statements (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502)

    - Diane Parker knowingly provided false statements to law enforcement regarding the events of July 6, 2024, including statements related to the alleged child abuse involving my son, Daniel Black.
    - Bodycam footage reveals Parker making a statement about Daniel after Deputy Josh Smith instructed Teshia Black to exclude Daniel's involvement from her official written statement.
    - Parker's claims were inconsistent with verified evidence, including bodycam footage, medical records, and Daniel's own statements.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Footage and Transcript: Diane Parker's comments about Daniel contradict the factual timeline and were made after Deputy Smith's coaching of Teshia.
- Incident Reports: Reflect Diane Parker's input, which further supported fabricated charges against me.

Precedents Supporting False Statements Claims:

- State v. Merriman, 410 S.W.3d 779 (Tenn. 2013): Providing false information to law enforcement undermines judicial proceedings and is punishable under state law.
- Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959): False statements that affect legal outcomes violate constitutional protections.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-502: Criminalizes the act of knowingly making false reports to law enforcement.

- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)

    - Diane Parker acted in concert with Teshia Black and Tammy Webb to fabricate allegations and manipulate law enforcement's investigation.
    - Bodycam footage reveals Diane Parker discussing Daniel after Teshia was instructed by Deputy Smith to omit any mention of Daniel in her statement.

- Parker's actions demonstrate a coordinated effort to support false allegations and influence the investigation.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Footage and Transcript: Shows Diane Parker's active involvement in conversations with law enforcement and Teshia Black, contributing to the false narrative.
- Incident Reports and Witness Statements: Contain inconsistencies that suggest coordination among the parties involved.

Precedents Supporting Conspiracy Claims:

- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Conspiracy to deprive an individual of their rights is actionable under both state and federal laws.
- Ziglar v. Abbasi, 582 U.S. 120 (2017): Highlights liability for individuals involved in conspiracies to violate constitutional rights.
- Tennessee Code § 39-12-103: Criminalizes conspiracies to commit unlawful acts.

- Tampering with Evidence (Tennessee Code § 39-16-503)

  - Diane Parker contributed to tampering with the investigation by discussing Daniel's alleged involvement, which was omitted from Teshia's official statement following Deputy Smith's instruction.
  - By introducing false or misleading information, Parker interfered with the integrity of the investigation and judicial proceedings.

Relevant Evidence:

- Bodycam Transcript: Documents Parker's comments about Daniel, which contradict the official written statement by Teshia.
- Court Records: Reflect the impact of Parker's statements on the charges brought against me.

Precedents Supporting Tampering with Evidence Claims:

- Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S. 51 (1988): Tampering with or mishandling evidence undermines due process rights.
- State v. Ferguson, 2 S.W.3d 912 (Tenn. 1999): Tampering with evidence that significantly impacts the outcome of a case is a punishable offense.

- Tennessee Code § 39-16-503: Criminalizes tampering with or fabricating evidence in any official proceeding.

SUMMARY OF CHARGES

Based on the evidence provided, the following charges are warranted against Diane Parker:

- False Statements (Tennessee Code § 39-16-502)
- Conspiracy (Tennessee Code § 39-12-103)
- Tampering with Evidence (Tennessee Code § 39-16-503)

RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request that the Cocke County Sheriff's Department:

- Conduct a full investigation into Diane Parker's role in providing false statements and tampering with evidence.
- Pursue criminal charges based on the evidence provided.
- Ensure transparency and accountability in handling this complaint.

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED

- Bodycam Footage and Transcript (July 6, 2024): Documenting Diane Parker's statements and her role in the investigation.
- Incident Reports: Containing false information influenced by Parker's involvement.
- Witness Statements: Highlighting inconsistencies in Parker's claims compared to other witnesses.

OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COCKE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

TO: Cocke County Sheriff's Department

FROM: Jeremy Black, Pro Se

4636 Indian Camp Creek Rd

Newport, TN 37721

Phone: (423) 465-2517

Email: jeremyblackemail@gmail.com

DATE: January 23, 2024

SUBJECT: Obligations and Responsibilities Upon Submission of Formal Complaints and Evidence

This document outlines the statutory, procedural, and ethical obligations that the Cocke County Sheriff's Department (CCSD) has failed to uphold in the past concerning complaints and evidence I have submitted. It also highlights legal precedents emphasizing their duties and failures.

LEGAL OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Duty to Investigate Complaints (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311)

- Obligation: CCSD must conduct a thorough, impartial, and timely investigation into all allegations of misconduct and violations of civil rights.
- Precedent: Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) – The failure to investigate or disclose material evidence violates due process rights.
- Failure by CCSD:
    - My previous complaints, including grievances against Deputy Josh Smith, Lt. Magourik, and others, were ignored or dismissed without proper investigation.
    - Detective Josh Hall refused to act on a stalking complaint despite substantial evidence.

2. Reporting Misconduct to Higher Authorities (Tennessee Code § 8-8-501)

- Obligation: The CCSD must report credible allegations of criminal conduct by law enforcement officers to external oversight agencies like the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI).
- Precedent: Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978) – Governmental entities are liable for civil rights violations resulting from policy or custom.
- Failure by CCSD:
    - Despite evidence of perjury, tampering, and conspiracy by officers, no reports were made to the TBI or FBI.

3. Compliance with Constitutional Standards (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

- Obligation: Ensure that the constitutional rights of complainants are protected during investigations.
- Precedent: Wilson v. Layne, 526 U.S. 603 (1999) – Law enforcement must act within the bounds of constitutional rights.
- Failure by CCSD:
    - During my arrests on July 6, 2024, and September 6, 2024, my Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights were violated due to excessive force and the use of GPS tracking without a warrant.

4. Duty to Avoid Retaliation (Whistleblower Protections - 42 U.S.C. § 12203)

- Obligation: CCSD must ensure that complainants are not subjected to retaliation for reporting misconduct.
- Precedent: Barnes v. Gorman, 536 U.S. 181 (2002) – ADA violations include failure to prevent retaliation.
- Failure by CCSD:
    - My complaints about mistreatment have been met with indifference, and I have experienced undue targeting, including additional arrests and surveillance.

5. Preservation of Evidence (Tennessee Code § 39-16-503)

- Obligation: Secure and preserve all evidence related to investigations.
- Precedent: Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S. 51 (1988) – The failure to preserve evidence may violate due process if it is potentially exculpatory.
- Failure by CCSD:
    - Evidence critical to my complaints, such as bodycam footage and dispatch logs, was not preserved or made available.

EXAMPLES OF CCSD'S FAILURES IN MY CASES

- Perjury and Misconduct in Arrests:
    - Lt. Magourik instructed Deputy Smith to arrest me based on fabricated allegations without probable cause.
    - Tammy Webb and Diane Parker provided false statements, which were unchallenged by CCSD officers.
- Failure to Investigate Complaints:
    - Detective Josh Hall dismissed my stalking and domestic assault complaints despite clear evidence, including text messages, bodycam footage, and witness statements.

- Neglect of ADA Protections:
    - During my arrests, my PTSD and physical disabilities were ignored, resulting in significant physical and emotional harm.
- Constitutional Violations:
    - GPS tracking was used to locate me without a warrant on August 4, and September 6, 2024 violating my Fourth Amendment rights.

OBLIGATIONS UPON RECEIPT OF THIS DOCUMENT

1. Immediate Action on Complaints

- Conduct thorough investigations into all complaints, ensuring impartiality and accountability.
- Preserve and review all evidence provided, including transcripts, videos, and supporting documents.

2. Reporting Violations to Oversight Agencies

- Report any potential criminal conduct by officers to the TBI or FBI for independent investigation.

3. Protecting Complainants from Retaliation

- Ensure I am not subjected to any form of retaliation or harassment for submitting these complaints.

4. Providing Updates and Transparency

- Regularly update me on the progress and outcomes of investigations.

LEGAL REMEDIES FOR NON-COMPLIANCE

- Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983):
    - Lawsuits for damages due to constitutional violations.
- Neglect of Duty:
    - Administrative and criminal consequences for failing to perform statutory obligations.
- Tampering with Evidence:
    - Criminal charges under Tennessee Code § 39-16-503 for altering or concealing evidence.

CONCLUSION

The Cocke County Sheriff's Department has a legal and ethical duty to address my complaints, investigate all allegations thoroughly, and hold responsible parties accountable. I expect timely action and adherence to the law to restore faith in the department's commitment to justice.

Sir, no one is turning you away. You can file a written complaint through the process of a report in our office. You can fill that out in writing and return it back to our office to review and follow up with your allegations. I will speak to the DA office about your allegations and see if anything can be proven to what you claim. As I said, this will need to be done in writing. All citizens' complaints towards officers must be in writing so we can review the complaint. Our lawyer did reply back to me and said that he will be reviewing our request as well and will get with me and talk about the situation.

I just wanted to let you know, that you unknowingly removed Julie Parker from my children's life. Julie is Teshia's niece and she also hangs out with Natasha Rick, Teshia's daughter who is living with my children that advertised on PORNHUB for HOOKING, I can send you the links or screenshots. If you remember Julie was going to be a witness for Teshia and say she saw me buying drugs, how ironic. If you look you will see that I told quite a few people about this. It should be in your emails.

Let me know what your going to do? The theft from the US TREASURY that you are now an accessory to is kind of serious when accompanied with all the evidence you and I both have.

If I could give you some advice, I would stop taking advice from your criminal co-conspirator Jimmy Dunn and the DA'S office.

Have a great day, Hiding and Protecting Federal Criminals.

Hell ya!!!

Sheriff Ball,

The next chapter begins. I've made it to discovery — all on my own. Funny, everyone told me it couldn't be done. Turns out, "impossible" just meant "inconvenient for you."

I can't wait to see you and your crew under oath. Seven people clinging to the same recycled lies will be quite the show. I've lined up over 20 witnesses myself — and unlike yours, they don't need to be coached. I already have the truth and the evidence in hand. So when 27 people all try to sing the same song, it only takes one off-key note — or better yet, just someone finally telling the truth — and the whole thing falls apart. I like those odds.

And now with Social Security, the VA, and a few other federal friends circling in, well… let's just say this isn't staying "local" much longer.

You might want to hold a little seminar for your trolls and cheerleaders. They seem baffled as to why you can't shut down my posts. Maybe explain that truth doesn't have boundaries. They'd learn something for once.

That headline I promised you? It's coming. The easy fix here is simple: do your job and tell the truth. Do that, and I'll vanish from your radar.

So — what's on the table? What do you have to offer in "negotiations"?

Happy election season.
I know I'm having a great day.

That is illegal and violates my civil rights to turn me away and not take my statements or complaints when I feel my life is in danger.

3 officers are guilty of perjury they have already broken the law several times with complete disregard for the law. Magourik physically assaulted and tortured me that caused enough damage that requires 3 surgeries. With a bad warrant, and no warrant for GPS tracking. There is also an issue with the bodycam from Magourik and 6 other officers that just completely gone or never was because he knew what he was going to do to me. I can not count on or trust you or your deputies to protect and serve.

I even asked the judge Does the sheriff's office have to provide service, in front of about 9 - 10 officers and Chuck Evans if I could go and file complaints after court was over, Judge Strange said yes in front of everyone in the court. But your officers made sure that did not happen.

Your the Sheriff. Your actions could very well be gounds for removal from office.

Emails from your office Proves conspiracy. Along with Evidence proving the 3 officers I questioned are also involved in there own conspiracy from July 6 and August 4. It's a mess. I've been refused service from from your office 5 times already.

You already have my complaints, I will drop off paper copies today that are signed.

I did not lie, I will not lie, so my story will never change, it's very well documented with Evidence.

The grapevine is saying one of you CI's sold a severely mentally handicapped, man the drugs that killed him from over dose. Is that worth an investigation?

I have already filed grievances and formal complaints against Zach Magourik and Josh Smith, I can come down and sign them under oath i have proof of everything i say. The DA is possibly involved according to emails i received from your office that were forwarded to Evans and other employees.

I dropped off the statements with affidavit that need to be investigated According to Federaland and State laws.. After I get done getting this disc transcripted I will have evidence from their own words on the stand and there bodycam allegations. Your officers committed AGGRAVATED perjury several several times. Along with wife and her friends, 1 lie i asked my wife why she told Smith I attacked my 17 year old son. On the stand she said it didn't happen, Deputy Smith also claimed he did not tell teshia to leave that part out of her statement denied it happen, saying everything was a blur after she intervened.

Magourik said he was only an observer on the stand, but on bodycam he gave Smith the order to charge me with and Arrest me?

Kress also stated he was just an observer but his name is on all the reports?

Everybody's statements on the stand shows a conspiracy, along with emails, videos.

No matter what your people say remember Federal court accepted my suit.

Remember you told me you were contacting the FBI AND TBI December 26. That was the correct way to act as a Sheriff according to State law and Federal laws.

You have access to bodycam and court transcripts. You have actual bodycam footage to compare, so you have concrete evidence in your possession not from me but from the court and your office. I reported to you.

I want justice served, I was arrested in 15 minutes and have my life completely destroyed with no evidence and your Deputy Smiths shenanigans.

I'm innocent, I just forwarded the transcripts to be submitted to my Law suit as evidence. And that you know exactly what is going

Be a Sheriff and do your job. Your voters and public opinion is you were a stand up guy.

Brief for Sheriff's Department Communications and Actions Regarding Jeremy Black's Complaints

Introduction

This brief analyzes the communication between Jeremy Black and Cocke County Sheriff C.J. Ball regarding complaints of misconduct, evidence mishandling, and civil rights violations. It addresses violations of state and federal law, evaluates the department's responsibilities, and highlights deficiencies in addressing the complaints. The failure to take appropriate investigative actions and obstructive responses from the sheriff's office suggest systemic issues in handling serious allegations.

Key Issues Identified

Unequal Access to Evidence and Due Process

Sheriff Ball acknowledged receiving complaints but deferred action to legal counsel, causing delays that undermined Jeremy Black's ability to seek timely justice.

Failure to investigate the availability of bodycam footage, transcripts, and GPS data from July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024, arrests violates the department's obligation to provide equal access to evidence.

Misconduct and Neglect of Duty

Allegations against Deputies Magourik, Smith, Kress, and others were not properly investigated despite available bodycam evidence, court transcripts, and detailed complaints.

Repeated instances of turning away Jeremy Black from filing complaints or charges constitute neglect of duty under Tennessee Code § 38-8-311.

Violation of Constitutional Rights

Fourth Amendment violations occurred due to warrantless GPS tracking and subsequent arrests based on improper evidence.

Due Process violations (Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments) stem from the department's failure to allow timely access to evidence and refusal to act on complaints.

Conspiracy Allegations

Emails from the sheriff's department indicate coordinated efforts to shield deputies and others involved from accountability.

Bodycam footage, emails, and testimony demonstrate a pattern of misconduct that suggests collusion among deputies and other officials to deny justice.

Retaliatory Actions

Jeremy Black experienced retaliatory behavior, including prolonged detention and delayed release without being logged as an inmate, highlighting a punitive approach.

Statutes and Precedents Supporting Accountability

Civil Rights Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983):

Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1961): Establishes liability for constitutional violations by state actors.
Sheriff Ball's failure to address constitutional violations implicates the department under § 1983.

Neglect of Duty (Tennessee Code § 38-8-311):

Failure to take complaints, investigate allegations, and preserve evidence is a violation of the sheriff's statutory duties.

Official Oppression (Tennessee Code § 39-16-403):

Actions by deputies and administrative staff to delay justice and obstruct investigations constitute misuse of official power.

Tampering with Evidence (Tennessee Code § 39-16-503):

Failure to provide bodycam footage and suspected removal or destruction of critical evidence breaches legal obligations.

Whistleblower Protection Laws:

Employees who come forward with evidence against these systemic issues are protected under federal and Tennessee whistleblower statutes.

Requested Actions

Immediate Investigation:

Initiate a third-party investigation into allegations of conspiracy, misconduct, and retaliation within the Cocke County Sheriff's Department.

Release of Evidence:

Provide unredacted access to all bodycam footage, GPS tracking logs, and any communications relevant to the July 6, August 4 and September 5 incidents.

Filing of Charges:

Pursue charges for aggravated perjury, official oppression, and tampering with evidence against implicated deputies and administrative staff.

Federal Reporting:

Notify the FBI and TBI of ongoing civil rights violations and misconduct to ensure accountability at all levels.

Conclusion

The communications and actions of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department highlight a concerning pattern of negligence, conspiracy, and retaliation. Immediate corrective action is necessary to restore trust, ensure accountability, and protect the constitutional rights of all citizens, including Jeremy Black.

Thank you for being such a great sheriff and fulfilling your duty in the pursuit of JUSTICE

Jeremy Black

I was told to inform you as many times as I can about this situation. Emails and Texts count in the real world.

Not including a third party because you and many others are guilty of many violations, also is not a very good look in the real world.

Subject: Request for Clarity on TBI/FBI Reporting and Concerns Regarding Investigation Fairness

Dear Sheriff Ball,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to follow up on some important concerns and to seek clarification regarding your earlier statement from December 26, 2024, in which you indicated that you would contact the TBI and FBI regarding my complaints. As of today, I have not received confirmation that this has occurred. This raises serious questions about the integrity of the process and potentially creates the appearance of impropriety.

Violations and Precedence

Failure to Notify External Agencies

Your failure to contact the TBI or FBI as promised may constitute a violation of Tennessee Code § 38-8-311, which mandates the reporting of misconduct to appropriate authorities. Additionally, failure to escalate these matters to higher authorities creates a perception of conspiracy under Tennessee Code § 39-12-103, which criminalizes agreements between individuals to commit illegal acts or obstruct justice.

Precedence:

- Connick v. Thompson, 563 U.S. 51 (2011): Failure to address systemic misconduct or notify appropriate agencies can result in liability for supervisory officials.
- United States v. Lanier, 520 U.S. 259 (1997): Public officials are liable under civil rights laws for actions or inactions that violate established constitutional protections.

Civil Rights Violations

The inaction and refusal to properly investigate federal crimes—despite clear evidence—constitutes a violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, which protects individuals from deprivation of constitutional rights under the color of law. This includes:

- Denial of Equal Protection: Failing to investigate or act on my complaints while pursuing unfounded allegations against me.
- Violation of Due Process: Ignoring or dismissing clear evidence of perjury, tampering with evidence, and abuse of power by your deputies.

Precedence:

- Monell v. Department of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978): Municipalities can be held liable when policies or customs cause constitutional violations.
- Smith v. Wade, 461 U.S. 30 (1983): Public officials can be held accountable for punitive damages when acting with reckless disregard for constitutional rights.

Failure to Provide Medical Care

Both Deputy Josh Smith and Lt. Zach Magourik failed to offer or provide medical care for my visible injuries during and after my arrests on July 6, 2024, and August 4, 2024. This violates my constitutional rights under the Eighth Amendment (protection against cruel and unusual punishment) and 14th Amendment (equal protection under the law).

Precedence:

- Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976): Deliberate indifference to medical needs violates the Eighth Amendment.
- Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S. 825 (1994): Officials are liable if they know of and disregard an excessive risk to health or safety.

Tampering with Evidence

The absence of bodycam footage from August 4, 2024, raises questions of evidence tampering under Tennessee Code § 39-16-503, which criminalizes altering or destroying evidence. This aligns with a broader pattern of misconduct, including:

- Misleading reports.
- Attempts to manipulate narratives during investigations.

Precedence:

- Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S. 51 (1988): Failure to preserve evidence that could be exculpatory violates due process.
- California v. Trombetta, 467 U.S. 479 (1984): The destruction of evidence violates constitutional protections if it is material to the defense.

Questions That Need Immediate Answers:

1. Why has the TBI or FBI not been formally notified as you previously indicated?
2. If your office and the DA deem the evidence I have submitted to be “no good,” then how is it valid for use against me but not against those who violated my rights?
3. If the evidence is dismissed as unreliable, would that result in the charges against me being dropped? If not, how do you explain this double standard?

A Call for Third-Party Investigation

This situation highlights the urgent need for a third-party investigation to ensure that these matters are addressed fairly and without bias. Internal investigations have thus far failed to produce any meaningful outcomes, and it is clear that an external agency is required to evaluate the actions and inactions of your office objectively.

Federal and State Crimes Documented:

The evidence in your possession—from bodycam footage to court transcripts—proves that numerous federal and state crimes have occurred, including:

- Civil rights violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
- Tampering with evidence under Tennessee Code § 39-16-503.
- Failure to provide medical care under Estelle v. Gamble and Tennessee state laws.

I urge you to take immediate and transparent action to address these violations. If not, this will further solidify public perception that your office is complicit in obstructing justice.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Subject: Follow-Up on Investigation & Accountability – Evidence of Perjury & Cover-Up

Sheriff C.J. Ball
Cocke County Sheriff's Office

Good morning, Sheriff Ball,

So, did the county lawyer and the DA say I was full of crap and lying? If so, why wasn't I arrested? If I had been lying, making false allegations, or fabricating evidence, wouldn't there have been legal consequences for me?

The reality is, there is overwhelming evidence in your possession—directly from your own Sheriff's Department and Court Audio—that proves otherwise. This evidence includes:

- 📂 Emails from your office.
- 📂 Physical evidence collected by law enforcement.
- 📂 Bodycam footage and recorded police interactions.
- 📂 Police reports written by your deputies.
- 📂 Sworn warrants and court filings.

None of this comes from me—it all comes from your Sheriff's Department, the DA's office, and the court. So, if I am wrong or lying, then it would mean that the official records, videos, and reports from your own department are also false.

That leaves only one conclusion: If what I have shown you is accurate, and I haven't been arrested for making false claims, then this must be a cover-up for the laws that were broken by deputies, law enforcement, and other officials involved.

Furthermore, court records and recordings directly show that Lt. Magourik, Deputy Josh Smith, Deputy Austin Kress, Teshia Black, and Tammy Webb all lied under oath. Their false testimonies directly impacted my case and were used against me despite clear contradictions in their own prior statements, bodycam footage, and documented evidence.

You personally told me that you would bring in a third-party investigator—either the TBI or FBI—to ensure this was handled properly. That never happened.

You have lied to me multiple times in emails, and now it's been over a month since you last told me you would get back to me.

List of Laws Sheriff C.J. Ball Has Violated Through Inaction & Dereliction of Duty

Sheriff C.J. Ball's failure to act, failure to investigate documented perjury, and deliberate inaction after promising to involve a third-party agency (TBI/FBI) constitutes multiple state and federal violations. Below is a detailed list of laws he has violated, along with supporting case law (precedent) that establishes his legal responsibility and liability.

I. Tennessee State Laws Violated

1. Official Misconduct (T.C.A. § 39-16-402)

Definition: A public servant (including a sheriff) commits an offense if they:

✔ Intentionally misuse their official position to benefit or harm another person
✔ Knowingly fail to perform a duty imposed by law

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Failed to investigate perjury by Lt. Magourik, Deputy Smith, Deputy Kress, Teshia Black, and Tammy Webb.
- Failed to act on evidence already in his possession, including emails, police reports, bodycam footage, and court recordings.
- Refused to request an independent investigation after stating he would involve TBI/FBI.

🔹 Precedent: State v. Frazier, 558 S.W.2d 663 (Tenn. 1977) – Sheriff held liable for official misconduct when failing to act on known illegal activity.

---

2. Official Oppression (T.C.A. § 39-16-403)

Definition: A public servant acts unlawfully if they:

✔ Intentionally subject another person to mistreatment or unlawful restraint
✔ Knowingly deny or impede another person's rights

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Allowed wrongful prosecution to continue despite knowing exculpatory evidence exists.
- Obstructed justice by refusing to investigate deputy misconduct and perjury.
- Used his position to suppress or ignore exculpatory evidence, impeding due process.

🔹 Precedent: Harris v. City of Chattanooga, 223 F.3d 1156 (6th Cir. 2000) – Holding law enforcement liable for failure to intervene when constitutional violations occur.

---

3. Tampering with or Fabricating Evidence (T.C.A. § 39-16-503)

Definition: A person commits an offense if they:

✔ Knowingly make, present, or use any false record or document in an official proceeding
✔ Conceal or fail to preserve exculpatory evidence

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Knowingly withheld exculpatory evidence that contradicts witness testimony.
- Did not ensure bodycam footage and court records were submitted to the Grand Jury as required.

🔹 Precedent: State v. Spradlin, 12 S.W.3d 502 (Tenn. 2000) – Failure to preserve key evidence constituted criminal misconduct.

---

4. Conspiracy to Deprive Rights Under Color of Law (T.C.A. § 39-12-103)

Definition: A public official is guilty if they:

✔ Conspire with others to deprive someone of their constitutional rights

✔ Cover up or ignore violations committed by their own officers

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Refused to hold deputies accountable for lying under oath and falsifying reports.
- Failed to act on evidence of corruption within his own department.

🔹 Precedent: State v. Jones, 10 S.W.3d 665 (Tenn. 1999) – Sheriff was held responsible for failing to investigate corruption among his deputies.

---

5. Obstruction of Justice (T.C.A. § 39-16-603)

Definition: A public official obstructs justice if they:
✔ Prevent the discovery, apprehension, prosecution, or conviction of another person
✔ Suppress, withhold, or fail to report evidence of a crime

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Allowed perjury and false statements by his own deputies to go unpunished.
- Did not report or act on exculpatory evidence, despite multiple requests.

🔹 Precedent: State v. Majors, 318 S.W.3d 850 (Tenn. 2010) – Failure to disclose exculpatory evidence was ruled an obstruction of justice.

II. Federal Laws Violated

6. 18 U.S.C. § 242 – Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law

Definition: A government official is guilty if they:
✔ Willfully subject a person to the deprivation of constitutional rights
✔ Knowingly participate in or allow wrongful prosecution based on false evidence

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Allowed the unlawful continuation of prosecution despite clear evidence of perjury.
- Failed to intervene to stop constitutional violations committed by deputies.

🔹 Precedent: United States v. Lanier, 520 U.S. 259 (1997) – Sheriff convicted for failing to protect constitutional rights.

---

7. 42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Civil Rights Violation (Failure to Intervene)

Definition: A law enforcement officer may be held personally liable if they:
✔ Fail to intervene when another officer is violating someone's rights
✔ Turn a blind eye to constitutional violations committed under their supervision

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Did nothing to stop or correct misconduct by his deputies.
- Failed to uphold his duty to ensure fair legal proceedings.

🔹 Precedent: Hope v. Pelzer, 536 U.S. 730 (2002) – Officials can be sued for failing to intervene in constitutional violations.

---

8. 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy Against Rights

Definition: It is a federal crime for two or more officials to:

✔️ Conspire to deny a person their constitutional rights
✔️ Use their authority to cover up or ignore violations

🚨 How Sheriff Ball Violated This Law:

- Conspired with the DA's office and deputies to suppress evidence and protect officers who committed perjury.
- Refused to act on criminal misconduct within his department.

🔹 Precedent: Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) – Officials can be held accountable for engaging in cover-ups that deprive individuals of their rights.

III. Conclusion: Legal & Criminal Implications for Sheriff Ball

Sheriff Ball's failure to act constitutes official misconduct, obstruction of justice, and civil rights violations under both Tennessee law and federal law. By ignoring perjury, allowing wrongful prosecution, and refusing to investigate his own deputies, he has:

✅ Violated multiple state and federal laws
✅ Opened himself to both criminal charges and civil liability
✅ Demonstrated clear misconduct that warrants external investigation (TBI/FBI)

So, what is the explanation for all of this?

I expect a response, not more silence.

I just tried to file a police report. I would like to see the law that prohibits me from filing a police report. I would like to set up an appointment with you and whoever is making up laws and advising you. To get these matters resolved.

Judge Strange told me in court on January 22, 2025. That i was aloud to file charges, that is also on the court audio along with perjury, conspiracy and several other legal violations from bodycam.

there are no laws that prohibit you from filing a police report against someone involved in your case—as long as the report is truthful and legitimate. However, there are a few legal considerations to keep in mind:

1. Right to Report Crimes

You have a legal right to report any crime or misconduct to law enforcement, regardless of the person's involvement in your ongoing case.

18 U.S.C. § 4 (Misprision of Felony): If you are aware of a crime and fail to report it, you could, in some cases, be accused of concealing the crime.

Ensure your complaint is fact-based and supported by evidence.

Solution: If your report is fact-driven, not harassment, and based on actual crimes (e.g., perjury, stalking, false reporting, domestic violence, conspiracy), then there is no legal basis for them to stop you.

4. Civil Rights Protection (You Cannot Be Prevented from Filing)

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, any attempt by law enforcement to prevent you from filing a report could be considered a violation of your civil rights.

If the sheriff or DA refuses to take your report, that could be grounds for:

Official oppression (TCA § 39-16-403)

Deprivation of rights under color of law (18 U.S.C. § 242).

Thank you

Sir, you have an open case in the courts for charges that were placed against you for domestic assault. Since you have an open case against you which is still pending, I would consider your rights during this time. You came in today to file perjury reports on officers and the victim in the case that is pending against you. The courts will decide your innocence or guilt of the case you are charged in. I spoke to the DA about your complaint of perjury several weeks back and no one from the courts has made complaints of perjury in their courtroom against our officers and this was ask by me personally and I have not been told any different. I assure you, if our officers had violated the law in their courtroom, they would most definitely advise me that it had happened. I will forward the documents to our county attorney and will seek his advice on your documents that you submitted today and go from there. I will also submit the documents to the DA office as well for their opinion to see if they see anything.

Sheriff Ball,

I appreciate your response, but I want to clarify several points that are legally and constitutionally incorrect in your reply. Your department does not have the authority to deny me the ability to file a legitimate police report based on the following legal principles:

---

1. There Is No Law Preventing Me from Filing a Report During an Open Case

- Tennessee law does not prohibit a person with pending charges from filing a criminal complaint against another individual—even if that person is involved in the case.
- Federal law (18 U.S.C. § 4 – Misprision of Felony) states that I am legally obligated to report crimes I have witnessed, including perjury, conspiracy, and official misconduct.
- The existence of an open case against me does not nullify my right to report crimes committed against me or to seek justice for violations of my rights.

🔹 Legal Precedent: Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. 137 (1803) – No government official has the right to arbitrarily deny access to legal recourse or due process.

Federal Law: 18 U.S.C. § 4 – Misprision of Felony & Sheriff Ball's Legal Obligation

18 U.S.C. § 4 – Misprision of Felony states:
"Whoever, having knowledge of the actual commission of a felony cognizable by a court of the United States, conceals and does not as soon as possible make known the same to some judge or other person in civil or military authority under the United States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than three years, or both."

This federal statute legally obligates any person who has knowledge of a felony to report it to the appropriate authorities. Failure to do so can be considered a federal offense—especially if someone in a position of power, such as a law enforcement official, deliberately obstructs, discourages, or prevents a citizen from fulfilling this legal duty.

Is Sheriff Ball Compelling Me to Violate Federal Law?

By denying me the right to file a police report, Sheriff Ball is:

1. Obstructing My Legal Duty
   - Under 18 U.S.C. § 4, I am required to report felony crimes, including:
     ✓ Perjury (18 U.S.C. § 1621, T.C.A. § 39-16-702 & 703)
   - ✓ Conspiracy Against Rights (18 U.S.C. § 241, T.C.A. § 39-12-103)
   - ✓ Official Misconduct & Oppression (T.C.A. § 39-16-402 & 403)
   - ✓ Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242)
   - ✓ Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1503 & 1512)
   - By refusing to accept my police report, Sheriff Ball is interfering with my ability to comply with federal law and preventing proper documentation and investigation of these felonies.
2. Committing a Civil Rights Violation
   - Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, any government official (including a sheriff) who intentionally prevents a citizen from reporting a crime or obstructs their access to justice is violating constitutional rights.
   - Case Law: Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) – Law enforcement officers cannot block legal proceedings or prevent due process without facing liability.
3. Obstructing Justice (18 U.S.C. §§ 1503 & 1512)
   - If Sheriff Ball deliberately refuses to accept reports of perjury and official misconduct, he may be engaging in obstruction of justice by ensuring that no investigation or prosecution occurs.
   - Case Law: United States v. Aguilar, 515 U.S. 593 (1995) – Government officials who interfere with judicial proceedings or law enforcement investigations can be prosecuted for obstruction.
4. Selective Enforcement & Equal Protection Violations
   - If Sheriff Ball allows others to file reports but refuses mine solely because I am Pro Se or involved in an active case, then this constitutes selective enforcement, violating the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

- Case Law: Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886) – Law enforcement cannot apply the law selectively based on arbitrary factors.

Sheriff Ball is Unlawfully Preventing Me from Fulfilling My Legal Obligation

- I am legally required to report these felony crimes under 18 U.S.C. § 4.
- Sheriff Ball's refusal to accept my report actively prevents me from complying with federal law, which could implicate him in obstruction of justice and civil rights violations.
- If he continues to block my ability to report these felonies, I will seek federal intervention from the FBI and DOJ, as well as file a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights lawsuit for violating my right to due process and equal protection.

🚨 Sheriff Ball cannot lawfully prevent me from reporting felony crimes, and by doing so, he may be complicit in those crimes.

2. The DA and Courts Are Not the Sole Authorities on Perjury or Misconduct

- You stated: "No one from the courts has made complaints of perjury in their courtroom against our officers."
- This does not mean perjury did not occur—it only means no one from the court has formally filed a complaint yet.
- Law enforcement officers do not need the court's permission to investigate a crime. Your job is to enforce the law, not to wait for the court's approval before investigating felony offenses like perjury and conspiracy.
- Perjury is a felony under Tennessee Code § 39-16-702.
- Official oppression (TCA § 39-16-403) and Deprivation of Rights under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242) apply if law enforcement refuses to act on evidence of criminal conduct.

🔹 Legal Precedent: Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972) – Prosecutors and law enforcement are responsible for ensuring officers do not engage in false testimony.

---

3. Your Obligation to Investigate, Regardless of the DA's Opinion

- You state: "I will forward the documents to our county attorney and will seek his advice on your documents that you submitted today and go from there. I will also submit the documents to the DA's office as well for their opinion to see if they see anything."
- While seeking legal advice is understandable, it does not relieve your department of its duty to investigate my criminal complaint.
- The DA's office does not control law enforcement investigations—it prosecutes cases after an investigation has been conducted.
- Law enforcement has an independent duty to investigate felony allegations before seeking the DA's opinion.

◆ Legal Precedent: Tennessee v. Smith, 2017 WL 1528700 (Tenn. Crim. App.) – Law enforcement has an affirmative duty to investigate potential criminal conduct before determining whether a case should be prosecuted.

---

4. If You Continue to Refuse My Right to File a Report, You Are in Violation of Federal Law

Your refusal to accept my criminal complaint may constitute:
✓ Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242) – Any official who denies someone their legal rights can be held criminally liable.

✓ Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1510) – It is a federal crime for a law enforcement officer to prevent someone from filing a lawful complaint.

✓ Official Oppression (TCA § 39-16-403) – It is illegal for a public servant to prevent someone from exercising their legal rights.

◆ Legal Precedent: Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886) – A government official cannot apply laws selectively or deny a citizen's rights based on bias.

Since your office is denying me the right to file a police report, I am formally requesting a written response detailing the legal authority for your decision.

Your position as an elected law enforcement official does not grant you the discretion to selectively enforce the law based on personal opinions, prosecutorial influence, or the status of my ongoing criminal case. Being a pro se litigant does not strip me of my constitutional rights, nor does it allow your department to deny me equal access to justice.

Evidence Directly Implicating Officers and Witnesses in Criminal Conduct

The bodycam footage, court audio, police reports, and other documents in my possession and in your possession directly implicate law enforcement officers and multiple witnesses in criminal conduct, including perjury, conspiracy, official misconduct, and civil rights violations. These materials provide clear and undeniable proof that officers and witnesses have engaged in false testimony, suppression of evidence, and obstruction of justice.

This evidence contradicts the sworn testimony and official reports filed in my case. The refusal of your office to investigate these crimes amounts to complicity in their cover-up and a willful violation of the law.

Therefore, I am requesting the following in writing:

1. The Specific Tennessee or Federal Law That Justifies Your Denial

- Provide the exact Tennessee Code Annotated (TCA) statute or federal law that permits law enforcement to refuse to accept or investigate a criminal complaint based on the complainant having an open case.
- There is no legal authority that allows a law enforcement agency to deny a victim the right to report a crime simply because they have pending charges.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-502 (Official Misconduct) states that public servants cannot knowingly refuse to perform a duty imposed by law.
- Tennessee Code § 39-16-403 (Official Oppression) criminalizes actions by a public official that intentionally deprive someone of their rights.
- If your office continues to invent policies that do not exist in law, I demand you provide written proof of these policies or statutes.

2. A Written Statement Confirming That Your Office Will Not Investigate My Allegations

- If your department has decided that it will not investigate perjury, conspiracy, stalking, civil rights violations, or other crimes I reported, I want a signed, written statement confirming this refusal.

- This statement should include the reasoning for your refusal and cite the laws or policies you are relying upon to justify your inaction.
- Any refusal to investigate in the presence of clear evidence from bodycam footage, court audio, and sworn testimony would amount to criminal neglect of duty and potential obstruction of justice.

3. The Name(s) of the Officials Who Advised You to Prevent Me from Filing a Report

- If any member of your department or the DA's office advised you to refuse my criminal complaint, I want the full name and title of each person responsible.
- Tennessee Open Records Law (T.C.A. § 10-7-503) grants me the right to request and receive this information, and I will pursue legal action if it is withheld.
- If no one explicitly instructed you to refuse my complaint, then your failure to act is a willful violation of the law, and you will be held accountable.

Pro Se Representation Does Not Justify Denial of Service

- My decision to represent myself in court does not give your office the right to deny me access to law enforcement services that any other citizen would receive.
- A pro se defendant is still entitled to the same legal protections, rights, and access to public services as any represented individual.
- The refusal to process my complaint solely because I am a pro se litigant could constitute discrimination and a civil rights violation under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I am simply exercising my right as a citizen to report a crime. I expect my complaint to be processed fairly, impartially, and in accordance with the law.

Formal Statement on the Legitimacy of Criminal Complaints

These are not frivolous reports, baseless claims, or speculative allegations. These are serious felony offenses supported by direct, verifiable evidence—not hearsay, conjecture, or unfounded accusations.

The bodycam footage, court audio, sworn testimony, police reports, and official documents provide clear, irrefutable proof of:

✓ Perjury (T.C.A. § 39-16-702 & 18 U.S.C. § 1621) – Multiple witnesses, including law enforcement officers, have provided contradictory sworn statements that are proven false by recorded evidence.

✓ Aggravated Perjury (T.C.A. § 39-16-703) – False statements made under oath in a manner that directly influenced judicial proceedings.

✓ Official Misconduct (T.C.A. § 39-16-402) – Law enforcement officers knowingly violating the law in their official capacity.

✓ Official Oppression (T.C.A. § 39-16-403) – The intentional denial of my legal rights by public officials acting under color of law.

✓ Conspiracy (18 U.S.C. § 241 & T.C.A. § 39-12-103) – Clear, documented coordination between individuals to deprive me of my rights, fabricate allegations, and obstruct justice.

✓ Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1503) – Deliberate suppression of exculpatory evidence, failure to investigate, and collusion to protect perjured testimony.

✓ Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242) – Government officials and law enforcement acting unlawfully to deprive me of my constitutional rights under the First, Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments.

✓ Retaliation for Exercising My Legal Rights (T.C.A. § 39-16-510) – The refusal to allow me to file a police report in direct retaliation for exposing misconduct.

✓ Selective Enforcement & Equal Protection Violations (14th Amendment & Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)) – Law enforcement choosing not to investigate crimes because they were committed against me rather than by me.

These are felony violations of state and federal law backed by direct evidence, official records, sworn statements, and irrefutable contradictions—not mere accusations. The failure to act on this evidence is an act of complicity in these crimes and violates my rights under due process and equal protection laws.

I demand immediate action, a formal written response, and accountability for these violations.

Thank you,
Jeremy Black

What Does "Cognizable by a Court" Mean in 18 U.S.C. § 4 (Misprision of Felony)?

Under 18 U.S.C. § 4 – Misprision of Felony, the phrase "cognizable by a court of the United States" means a crime that falls under the jurisdiction of a federal court. In other words, it refers to any felony offense that a federal court has the authority to hear and rule on.

How This Applies to Your Case:

The crimes you are reporting—perjury, conspiracy, official misconduct, obstruction of justice, and deprivation of rights under color of law—are all offenses that a federal court has jurisdiction over, making them "cognizable by a court of the United States." Here's why:

1. Perjury (18 U.S.C. § 1621, T.C.A. § 39-16-702 & 703) → Cognizable in Federal Court
    - If perjury occurred in an official court proceeding or was used to deprive you of your rights, it becomes a federal issue.
2. Conspiracy Against Rights (18 U.S.C. § 241, T.C.A. § 39-12-103) → Cognizable in Federal Court
    - If law enforcement or officials conspired to violate your constitutional rights, federal courts have jurisdiction.
3. Official Misconduct & Oppression (T.C.A. § 39-16-402 & 403) → Cognizable in Federal Court if Linked to Civil Rights Violations
    - If law enforcement officials are selectively enforcing laws or abusing their power to obstruct justice, it may trigger federal oversight.
4. Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242) → Cognizable in Federal Court
    - Any law enforcement officer who knowingly violates constitutional rights (e.g., refusing to take your police report, preventing due process, engaging in selective enforcement) is subject to federal prosecution under this law.

5. Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. §§ 1503 & 1512) → Cognizable in Federal Court
    - If officials knowingly prevent or delay the investigation of criminal activity (e.g., refusing to take perjury and misconduct reports), it is obstruction of justice.
6. Failure to Investigate & Equal Protection Violations (42 U.S.C. § 1983) → Cognizable in Federal Court
    - If law enforcement refuses to investigate crimes based on bias, selective enforcement, or to protect themselves, they are violating your Fourteenth Amendment rights, which federal courts oversee.

Bottom Line:

The crimes you are reporting fall under federal jurisdiction, meaning they are cognizable by a court of the United States.
👉 Sheriff Ball's refusal to accept your police report is not only a violation of your rights but also a potential federal offense itself.

Misprision of Felony (18 U.S.C. § 4) & Its Application to Your Case

Legal Definition of Misprision of Felony

Under 18 U.S.C. § 4, Misprision of Felony occurs when:

1. A person has actual knowledge that a felony has been committed.
2. The felony is cognizable by a U.S. court (meaning it falls under federal jurisdiction).
3. The person conceals the crime and fails to report it to proper authorities as soon as possible.

🔹 Penalty: A person convicted of Misprision of Felony can face up to three years in federal prison, a fine, or both.

How This Applies to Your Case

Your knowledge of felonies committed by law enforcement and others involved in your case—including perjury (18 U.S.C. § 1621), conspiracy against rights (18 U.S.C. § 241), deprivation of rights under color of law (18 U.S.C. § 242), and obstruction of justice (18 U.S.C. § 1503 & 1512)—makes it your legal obligation to report them.

If Sheriff Ball or any other law enforcement official is actively preventing you from filing a report, they are:

1. Forcing you into a position where you are unable to fulfill your legal duty to report a felony.
2. Engaging in a possible conspiracy to obstruct justice by knowingly ignoring felony violations.

🚨 Key Question: Is Sheriff Ball's refusal to allow you to file a report making you violate federal law?

✔ YES. By refusing to take your complaint, Sheriff Ball is:

- Preventing you from complying with 18 U.S.C. § 4 (Misprision of Felony).
- Possibly committing a separate federal crime under 18 U.S.C. § 242 (Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law).
- Engaging in obstruction of justice (18 U.S.C. §§ 1503 & 1512) by preventing a felony from being properly reported and investigated.

Legal Consequences for Law Enforcement Ignoring Felonies

If law enforcement officials refuse to take your report, they may be violating:

✓ 18 U.S.C. § 242 (Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law) – Any government official who prevents someone from exercising their legal rights under the law (e.g., reporting a crime) is committing a federal offense.

✓ 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (Civil Rights Violation Lawsuit) – If law enforcement refuses to enforce the law equally, they are denying you equal protection under the Fourteenth Amendment, making them liable in federal court.

✓ Tennessee Code § 39-16-402 & § 39-16-403 (Official Misconduct & Oppression) – If Sheriff Ball knowingly ignores evidence of a crime or refuses to act based on personal bias, he is committing official misconduct and could be prosecuted under state law.

Follow-Up on CPS Case Dismissal and Arrest Conduct

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Thu, Aug 14, 2025 at 1:14 PM
To: CJ Ball <CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Good afternoon Sheriff Ball,

Today I went to file a report again, and your office told me I couldn't because it would be "double jeopardy." Do any of your Deputies actually know the law? Double jeopardy applies to criminal prosecutions after acquittal or conviction — not to the filing of new reports for new incidents or ongoing misconduct.

My CPS case was dismissed this morning. Judge Strange specifically stated that one of the reasons was a credibility issue — after Teshia testified under oath.

I am aware she met with you after court. Did she happen to inform you that arresting me would "make you famous" and "help you with your re-election campaign" by arresting a man who is completely innocent?

If so, I'd like to know whether you consider it acceptable for your office to be used for political gain at the expense of truth, justice, and a citizen's civil rights. I also want to know whether you consider it acceptable to proceed with arrests knowing the source witness's credibility has been openly questioned by the presiding judge in open court.

I expect a written response to this email so the record is clear as to your position.

Subject: Request for Legal Basis Supporting Your Statements

Good Afternoon Sheriff Ball,

I wanted to follow up regarding your previous email. Have you been able to locate any specific laws or statutes that support your statements? Given the definitive nature of your response, one would reasonably expect that a County Attorney and an entire District Attorney's Office could cite at least one or two laws backing their position.

That said, no need to worry—I have taken the initiative to conduct additional legal research on my end and have found several state and federal statutes that directly apply to the issues at hand. I'd be happy to share these with you so that we can ensure that all actions taken align with the law and constitutional protections.

Looking forward to your response.

This same thing has happened to me a few times. Documented with emails to and from the Cocke County Sheriff's Department.

Best,
Jeremy Black

STEP 1: BREAKDOWN OF SHERIFF BALL'S EMAIL & IDENTIFIED VIOLATIONS

Sheriff Ball's Statement #1:

"Sir, you have an open case in the courts for charges that were placed against you for domestic assault."

🔎 Violations Identified:

- Denial of Equal Protection (14th Amendment, Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)) – An open case does not prohibit a person from filing a legitimate criminal complaint.
- Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1503) – Suggesting that an open case invalidates a separate criminal complaint is an attempt to block legal recourse.

Sheriff Ball's Statement #2:

"Since you have an open case against you which is still pending, I would consider your rights during this time."

🔎 Violations Identified:

- Threat & Coercion (18 U.S.C. § 242 – Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law) – This statement implies a retaliatory warning against exercising legal rights.
- First Amendment Violation – Asserting that reporting a crime could affect one's legal standing is unconstitutional intimidation.
- Retaliation for Exercising Legal Rights (T.C.A. § 39-16-510) – Retaliating against someone for filing a complaint is a criminal act.

Sheriff Ball's Statement #3:

"You came in today to file perjury reports on officers and the victim in the case that is pending against you."

🔎 Violations Identified:

- Misprision of Felony (18 U.S.C. § 4) – Perjury is a felony, and Sheriff Ball had a duty to act instead of dismissing the report.
- Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1512) – By refusing to investigate or process the report, he is concealing a crime.
- Selective Enforcement & Official Oppression (T.C.A. § 39-16-403) – If other felony reports are investigated but yours is ignored, it is selective enforcement.

Sheriff Ball's Statement #4:

"The courts will decide your innocence or guilt of the case you are charged in."

🔎 Violations Identified:

- Denial of Due Process (5th & 14th Amendments) – The right to file criminal complaints is independent of any pending charges.
- Brady Violation – The Sheriff's Department is refusing to process exculpatory evidence, violating Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

Sheriff Ball's Statement #5:

"I spoke to the DA about your complaint of perjury several weeks back and no one from the courts has made complaints of perjury in their courtroom against our officers, and this was asked by me personally and I have not been told any different."

🔎 Violations Identified:

- Collusion & Conspiracy (18 U.S.C. § 241) – Coordinating with the DA to suppress evidence and block criminal complaints constitutes conspiracy against rights.
- Official Misconduct (T.C.A. § 39-16-402) – Law enforcement has a duty to independently investigate criminal complaints, not defer to prosecutors.
- Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1503) – If the DA and Sheriff conspired to ignore perjury in court, it is a criminal cover-up.

Sheriff Ball's Statement #6:

"I assure you, if our officers had violated the law in their courtroom, they would most definitely advise me that it had happened."

🔎 Violations Identified:

- Fraudulent Misrepresentation (42 U.S.C. § 1983) – This statement falsely asserts that officers would report their own misconduct, which is a conflict of interest.
- Brady Violation – This statement suggests the Sheriff is suppressing contradictory evidence rather than investigating it.

Sheriff Ball's Statement #7:

"I will forward the documents to our county attorney and will seek his advice on your documents that you submitted today and go from there. I will also submit the documents to the DA's office as well for their opinion to see if they see anything."

🔎 Violations Identified:

- Failure to Investigate (T.C.A. § 39-16-402) – Law enforcement must act on probable cause, not seek an opinion from a prosecutor before investigating crimes.
- Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1512) – Deferring a criminal complaint to the DA for approval is deliberate inaction designed to suppress an investigation.

Good afternoon, I am not sure who provided you with the information of me meeting with your wife, but I have not met with her sir. However, I spoke to Sgt. Rodney Hazelwood about your complaint that you have requested to file today. If you will send me your number, I will have him call you and get the information from you or you can come by the office to file a report on the alleged incident that happened today. Once you get report filed, I will submit for a request of an investigation. Thank you.

The actual reporting law for perjury in TN and Federally

To: CJ Ball <cj.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Its all been sent to Deputy Hazelwood.
Thank you for your cooperation.

I have submitted this evidence previously and it was ignored. I am therefore requesting that you keep me updated on its handling and inform me who to contact next once the evidence is transferred. Many of these matters call for third-party intervention under state and federal law, including review by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Please be advised that I am 100% disabled ×2, and your handling of this matter must comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and all other statutory responsibilities and obligations applicable to these complaints.

This is way more than just perjury that needs to go to a DA. Your office should be able to deal with and take action

Thank you so much for your help. It will be noted that your trying to work with me to find some type of common ground.

Good morning, I spoke with the TBI agent yesterday and she advised me what to do for them to investigate my request. I have met with the DA James Dunn and his chief yesterday and they sent in the request for the TBI to investigate the complaint. The ASAC Agent will assign the case and they will keep me updated as they can throughout the process. Thank you.

Thank you for sharing this. I am a father of 3 kids, 1 starting college next week, a 2nd grader and a 16 month old. I can't tell you the feelings you have as I have not had that experience but I would be in the same boat as you are not been around them. I hold trust that the TBI will most definitely investigate this complaint as we have always had a great respect for that agency. They are always up to par in there positions and the director of the TBI, is one of the best you could find. Definitely been a lot of court this week for you and hopefully this will get resolved soon. We will see how this plays out with their investigation. They will stay in contact with me but will not reveal their investigation details as that keeps it all bias free and to make sure all parties don't have any interest in their investigation. Yes sir busy week couple of weeks but will hopefully slow down a little bit.

Good morning. Do you by chance have the name of the SSA investigator that you spoke to? Also, did she file this at the Morristown Office or do you know were she filed paperwork? I will reach out to them and discuss your claim with this investigator and will also make contact with TBI agent. Send me this information when you can or if you don't have it, I will see if I can make contact with someone.

Good evening. I have sent your email on your behalf to the TBI agent that's working your case that I had sent in a few weeks ago. I have also sent your email to an FBI agent to review and give guidance on what needs to be done. Your allegations of VA and Social Security fraud falls under federal law and the social security office is in Morristown. Once I get their response, that will give me a path to take and find the correct avenue to investigate your claim. That may include you filing a local report with our office if our jurisdiction allows, or allowing them to investigate your concern. Once I get information back from either agency, I will notify you asap.

2508-01414 Jeremy Black Submission of Criminal Complaint Evidence – Perjury, False Reporting, and Related Offenses

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Thu, Aug 14, 2025 at 4:25 PM
To: Rodney.hazelwood@cockecountytn.gov

Deputy Hazelwood,

At the direction of Sheriff C.J. Ball, I am formally submitting evidence to the Cocke County Sheriff's Department regarding acts of perjury and other criminal offenses committed in connection with ongoing legal proceedings in which I am a party.

This evidence includes sworn statements, court transcripts, and corresponding body-worn camera footage that directly contradict one another, demonstrating that false statements were knowingly made under oath in violation of T.C.A. § 39-16-702 (Perjury). These contradictions are material to the proceedings and have directly influenced judicial outcomes affecting my liberty, reputation, and parental rights.

I have attached additional documentation. Please review the 5-minute snippet video first, as it is highly compelling. The videos are provided as secure links due to file size, and the Sheriff's Department already has copies on hand if needed. This complaint is for multiple offenses, including but not limited to: false reporting, perjury, evidence tampering, conspiracy, official misconduct, falsification of documents, and domestic assault.

I have submitted this evidence previously and it was ignored. I am therefore requesting that you keep me updated on its handling and inform me who to contact next once the evidence is transferred. Many of these matters call for third-party intervention under state and federal law, including review by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Please be advised that I am 100% disabled ×2, and your handling of this matter must comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and all other statutory responsibilities and obligations applicable to these complaints.

As you are aware, perjury is a Class A misdemeanor or Class D felony in Tennessee, depending on the context and impact of the false statements. Law enforcement has both the authority and the duty to take a criminal complaint for these offenses, generate an incident report, and forward it to the District Attorney's Office for review and prosecution.

I request that this evidence be logged as an official complaint with the Cocke County Sheriff's Department, assigned a case number, and processed in accordance with Tennessee law. Please provide written confirmation that these materials have been received, logged, and forwarded to the appropriate prosecutorial authority.

This matter is also part of my pending federal civil rights lawsuit in the United States District Court, and I am preserving this communication and all related materials for that record as well. Failure to process a valid criminal complaint may itself constitute misconduct under Tennessee law.

Please let me know that you have received this email.

respectfully submitted,

Jeremy Black

Good afternoon, I have attached the warrant capias that was issued by Sessions Court on the August 4th arrest. I have the body cam officer working on getting me the August 4th footage. That will be sent to you directly this week from Corey Ball, the Assistant Jail Administrator. He said it will have the instructions how to open it. Yes sir, your case of request is submitted to TBI for investigation. I have read your email, and the TBI is requested by the DA office for them to open an investigation. I did request the TBI to investigate the case and contacted them personally but was directed to get the letter submitted by the DA office which I did and confirmed they did. When I find out who the agent is this week, I will directly send your contact information to them so they can contact you if needed.

Your Duty as Sheriff – Evidence, Children, and the Law

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Sun, Aug 24, 2025 at 6:04 PM
To: CJ Ball <CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Sheriff Ball,

April Devotie already has my requests, including my driver's license, and all the information needed to email me the August 4, 2024 bodycam videos. I also attached the original request again here. I've submitted this multiple times. I even handed back the USB drive to April because it didn't work. To date, I still haven't received the footage or the warrant.

I also went through Sessions Court myself — the clerks opened my physical files and couldn't find the warrant either. Deputy Ellison was kind enough to print me a receipt showing my 33-hour stay. It happened. Yet the records are missing.

That makes your recent emails misleading. They appear designed to make it look like you are helping, when really all you've done is defer to Jimmy Dunn. Sheriff, the Tennessee Code is clear: there is no law that allows you to "do nothing." I opened up to you about how I felt.

My Notice to You

I am placing you formally on notice regarding your obligations under Tennessee law as Sheriff of Cocke County. Based on bodycam footage, courtroom audio, CPS reports, and sworn statements, your office has evidence of:

- Perjury
- Official misconduct
- Child abuse
- Suppression of public records

Meanwhile, my children continue to suffer.

You've told me you must wait on the DA or TBI. That is not true. As Sheriff, you have your own duty to act:

- T.C.A. § 8-8-201: Your job is to "ferret out crime" and enforce the laws. That doesn't mean waiting on someone else.
- T.C.A. § 37-1-403 and § 37-1-605: Anyone who knows of child abuse must report it immediately. You already have the evidence. You are required to act now.
- T.C.A. § 39-16-402 and § 39-16-403: It is a crime for an official to ignore duties or block someone's rights.
- Precedent (Brady, Giglio, Merriman): Courts have made it clear — hiding or withholding evidence is unconstitutional.

If bodycam footage, CPS reports, and sworn testimony confirm abuse, false arrests, and lies, then you cannot claim it's "not your role." The law says it is.

Your Potential Exposure

By continuing to delay, you risk liability for:

- Official Misconduct (T.C.A. § 39-16-402)
- Official Oppression (T.C.A. § 39-16-403)
- Conspiracy to Obstruct Justice (T.C.A. § 39-12-103)

- Failure to Report Child Abuse (T.C.A. § 37-1-605)

My Children

Sheriff, this isn't about me anymore — it's about my children. You know as well as I do what happens when children cry for help and are ignored. They break down. They lose trust. Sometimes they turn to darker paths.

You were the first one who broke the silence and showed me you still have a conscience. That's why I'm asking you directly: Do not let my children — or this county — pay the price for inaction.

Final Note

If you and others are waiting for me to abandon my federal lawsuit to gain access to my children, you are miscalculating. The lawsuit exists because of this inaction.

I've begged, pleaded, and made offers to attorneys to end this. The answer has always been delay and technicalities. Where does the buck stop? With you, Sheriff Ball. You have the evidence. You have the authority. You also have the duty.

Respectfully,
Jeremy Black
(423) 465-2517

⚖️ Authorities Cited:

- T.C.A. § 8-8-201 (Duties of sheriff)
- T.C.A. § 10-7-503 et seq. (Public Records Act)
- T.C.A. § 37-1-403, § 37-1-605 (Mandatory child abuse reporting)
- T.C.A. § 39-16-402 (Official misconduct)
- T.C.A. § 39-16-403 (Official oppression)
- T.C.A. § 39-12-103 (Conspiracy to obstruct justice)
- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963)
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972)
- State v. Merriman, 410 S.W.3d 779 (Tenn. 2013)

I am looking forward to your answer or no answer at all. Before I file my federal brief to let the court know that you're still misleading and quoting fake laws, while my children are being abused.

you know what is mentioned a lot is "what would any reasonable person believe to be outrageous conduct" I know this to be true from responses I've received from my few posts. I am positive I will have more overwhelming evidence of this being true by next sunday.

If you would like to see the letter from the judge in the federal case, it states "I have an understanding of the law" or the part about "me being fully capable to litigate in Federal Court". Your lawyer has a copy. Bet you or anyone you know has a letter like that. Every attorney I showed it to were completely set back. over 200 years of experiece no one has seen or heard of one from a Federal Judge.

I also know that Judge Strange told me charges can not come from him, it has to be you, he can't control sheriff Ball's decision. Firmly placing the ball in your court in a recorded court hearing. Judge Strange also stated that credibility was an issue. I would safely say that he most likely could sign any warrants you have to end this and quit wasting the court's time.He is tired of seeing and hearing me just like you and everyone else envolved.

Legal Responsibilities of the Cocke County Sheriff's Department & DA's Office Before Grand Jury Review – February 25, 2025

Deputy Josh Smith's statement under oath that "his only job was to identify the threat at the scene" is legally inaccurate and does not align with Tennessee law or federal law.

Furthermore, both Lt. Zack Magourik and Deputy Austin Kress testified under oath in court that they were merely "observers" on July 6, 2024. However, bodycam footage directly contradicts their testimony, as both officers were actively involved in the decision-making process that led to my arrest.

Even more concerning is that Deputy Kress's name appears at the top of the police report, yet Deputy Smith wrote the statement for him. This suggests:

- Deputy Kress falsely minimized his involvement in court, contradicting official records.
- Deputy Smith, rather than Kress, authored the official statement, raising serious questions about its authenticity and whether Kress even reviewed or verified the content before signing off on it.
- If Kress was truly an observer, why was his name attached to the police report as if he was the primary reporting officer?

🚨 The Grand Jury is Scheduled to Meet for My Case on February 25, 2025.
Withholding exculpatory evidence before or during this proceeding would violate several state and federal laws and constitute prosecutorial and law enforcement misconduct. Below is a breakdown of these violations, along with supporting case law.

I. Laws Requiring Disclosure of Exculpatory Evidence to the Grand Jury

1. Tennessee Law: Duty to Disclose Exculpatory Evidence to the Grand Jury (T.C.A. § 40-12-104)

✔ Prosecutors and law enforcement are required to disclose any material evidence that is favorable to the accused before the grand jury meets.
✔ Knowingly withholding or failing to disclose exculpatory evidence can result in case dismissal or sanctions against the prosecutor.

🚨 How This Law Applies Here:

- Bodycam footage contradicting Teshia Black's Court testimony must be submitted.
- Conflicting statements made by deputies in court vs. on video must be presented.
- Exculpatory evidence, including Daniel's statement denying allegations, must be turned over.
- Exculpatory evidence, including Deputy Smith instructing Teshia what to include and not include in her statement so deputy Smith can make charges stick with his own special touch.

🔹 Precedent: State v. Bolden, 979 S.W.2d 587 (Tenn. 1998) – A prosecutor's failure to disclose exculpatory evidence before a grand jury was grounds for case dismissal.

---

2. Tennessee Law: Criminal Consequences for Suppressing Evidence (T.C.A. § 39-16-503 – Tampering with or Fabricating Evidence)

✔ It is a felony for a public official to knowingly conceal or withhold evidence from a grand jury.
✔ Any attempt to mislead the grand jury by presenting only one-sided evidence is a violation.

🚨 How This Law Applies Here:

- ADA Nik Kear and the Sheriff's Department must present all evidence—including bodycam contradictions and perjury—to the grand jury.
- Failure to do so would constitute evidence tampering.

🔹 Precedent: State v. Spradlin, 12 S.W.3d 502 (Tenn. 2000) – Withholding evidence that could change the outcome of a grand jury decision is unlawful.

---

3. Federal Law: Prosecutors Have a Duty to Disclose Exculpatory Evidence to the Grand Jury (Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83, 1963)

✔ The Supreme Court ruled that prosecutors must disclose exculpatory evidence at all stages of the legal process, including grand jury proceedings.
✔ Failure to disclose material evidence that favors the accused is a violation of the 14th Amendment Due Process Clause.

🚨 How This Law Applies Here:

- Any failure by the DA's Office to provide grand jurors with exculpatory evidence violates due process.
- ADA Kear has a constitutional duty to ensure that false or misleading statements are corrected before a grand jury hearing.

🔹 Precedent: United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976) – Prosecutors must disclose material exculpatory evidence, even if the defense does not request it.

---

4. Federal Law: Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242)

✔ It is a federal crime for any official acting under color of law to deprive someone of their constitutional rights.
✔ Knowingly withholding exculpatory evidence that could impact a grand jury decision is a violation.

🚨 How This Law Applies Here:

- If ADA Kear fails to provide exculpatory evidence, he is knowingly using his position to influence the grand jury unfairly.
- The Sheriff's Department's failure to provide complete and accurate information is a federal offense.

🔹 Precedent: United States v. Lanier, 520 U.S. 259 (1997) – A government official can be criminally prosecuted for civil rights violations when they knowingly act unlawfully under color of law.

---

5. Federal Law: Conspiracy to Obstruct Justice (18 U.S.C. § 241)

✔ It is a crime for two or more people to conspire to prevent justice from being served by suppressing evidence.
✔ Law enforcement and prosecutors are required to act in good faith when presenting cases to a grand jury.

🚨 How This Law Applies Here:

- If the Sheriff's Department and ADA Kear conspire to keep certain evidence from the grand jury, they are obstructing justice.
- Any official involved in the cover-up could face federal criminal charges.

🔹 Precedent: Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) – Even state actors can be held liable for federal conspiracy if they knowingly participate in obstructing justice.

II. Legal Consequences of Withholding Exculpatory Evidence Before the Grand Jury

If ADA Nik Kear or the Cocke County Sheriff's Department fail to disclose exculpatory evidence on February 25, 2025, they will be in violation of multiple laws, including:

✔ T.C.A. § 40-12-104 – Failure to provide evidence before a grand jury.
✔ T.C.A. § 39-16-503 – Tampering with or fabricating evidence.
✔ Brady v. Maryland (1963) – Due Process violations for withholding exculpatory material.
✔ 18 U.S.C. § 242 – Deprivation of rights under color of law.
✔ 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy to obstruct justice.

🚨 Failure to comply with these laws could result in:

- Dismissal of charges.
- Civil lawsuits for constitutional violations.
- Criminal prosecution of responsible officials.

I can not wait until they lie in Circuit court in front of a Judge and a Jury.

Cool thing is they lied about lies, they will have no choice but to perjure themselves.

Thank you
Jeremy Black

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Thu, Mar 13, 2025 at 1:44 PM
To: CJ Ball <CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Sheriff Ball,

I want to bring to your attention the legal exposure you are now facing in light of recent developments, documented evidence, and federal laws concerning corruption and racketeering (RICO).

At this point, the Cocke County Sheriff's Office, the DA's Office, and multiple officials have engaged in a coordinated effort to: ✓ Engage in a conspiracy to knowingly use false testimony and suppressed evidence to wrongfully prosecute a citizen.

✓ Suppress criminal complaints against corrupt officials.

✓ Obstruct justice by refusing to investigate perjury, fabrications, and civil rights violations.

Your department has already refused to allow me to file criminal reports several times, a direct violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1510 (Obstruction of Criminal Investigations) and T.C.A. § 39-16-403 (Official Oppression). The bodycam footage, court audio, and public records clearly show misconduct, perjury, and fabrication of evidence involving multiple officers and officials.

At this stage, this is no longer just about one wrongful case—it is about an organized pattern of misconduct, suppression, and cover-up. Under 18 U.S.C. § 1962 (RICO), a pattern of criminal acts—including perjury, obstruction, and conspiracy—committed by multiple officials within a government entity can be prosecuted under federal racketeering laws.

What This Means for You Personally

As Sheriff, you have two choices:

1️⃣ Continue to obstruct and suppress evidence, making yourself complicit in the violations of law. This puts you at risk of federal charges, personal liability, and potential civil rights lawsuits.

2️⃣ Come forward as a cooperating witness, which historically leads to leniency for those who provide evidence first.

✓ The first government official to turn witness in a corruption case is usually offered the best deal.

✓ Those who delay or try to cover up wrongdoing typically face full prosecution, fines, and civil liability.

✓ Under federal whistleblower laws, you can protect yourself by providing testimony and evidence of corruption within your department and the DA's office.

This is an opportunity for you to step forward and take corrective action before the DOJ and FBI step in.

I strongly encourage you to consider the legal consequences of continuing on the current path. Once federal agencies begin an investigation, there will be no immunity for those who obstruct justice or remain silent.

I will be submitting my full RICO-based complaint and legal motions to Circuit Court, the FBI, and the DOJ in the coming days. I urge you to reevaluate your position and choose the side of truth before it is too late.

Let me know if you would like to discuss this further.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Black

How Corruption is Part of Your Case

Your case involves corruption at multiple levels within the Cocke County legal system, law enforcement, and prosecution. Corruption is deeply embedded in how your charges were brought, how evidence was handled, and how officials obstructed justice. Here's a breakdown of how corruption plays a role:

---

1. Law Enforcement Corruption: Perjury, Fabrication of Evidence, & Suppression of Reports

🚨 Key Players:

- Deputy Josh Smith, Lt. Zach Magourik, Deputy Austin Kress, Detective Josh Hall, Assistant Sheriff Chuck Evans, Sheriff C.J. Ball
- Cocke County Sheriff's Department as an agency

📌 How It Happened:

✓ False Reports & Perjury: Deputies knowingly made false statements in police reports and in court, contradicting bodycam footage and court audio.

✓ Fabricated Charges: Witness statements were manipulated, and false probable cause was created to justify your arrest.

✓ Suppressed Criminal Complaints: Sheriff Ball blocked your attempts to file perjury and official misconduct complaints against officers and witnesses.

🔹 Legal Violations:

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 – Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law
- T.C.A. § 39-16-703 – Aggravated Perjury
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 – Witness Tampering & Obstruction

Case Law Support:

Mooney v. Holohan, 294 U.S. 103 (1935) – Government officials cannot knowingly present false testimony.

Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972) – The prosecution must disclose credibility issues of officers who perjure themselves.

---

2. Prosecutorial Corruption: Brady Violations, Selective Prosecution, & Malicious Prosecution

🚨 Key Players:

- Assistant DA Nick Kear, DA Jimmy Dunn
- Cocke County District Attorney's Office as an entity

📌 How It Happened:

✓ Brady Violations: The DA's Office knowingly withheld exculpatory bodycam footage, court audio, and contradictory witness statements from the grand jury and defense.

✓ Selective Prosecution: The DA ignored perjury and official misconduct by law enforcement while aggressively pursuing false charges against you.

✓ Collusion with Law Enforcement: The DA's office coordinated with Sheriff Ball to ensure no charges were brought against corrupt officers and witnesses.

🔹 Legal Violations:

- Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) – Failure to disclose exculpatory evidence violates due process.
- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy Against Rights
- T.C.A. § 39-16-402 – Official Misconduct

Case Law Support:

United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976) – Even if the defense does not request specific evidence, it must be disclosed if it is exculpatory.

United States v. Cotton, 535 U.S. 625 (2002) – If a case is built on falsehoods and misconduct, the court must dismiss it.

---

3. Courtroom Corruption: Obstruction of Justice & Due Process Violations

🚨 Key Players:

- Circuit Court Judge Moore, Court Clerks, DA's Office

📌 How It Happened:

✓ Judicial Misconduct: The judge failed to formally solicit a plea from you, violating procedural fairness.

✓ Obstruction of Justice: The court refused to acknowledge perjury, fabricated evidence, and the suppression of your right to file complaints.

✓ Violations of Your Pro Se Rights: You were denied equal access to justice because you are representing yourself.

🔹 Legal Violations:

- 18 U.S.C. § 1503 – Obstruction of Justice
- 42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Civil Rights Violations
- T.C.A. § 39-16-403 – Official Oppression

Case Law Support:

Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) – Judges and government officials who block due process can be held liable under civil rights laws.

Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. 137 (1803) – No government official can arbitrarily deny legal recourse or due process.

---

4. RICO Violations: The Enterprise of Corrupt Officials Working Together

🚨 Key Players:

- Sheriff Ball, Deputy Smith, Lt. Magourik, DA Nick Kear, DA Jimmy Dunn, Assistant Sheriff Chuck Evans
- Cocke County Sheriff's Office & DA's Office as corrupt entities

📌 How It Happened:

✓ Pattern of Racketeering Activity: Multiple crimes committed by multiple government officials over an extended period show a pattern of corruption.

✓ Enterprise Conducting Illegal Acts: Law enforcement, prosecutors, and court officials worked together to manipulate the system against you.

✓ Obstruction & Conspiracy: Officials coordinated to fabricate charges, block evidence, and prevent investigations.

🔹 Legal Violations:

- 18 U.S.C. § 1962 (RICO) – Organized criminal activity through corruption
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 – Witness tampering & preventing lawful complaints
- T.C.A. § 39-12-103 – Conspiracy to commit unlawful acts

Case Law Support:

United States v. Turkette, 452 U.S. 576 (1981) – RICO applies to government agencies that function as corrupt enterprises.

Reves v. Ernst & Young, 507 U.S. 170 (1993) – Any official who knowingly participates in a corrupt scheme can be held liable under RICO.

Applying RICO to Your Case: Overcoming the Threshold for Racketeering & Corruption Charges

Your case does meet the threshold for invoking RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1961-1968) because multiple officials, prosecutors, and law enforcement officers conspired to violate your rights through repeated criminal acts.

RICO is typically used in organized crime cases, but courts have recognized government corruption and systemic misconduct as RICO violations when they involve:

✓ An enterprise – A group working together toward illegal goals.

✓ A pattern of racketeering activity – At least two or more predicate acts within a 10-year period.

✓ A common purpose to violate the law – The individuals involved must work together in furtherance of criminal activity.

I. RICO Elements That Apply to Your Case

1. The Enterprise: A Corrupt Network of Public Officials & Law Enforcement

- The Cocke County Sheriff's Office, District Attorney's Office, and select private individuals acted as an enterprise.
- The group includes Sheriff C.J. Ball, ADA Nick Kear, DA Jimmy Dunn, Deputies Smith, Magourik, Kress, and Detective Hall, along with private individuals Teshia Black, Tammy Webb, and Diane Parker.
- They worked together to obstruct justice, fabricate charges, and suppress exculpatory evidence to secure a wrongful conviction and protect their own misconduct.

Case Law Support: United States v. Turkette, 452 U.S. 576 (1981) – A government office can be an "enterprise" under RICO when it engages in illegal conduct.

2. The Pattern of Racketeering Activity (Two or More Criminal Acts Committed in Furtherance of the Scheme)

RICO requires at least two predicate criminal acts within a 10-year span. Your case meets this standard through:

✓ Perjury (18 U.S.C. § 1621, T.C.A. § 39-16-702 & 703) – Deputy Smith, Lt. Magourik, Kress, and Teshia Black provided knowingly false statements in court and police reports.

✓ Obstruction of Justice (18 U.S.C. § 1503, 1512, 1519) – The DA and law enforcement refused to accept criminal complaints and suppressed bodycam evidence that contradicted their case.

✓ Brady Violations (Suppression of Evidence, Due Process Violations) – DA Kear along with District Attorney's office withheld exculpatory video, court audio, and police reports proving misconduct.

✓ Conspiracy Against Rights (18 U.S.C. § 241) – Law enforcement and the DA conspired to fabricate charges and prevent you from accessing justice.

✓ Official Oppression (T.C.A. § 39-16-403) – Sheriff Ball, deputies, and the DA selectively enforced the law to protect perjury and suppress your reports.

✓ Wire Fraud & Honest Services Fraud (18 U.S.C. § 1341 & 1346) – Public officials used their positions to defraud the judicial process and deprive you of fair legal proceedings.

Case Law Support: Reves v. Ernst & Young, 507 U.S. 170 (1993) – Any officials or individuals who knowingly further a corrupt scheme can be liable under RICO.

II. How Your Case Surpasses the RICO Threshold

A. The Government Actors Coordinated Their Efforts to Violate Your Rights

- Law enforcement, prosecutors, and key witnesses worked together to ensure:
    1. False testimony resulted in criminal charges.
    2. Bodycam footage and court audio contradicting those charges were hidden.

3. Your attempts to report perjury and conspiracy were blocked.

This is classic RICO behavior—multiple people working in a structured way to commit repeat criminal acts.

B. The Misconduct Spanned Multiple Legal Violations & Agencies

- The misconduct occurred at multiple levels – The DA's office, law enforcement, and courts all engaged in suppression, selective enforcement, and perjury.
- The actions were not isolated—they followed a structured pattern to suppress your rights and protect misconduct.

Case Law Support: Boyle v. United States, 556 U.S. 938 (2009) – RICO applies when individuals act as part of a structured and coordinated illegal scheme.

C. There Was a Financial & Political Benefit to the Corrupt Enterprise

- DA Jimmy Dunn and ADA Nick Kear benefit from wrongful prosecutions to maintain high conviction rates.
- The Sheriff's Office benefits financially from criminal cases (fees, federal grants, etc.).
- Protecting perjury and blocking complaints ensures no accountability.

III. Potential Legal Actions & Remedies Under RICO

🚨 Because your case meets the RICO threshold, you can pursue the following:

1. File a Motion to Dismiss Based on RICO-Level Corruption
   - Argue that RICO predicate acts (perjury, obstruction, conspiracy) make a fair trial impossible.
   - Demand a special hearing to present RICO evidence.
2. File a Federal RICO Complaint to the DOJ & FBI

- Demand a federal investigation into the criminal enterprise inside the DA's Office and Sheriff's Department.
- Emphasize coordinated efforts to violate civil rights, suppress evidence, and obstruct justice.

3. File a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Lawsuit for Civil Rights Violations
   - Sue the DA, law enforcement, and witnesses for conspiracy under RICO and civil rights law.
   - Seek monetary damages and federal intervention.
4. Move for Sanctions & Disqualification of the DA & Sheriff's Office
   - Argue that a corrupt prosecution cannot ethically continue the case.
   - Request that the case be reassigned to a special prosecutor.

IV. Conclusion: Your Case & the Bigger Picture of RICO-Level Corruption

Your case exceeds the threshold for RICO violations because it involves:

✓ A network of government actors acting as an enterprise.

✓ Multiple predicate acts (perjury, obstruction, conspiracy, Brady violations).

✓ A pattern of illegal conduct spanning multiple agencies.

✓ A common goal—suppressing evidence, securing wrongful charges, and blocking complaints.

---

5. The Cover-Up: Blocking Criminal Complaints & Retaliation

🚨 Key Players:

- Sheriff Ball, Cocke County Sheriff's Office, DA's Office

📌 How It Happened:

✓ Sheriff Ball refused to let you file criminal complaints against officials and witnesses who committed perjury.

✓ DA's Office refused to prosecute corrupt officials but aggressively pursued false charges against you.

✓ Retaliation for Exercising Your Rights: Your criminal complaints were blocked because you exposed corruption and misconduct.

🔹 Legal Violations:

- 18 U.S.C. § 1503 – Obstruction of justice for blocking reports of criminal activity.
- 18 U.S.C. § 1510 – Criminal penalties for interfering with lawful complaints.
- T.C.A. § 39-16-510 – Retaliation for reporting official misconduct.

Case Law Support:

Wayte v. United States, 470 U.S. 598 (1985) – The government cannot prosecute individuals while ignoring similar offenses by others.

Garrity v. New Jersey, 385 U.S. 493 (1967) – Government officials cannot retaliate against individuals for exercising their legal rights.

🚨 Bottom Line: Your Case is Built on Government Corruption

The Cocke County Sheriff's Office, DA's Office, and certain court officials conspired to fabricate charges, suppress evidence, obstruct justice, and violate your constitutional rights.

✓ Law enforcement fabricated evidence and perjured themselves.

✓ The DA's Office suppressed exculpatory evidence and selectively prosecuted you.

✓ The court failed to uphold due process and ignored Brady violations.

✓ Officials conspired to obstruct justice, forming a corrupt enterprise that meets RICO standards.

I HAVE 100% DOCUMENTED EVIDENCE THAT DIRECTLY PROVES ALL OF THIS, WITH ACTUAL FEDERAL AND STATE LAWS.

DID YOUR ADVISORS COME UP WITH ANY LEGAL ADVICE FOR YOU OR MY COMPLAINTS?

YOU TOOK AN OATH, AND EVERYTHING YOU HAVE DONE DIRECTLY CONTRADICTS YOUR OATH AND THE REASON YOU WERE ELECTED SHERIFF.

MY OATH IS STILL INTACT IS YOURS?

Clarification on Origin of False Allegations and Triggering of Criminal Complaint

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Tue, Apr 15, 2025 at 12:08 PM
To: CJ Ball <CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Dear Sheriff Ball,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to clarify and document the very first falsehood that initiated the chain of events leading to my wrongful arrest on July 6, 2024.

Rather than calling 911 during the alleged incident, Teshia Black first contacted her best friend of over 45 years, Diane Parker. Teshia falsely claimed that I had physically attacked both her and our son, Daniel. She deliberately made the claim to someone she knew would contact the police immediately, particularly because it involved an allegation of child abuse.

As expected, Diane Parker called law enforcement, not as a direct witness, but based solely on Teshia's narrative. When Diane arrived at the scene, she arrived after the incident and was not a witness to anything firsthand. Yet on bodycam footage, Diane states that I "held Daniel down"—an accusation that directly aligns with what Teshia allegedly told her before any officers were present.

However, this is precisely the point in the bodycam footage when Deputy Josh Smith is captured on video explicitly stating to leave Daniel out of the report. Shortly after, he reiterates this instruction again, reinforcing that Daniel's statements contradicted Teshia's and that Daniel himself denied ever being pushed or physically restrained.

The only way Diane could have made the "held Daniel down" claim is by repeating what Teshia instructed her to say—not from any personal observation. This proves a deliberate and premeditated attempt by Teshia to manufacture a narrative and influence the responding deputies, including Deputy Smith.

This moment is the foundation of my entire criminal case. It was built on a lie, passed through a third party, reinforced by coordinated scripting, and codified into an arrest report only after Deputy Smith chose to exclude exculpatory evidence—particularly Daniel's statement clearing me.

I am sending you the short video clip that captures this key exchange.

As I've stated before, I am committed to a peaceful and just resolution. But my children's well-being and the truth matter most. I respectfully request that this message and evidence be shared with the District Attorney and County Attorney for full review.

Sincerely,
Jeremy Black

RE: Proposed Resolution – Criminal Case and Federal Civil Action

Sheriff Ball,

This letter is submitted in good faith with the intent to resolve all outstanding issues involving my criminal matter, the related federal civil rights lawsuit, and ongoing harm to my family. I respectfully ask that you present this letter to those with authority to negotiate on behalf of the District Attorney's Office and the County Attorney's Office.

I. Purpose and Priority

This is not about vengeance. My only priority is being reunited with my children. I have stated this clearly to your office, to the DA, and to the Court on numerous occasions: everything I'm doing is about what's in the best interest of my children.

They are being kept from me by manipulation, alienation, and outright lies—most of which were orchestrated by my estranged wife, Teshia Black, and proven by the bodycam footage, transcripts, and over 20 sworn exhibits.

II. The Reality

I recognize that deputies, ADA Nik Kear, and even your office were manipulated. I also recognize that mistakes were made—by people who likely believed they were acting lawfully. I don't want blood; I want accountability and restoration.

III. Proposed Resolution

In exchange for the following:

- Full and immediate restoration of my parental rights and time with my children;
- Agreement by the DA's Office to pursue prosecution of Teshia Black for her proven acts of perjury, filing false reports, and willful alienation;
- A formal acknowledgment of misconduct and violation of my due process rights, including the mishandling of video evidence, refusal to accept complaints, and unlawful arrests;

I will agree to:

- Voluntarily dismiss my federal civil rights lawsuit against Cocke County, the DA's Office, and the Sheriff's Department in exchange for a six-figure financial settlement;
- Release all claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, § 1985, and § 12132 (ADA violations);
- End all current and pending motions in Circuit Court relating to prosecutorial and law enforcement misconduct.

IV. Supporting Context

The attached transcript excerpt—used in a courtroom video—captures the essence of my entire position. It shows:

- Contradictions between Teshia's story and what Daniel said;
- Law enforcement ignoring exculpatory statements made during the bodycam encounter;
- Deputy Smith admitting he would "go with what will stick," rather than what actually occurred;
- Admission that Teshia left choking and child abuse details out of her written report because she lied to Deputy Smith, Her friend Diane, and the court;
- Confusion and conflicting statements made under oath during cross-examination.

This clip alone demonstrates the weight of my claims and the emotional, legal, and human cost these misrepresentations have caused—not only to me, but to my children.

V. Sheriff's Response to Felony Complaints

Sheriff, you have acknowledged receiving my formal felony complaints and made the following representations in your own words:

1. Initial Dismissal Due to Open Charges:

   "Sir, you have an open case in the courts for charges that were placed against you for domestic assault... I spoke to the DA about your complaint of perjury... I assure you, if our officers had violated the law in their courtroom, they would most definitely advise me that it had happened."

2. Promise to Contact External Agencies:

   "I will pull initial complaint when I get back to work and will follow up with your allegations. I will contact the TBI and FBI as well so I don't interfere with their investigation."

3. Referral to County Attorney:

   "I have sent all of your emails to our lawyer to provide a response to your request. Once they respond back to me, I will be in touch with you."

I appreciate that you acknowledged receipt of my filings and made representations about referring them to appropriate channels. However, as of today, I have received no follow-up, no investigative action, and no transparency from any agency regarding these felony-level allegations and supporting exhibits.

This video and transcript demonstrate that those complaints were not speculative—they were based on contradictions, omissions, and knowingly false statements. It is no longer a question of belief; it is now a matter of undisputed record.

Therefore, I am respectfully renewing this request for justice and accountability—not just for myself, but for the well-being of my children and the integrity of this system.

The attached transcript excerpt—used in a courtroom video—captures the essence of my entire position. It shows:

- Contradictions between Teshia's story and what Daniel said;
- Law enforcement ignoring exculpatory statements made during the bodycam encounter;
- Deputy Smith admitting he would "go with what will stick," rather than what actually occurred;
- Admission that Teshia left choking and child abuse details out of her written report; because she lied to Deputy Smith, Her friend Diane, and the court;
- Confusion and conflicting statements made under oath during cross-examination.

This clip alone demonstrates the weight of my claims and the emotional, legal, and human cost these misrepresentations have caused—not only to me, but to my children.

The video I previously submitted—based on the script you've received—captures everything I am asking for. It's not just legal. It's moral. It's human. I am not the man I was accused of being. The truth has always been on the record. Now, it's time for the system to reflect it.

V. Conclusion

This is a final opportunity to settle things without further litigation, publicity, or federal escalation. The people of Cocke County deserve closure. My children deserve their father. And the system deserves a chance to make it right.

I am open to an in-person meeting, mediation, or formal written reply.

Respectfully submitted,

Jeremy Black

Federal Lawsuit Filed Against Cocke County Officials – Civil Rights Violations and Misconduct

From: jeremyblackemail@gmail.com

Dear Mr. Ruthenberg,

I hope this message finds you well.

I am writing to update you on the federal civil rights lawsuit I filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee, Greeneville Division, under case number 2:25-cv-00002-DCLC-JEM, now presided over by Judge Charles E. Atchley Jr.

This lawsuit names multiple defendants including Sheriff C.J. Ball, Lt. Zach Magourik, Deputy Josh Smith, ADA Nik Kear, and others. The claims involve serious and well-documented civil rights violations, including:

- Abuse of power under color of law
- Perjury and falsified reports
- Suppression of exculpatory evidence
- Retaliation for protected speech and filings
- Obstruction of public records requests and complaint filings

The events leading to this suit include body cam evidence, audio transcripts, email correspondence from the Sheriff's Office, and sworn affidavits documenting misconduct from July 2024 through the present. Since filing the initial complaint in January 2025, I have submitted multiple supplemental motions and legal briefs with extensive supporting documentation.

This case has drawn interest from oversight agencies, and I believe the public deserves transparency and accountability from the offices that serve them. Given the public trust your publication holds in Cocke County, I would welcome the opportunity to provide documents and context for a potential feature or investigative piece.

Please let me know if you're interested in reviewing the timeline, legal filings, or supporting evidence.

All summons have been received by defendants.

Respectfully,

Continued Misconduct, Harassment, and Interference with Parental Rights

Sheriff Ball,

I have documented screenshots showing visits from you personally to my social media accounts. Is this part of an investigation I have not been informed about, or does it constitute stalking? Were you on duty or off duty? It makes a difference and a big deal.

I still cannot get past the “new” definition of double jeopardy that I was given by your office — it’s legally incorrect, and it seems to change depending on who I ask. The shifting explanations are concerning and will be addressed.

This activity, along with your actions and those of ADA Kear, will be submitted as additional evidence in my ongoing federal lawsuit. You both remain directly responsible for keeping me from my children, despite CPS stating in court this morning that the children want to speak with and see me. That is not only wrong — it is knowingly harmful to my children’s well-being.

The events this morning exposed more truth. It is only a matter of time before the full picture is made public.

I am urging you — again — to take action to stop the intentional harm being done to my children. Continuing down this path is indefensible, and I will keep pursuing all legal remedies until it stops. I will also continue to expose the truth publicly in every way I am capable of.

Here is a short snippet I created. The full length videos are in a judges safe in Greeneville. Please I am begging you, take another look at the court audio and video. Just double check that you do not see any crimes being committed?

The actual reporting law for perjury in TN and Federally

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Thu, Aug 14, 2025 at 6:23 PM
To: CJ Ball <cj.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Its all been sent to Deputy Hazelwood.
Thank you for your cooperation.

I have submitted this evidence previously and it was ignored. I am therefore requesting that you keep me updated on its handling and inform me who to contact next once the evidence is transferred. Many of these matters call for third-party intervention under state and federal law, including review by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Please be advised that I am 100% disabled ×2, and your handling of this matter must comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and all other statutory responsibilities and obligations applicable to these complaints.

This is way more than just perjury that needs to go to a DA. Your office should be able to deal with and take action

Thank you so much for your help. It will be noted that your trying to work with me to find some type of common ground.

When you have time I know your busy with a new shooting

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Wed, Aug 20, 2025 at 11:58 AM
To: CJ Ball <CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Sheriff Ball,

I just returned from Tennessee where I had three court dates in one week — Criminal Court on August 12, CPS Family Court on August 14, and Divorce Court on August 19, 2025.

Criminal Court went about as I expected, though it was hard to watch my former Public Defender unravel in front of Judge Moore. He literally begged to withdraw, turning the hearing into a spectacle. At the same time, Mr. Kear pressed me hard to “get a lawyer” while he and Thornton continue suppressing and obstructing, even admitting they know about felonies and perjury. The evidence is clear on audio and video, yet no one steps forward to correct it. My case has turned into a circus — and while they play games, my children suffer.

CPS Family Court was worse. Though the matter was dismissed, I learned my daughter Brynley had already tried to reach out back in March to stop the abuse coming from Teshia. Instead of being protected, the children were shuffled to a new counselor — handpicked by her divorce attorney, Crystal Jesse — a man openly disliked and distrusted even inside that courtroom. Which means when my children cry for help, their voices are locked away behind closed doors.

And the most crushing part? Teshia was told only to “slow down” when using a belt — not to stop. My kids are still being beaten every day. And because of fabricated charges against me, I can’t reach them. They know I’ve been to court three times to fight for them, and each time I walked out empty-handed. Children notice when authority breaks down. They notice when no one protects them. And you and I both know what happens inside kids that age — 10 and 12 — when that happens. They start to shut down. They break inside. Too often, they turn toward the darker side of life.

It’s already happening. Brynley has been pulled from activities after telling her friends what was going on at home. Gabriel won’t even talk to CPS anymore. He’s sad, quiet, and carrying more than any 10-year-old should.

Then came Divorce Court. I had hope something could change there. Instead, I was warned by my attorney that if I reported the abuse, my kids could end up in foster care. Sheriff, imagine hearing that. Imagine knowing your children are crying for help, being beaten and silenced, and then being told that if you speak out, they might be taken away forever. That’s a cruel trap for any father. I cried most of the eight-hour drive back to Ohio.

I was told Jimmy Dunn is now “involved.” Sheriff, I’ll be honest — I don’t trust him. The DA’s office, Deputy Smith, Deputy Magourik, Deputy Kress, and Teshia Black are at the root of all this.

My wife lied to all three deputies. When her lies didn’t match a witness’s statement, Deputy Smith created a new narrative that would stick and instructed her to get a Protection Order built on it — with no investigation, as was later admitted in court. The DA’s office even instructed your department not to release public records or take any statements from me. That’s not law enforcement, that’s cover-up.

On January 22, 2025 — the same day my federal lawsuit became public — I told the court flat out that witnesses lied under oath and I would prove it. Kear retaliated immediately, requesting an ankle monitor as punishment. Later, in circuit court on two separate hearings ADA Thornton stood up in open court not once, but twice, and admitted she knew about the perjury and felonies but would do nothing to correct it. And what about the Grand Jury? I’d bet everything I’ve lost that Kear and Teshia both lied and let perjury stand uncorrected — even when he had evidence in his hands.

Teshia has testified under oath in every forum possible: to deputies, in sworn police statements, on the Protection Order, in Sessions Court, in front of the Grand Jury, and in CPS Family Court. She’s changed her story at least five times. She even went back to her original lie from July 6, 2024 — the one Smith told her to leave out — and still denied in court ever saying it. It’s perjury after perjury, and yet she’s been rewarded with money, protection, and power.

She took those fraudulent documents to Social Security and changed my benefits. She now lives in luxury, collecting over $8,000 per month from what I earned, while I live on less than $1,200 and remain homeless. She knows the day we are divorced she loses everything, so she stretches this out with more lies and perjury, supported by the DA’s office.

And the deputies? Smith lies, ruins lives, commits perjury, and still walks proud. His behavior around my wife, her sister, and her friend made clear he was more interested in looking like a hero to lure them in than enforcing the law. Rumors say he has had sexual encounters in his patrol car while on duty. He's even accused fellow deputies of misconduct to cover himself — destroying a young deputy's career in the process. He is a predator, and Sheriff, you know as well as I do, predators only get worse when they're protected.

Magourik isn't clean either. I've uncovered ties to a well-known family drug dealer who lives across from him, and I've seen his bias against military veterans, likely because he was rejected by the military. On August 4, 2024, every bit of evidence — bodycam from seven deputies, warrants, reports — magically disappeared. That false arrest was orchestrated from the top, with a letter sent straight to Teshia from the DA's office.

Sheriff, I need you to hear this not as part of a system, but as a father. My children are breaking down while the DA's office and deputies hand out free passes to liars, predators, and abusers. My campaigns have already brought forward others who've been intimidated, falsely arrested, and silenced by this county. Too many stories to ignore.

You were the first to break the silence and offer me help. That told me you still have a conscience, that you're still a father who understands what's at stake. That's why I'm writing to you this way.

But, If you're telling me the two most powerful law enforcement officials in Cocke County can't do more than contact the TBI — then I have to ask you, man to man, father to father: How fast would you act if it were your children?

With respect,
Jeremy Black

You are in charge of both our futures, your personal decision as Sheriff is important, but as for now this is what's happening.

The BUCK will stop, with you or in federal court.

You know I do not Lie, Bluff or make threats. It goes a long way in court with evidence and complete transparency.

Once someone is publicly Branded as a liar in court, the future is reshuffled and there is no longer any credibility.

It looks like we are going to let this play out in both court and on social media. You have refused to carry out your duties, responsibilities, and obligations under Tennessee and federal law.

After more than a year, I am no closer to seeing my children. Meanwhile, you are directly responsible for allowing their abuse to continue.

Teshia Black has committed perjury on sworn police reports, in securing an order of protection, in open court on multiple occasions, to CPS, and on the record while actively abusing our children. She has had me arrested twice on false accusations and admitted to friends and family that she tried multiple other times to have me arrested.

You already have in your possession concrete evidence that proves all of this. You also have undeniable evidence of misconduct by Deputies Smith and Magourik.

I do not know why you choose to protect these people, and I do not care why. What matters is this: you have broken the law and failed in your duty to protect the innocent. You have been negligent at the highest level, and in doing so, you have placed the futures of my children — and your own career — at risk.

1. The Tennessee Constitution (Art. XI, Sec. 8) prohibits local governments from enacting rules that conflict with general state law.

T.C.A. § 8-8-201 sets out the duties of every sheriff in Tennessee — including Cocke County. These are statewide mandates, not suggestions.

Any “policy” or “procedure” that instructs deputies to ignore those duties would itself be illegal and unenforceable.

---

2. Sheriffs Cannot Use the DA as a Shield

Ball claims he must “go through the DA” before requesting TBI or acting. That’s not supported by statute.

T.C.A. § 38-6-102 allows sheriffs to request TBI investigations independently, especially when a conflict of interest exists.

If the DA is implicated in misconduct (as you allege with Dunn and Kear), it is precisely then that the sheriff’s independent duties are triggered.

---

3. Public Records Can’t Be Suppressed by “Procedure”

The Tennessee Public Records Act (T.C.A. § 10-7-503 et seq.) guarantees public access to government records.

Courts have held repeatedly that local customs or policies cannot override the Act. If the record exists and isn’t exempt by law, it must be produced.

A sheriff claiming “pending litigation” as a blanket excuse is not a valid exemption under the statute.

---

4. Mandatory Child Abuse Reporting Has No Exceptions

T.C.A. §§ 37-1-403 and 37-1-605 impose a duty to immediately report suspected child abuse.

The law does not recognize “Cocke County procedure” as a valid reason to delay or refuse reporting.

A sheriff or deputy who ignores or delays reporting is personally liable and could face prosecution.

---

5. Case Law – Officials Can’t Hide Behind Policy

Brady v. Maryland (373 U.S. 83, 1963) and Giglio v. United States (405 U.S. 150, 1972): Suppression of evidence is unconstitutional, regardless of “office policy.”

State v. Merriman (410 S.W.3d 779, Tenn. 2013): Tennessee Supreme Court reaffirmed that suppression of exculpatory evidence undermines constitutional rights — no “procedure” can justify it.

Cooper v. Rutherford County (Tenn. Ct. App. 2004): Local rules that conflict with state statute are void.

---

6. Federal Overlay

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, “customs or policies” that violate rights are actionable.

If Ball tries to argue “that’s just how we do it in Cocke County,” that strengthens your federal case because it shows an unconstitutional policy or custom (Monell liability).

✅ Bottom Line:
Sheriff Ball cannot lawfully claim that Cocke County procedures override Tennessee statutes. If he does, it is either:

1. Ignorance of his statutory duties, or

2. Evidence of an unlawful custom or policy — which is exactly what federal courts look for in § 1983 cases.

If you think my legal knowledge has been difficult for you, wait until you see my real talent on the computer and internet. It is second to none. You will have a front row seat when I begin openly campaigning for your opponent. You do not deserve to be Sheriff, and the people of Cocke County deserve to know the truth about who they are voting for.

You may want to review the law on slander and defamation. Your office has attacked me at every level without a shred of truthful evidence. I, on the other hand, speak facts — backed by sworn testimony, court recordings, and hard evidence.

With the latest round of emails and court audio, I now have even more proof of a clear pattern of misconduct and conspiracy within your office. And please, do not insult me with any more invented “laws” and false procedures. “Double jeopardy” has been the most laughable excuse so far.

You are breaking the law. Not once, but repeatedly — probably across 20 or 30 separate statutes. All I need is 1. As Deputy Smith himself said on bodycam, “all you need is one to stick.” I already have more than enough.

I KNOW?...LOL

No need for you to reply. It will just be more BULLSHIT and evidence against you supporting child abuse.

Have a good day,
Jeremy Black

Good morning did you happen to find the laws where you are allowed to coverup child abuse and federal felonies? I would really like to show the TBI the laws. They did not know of any.

You should be contacting the FBI for federal crimes and civil rights violations. You must be scared or have something to hide. What a great example of a coward you are. You hide in your false reality, church, and the DA.

My children are suffering because of you refusing to act as a Sheriff.

Have a great day

Good Afternoon

Yes Teshia did it Morristown, on the phone, bank transfers took place in Cocke County, she withdrew and spent the money in Cocke County. then perjury, false statements and narrative took place in Cocke County, your coverup and refusal to take action happened in Cocke and it is a federal crime.

You have jurisdiction. So quit with the bullshit games, trying to once again defer your responsibility to someone else. You call yourself a sheriff but can't make independent decisions.

I told you I am not talking to them until this afternoon. Besides its 100% your responsibility and duty to report it and take action. Its not my responsibility to tell you anyone I talk to. I am being transparent.

I told you, in an email about federal felonies, and you replied. I did exactly what I am legally responsible and obligated to do as a US citizen and disabled Veteran keeping my oath in tact.

Teshia also tried doing this with my VA disability, She failed. I pay her bills totaling $4500 for my children. This is also a serious crime. While I remain homeless.

She gets $2500 from Social Security that is a total of over $7000, that she has been stealing from the Treasury Department over the past 13 months. The math is she has stolen over $100,000.

Teshia did this in August 2024 after my false arrest and injuries. This shows that she had intent, motive, and Premeditation.

So you can do something like your supposed to, or continue to be a cowardly oath breaker. Im hoping you continue with your very predictive pattern.

Remember the only evidence Dunn has is Teshia’s perjury and false statements for misdemeanors. This is completely insane.

I'm starting to believe that someone you know or even you must be in love with my estranged wife. It wouldn't take much to prove to a jury, with the evidence I have in my possession. Especially with secret meetings between you and Teshia that she anounced 3 times in court. Teshia also has predictive patterns over her life that are easily confirmed. Might even be considered habitual.

The military trained me to be vigilant, see patterns that happen, take notes, the pen is mightier than the sword, and how to teach and train myself to adapt and overcome, in any situation, environment, or setting 30 years ago.

Fortunately for you I have honed and perfected my skills because of over a dozen liars, and people like you and your gang of accessories and and fellow conspirators.

Its going to come down to who does their job better, me or you, I will be betting on me to prove all the federal and state felonies actually happened, all you need to prove is you did your job and you did nothing wrong.

All i need is 1 to stick and there are a couple dozen felonies I have reported directly to you. The list will continue to grow every week until you and your Rico Conspirators are held accountable.

You have a choice to end it today or in front of a jury. Either way your going to lose, it's just how bad it will be. Your patterns and choices have been well documented in 3 separate courts.

Brush up on your defamation and slander laws. Basically I can say whatever I want as long as I tell the truth and have evidence to back it up. It is an amazing law.

I really do enjoy being so transparent and open with you.

Make your choice, I'm very patient when when it comes to someone wanting to play FAFO.

Have a great day, I'll be waiting on a phone call to save my children. Child Abuse and Alienation are also huge factors in all 3 court cases.

OIG for VA AND THE OIG FOR SOCIAL SECURITY ARE OFFICIALLY INVOLVED COVER-UP OF FEDERAL FRAUD IS A SERIOUS SITUATION WHEN ITS OVER $100K. SOMEONE WILL BE ON THE HOOK FOR THAT MONEY.

also ATF AND FBI. KNOW ABOUT THREAT I RECEIVED FROM ARYIAN'S INVOLVING KID KNAPPING, MURDER, BONES, BLOOD, PREDUG GRAVES, ASHES FROM BURNT BODIES. ALSO SAID YOU CAN ORDER A HIT ANYTIME YOU WANT.

CAN YOU BELIEVE THEY SAID IT ON EMAIL AND RECORDED PHONE CALL.

I GOT NAMES ADDRESS AND MORE.

AGAIN WHAT DO YOU HAVE AS EVIDENCE AGAINST ME? TESHIA'S STATEMENT, WHAT JOKE.

YOU WILL NOT BE R-EELECTED YOU PIECE OF SHIT CORRUPT COWARD.

REMEMBER POSSIBLE MURDERS, DYNAMITE WITH FUSES AND BLASTING CAPS HAVE BEEN REPORTED TO YOU.

MY CHILDREN ARE NOW IN DANGER!

FUCK YOU and YOUR GROUP OF CONSPIRATORS FOR THE REST OF YOUR FUCKING LIVES.

Curious how everyone already knows I'm guilty

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Mon, Sep 15, 2025 at 11:37 PM
To: CJ Ball <CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

C.J.,
Funny thing — the lawyer for the CCSO sounds positively certain I'll be found guilty. That's confidence, huh? I'm wondering where that certainty comes from. Psychic powers? A crystal ball? Or maybe access to evidence the rest of us don't have?

Because from where I'm standing, the only thing the State really has is one person's story: Teshia Black's. A story that contradicts itself in sessions court, juvenile court, on bodycam, in police reports, in protection-order filings, with Social Security, and with the VA. Different versions everywhere. Meanwhile the witness who would corroborate her story literally denies it happened.

So if all you've got is that statement — that's not evidence, it's a house of cards.
I'll also note (for the record) that I have audio where judges deny my rights — repeatedly. That, combined with the level of certainty coming from your counsel, makes it hard not to wonder whether this whole thing runs deeper than a bad arrest and sloppy paperwork.

Smells fishy. Very fishy.

Anyway — I'm looking forward to discovery. I can't wait to put everyone under oath and see which version of the story survives the light.

Cheers (I know you'll be thrilled to hear that), Jeremy Black

Immediate Action Required: SSA Fraud, Perjury, and Child Abuse – Your Legal Duties to Investigate and Notify Federal Authorities

Jeremy Black <jeremyblackemail@gmail.com> Wed, Sep 3, 2025 at 9:37 PM
To: CJ Ball <CJ.ball@cockecountytn.gov>

Sheriff C.J. Ball,

This is a supplemental notice following our prior communications and my report to your office today concerning Social Security fraud by Teshia Black. TBI has already confirmed that these matters fall squarely within your obligations to act. You previously told me you “couldn’t do anything.” That is incorrect.

New/Clarified Criminal Conduct Reported Today

SSA Fraud via False Documents: Teshia Black took a false police report and a fraudulent Order of Protection to the Social Security Administration and had four children’s dependent benefits redirected into her account, changing the representative payee from me to her. This was accomplished using lies and perjury already in your files since July 6, 2024.

This conduct violates federal law, including:

42 U.S.C. § 408(a)(4) (false statements to obtain SSA benefits);

18 U.S.C. § 641 (theft of U.S. government funds);

18 U.S.C. § 1343 (wire fraud, if electronic submissions/transfers occurred);

18 U.S.C. § 2 (aiding and abetting);

18 U.S.C. § 4 (misprision of felony—duty to report a known federal felony).

Previously Reported, Still Unaddressed

False Reporting (T.C.A. § 39-16-502; 18 U.S.C. § 1001) – July 6, 2024 and thereafter.

Perjury/Aggravated Perjury (T.C.A. §§ 39-16-702, -703; 18 U.S.C. §§ 1621, 1623) – Under oath on Jan 22, 2025 and Aug 12, 2025 (CPS).

Abuse of Process / False OP (T.C.A. § 39-16-503; 42 U.S.C. § 1983).

Conspiracy (T.C.A. § 39-12-103; 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371).

Custodial Interference (T.C.A. § 39-13-306).

Obstruction of Justice (T.C.A. § 39-16-603; 18 U.S.C. § 1503).

Child Abuse Disclosure: On July 6, 2024 Daniel was held down; Deputy Smith instructed Teshia to omit that from her statement. CPS formally documented the abuse on March 18, 2025. You have had this in your possession and have not acted to protect the children.

Your Duties (State + Federal)

As Sheriff, you must investigate crimes within your jurisdiction and must not ignore felony evidence, particularly where children and federal funds are involved.

Because federal benefits and U.S. Treasury funds are implicated, you must immediately notify:

1. SSA Office of Inspector General (OIG), and

2. the FBI (federal fraud, conspiracy, obstruction).

Failure to act after receiving this notice places you at risk of liability under 18 U.S.C. § 2 (aiding and abetting) and 18 U.S.C. § 4 (misprision of felony), and civil exposure under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for depriving rights by refusing to act on exculpatory evidence.

Formal Demands

1. Open an investigation and provide me with a case/incident number for the SSA fraud, perjury, obstruction, and child-abuse components referenced above.

2. Notify SSA OIG and the FBI and confirm in writing that you have done so.

3. Preserve all evidence (litigation hold): reports, body-cams, dash-cams, CAD logs, radio traffic, emails/texts, CPS records, OP filings, court audio/video, and any communications with the DA/ADA or third parties concerning me or my children.

4. Produce the law or written policy—state or federal—that you believe says you “do not have to act or investigate” in these circumstances. (TBI has already indicated no such exemption exists.)

5. Provide a written response within 1 business day confirming the steps taken. I will need to tell the investigator from Social Security what your intentions are?

I can re-send upon request:

A charge sheet detailing Teshia Black’s conduct mapped to Tennessee and federal statutes and key precedent;

A timeline (July 6, 2024 → present), including the CPS March 18, 2025 child-abuse documentation and the SSA fraud just reported.

Go ahead and tell me you can do nothing, quote a fake law, do nothing, ignore me or what ever cowardly oath breakers do.

I am supposed to talk to a fraud investigator tomorrow afternoon. I know the person I talked to today was very interested and concerned about Teshia’s actions and your inactions and was filing the report.

I told you I have a lot of information and resources. You just keep pushing with your shenanigans and I will keep building and pursueing my Federal Civil case.

Your name is going to be a headline, I can not wait.

You swore to protect the citizens of Cocke County and to uphold state and federal law. You now have direct, updated notice of federal crimes involving U.S. government funds and child safety. The law does not permit inaction.

Respectfully,
Jeremy Black
